EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SERVICES AT JACKSON STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Evening Address Made by Secretary Adair, of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Discourse on Scriptural Inspiration of God-Surprise Party Tendered Sophia Williams-Religious News Among the Churches-Repairs at

Secretary W. W. Adair, of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, occupied the puipit of the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening and gave an exceedingly interesting discourse before a large audience. The usual song service was indulged and the speaker read the third chapter of Timothy for the scripture

Mr. Adnir also chose the eleventh verse in the chapter for his text, using the words, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God." He said there is n tendency to eliminate the divine element newadays and make it human in effect. Men are seeking for a gospel of what they call the age of doubt. The very signs to be observed today are referred to in this chapter of Tim-

We have a class of teachers, he said that are trifling with the word of God, and influence the faith in the children of God. This is largely so because Christians are not more familiar with the word of God. Non-believers advance the idea for argument sake that the quoted passage from Timothy is incorrect, as it would naturally include writing, but the proof of their error is found in the fulfillment of God's prophcles, which is the severest test of the truthfulness of the Scriptures.

No modern prophet ever met with unqualified success, and all the prophecies made by God, which the speaker referred to have been futfilled. He related the prophecy regarding the birth of Christ, the destruction of Jerusalem and Babylon. The construction of the Rible is further proof of tiod's prophecy. Mr. Adair compared it to the construction of a building, which was forecasted by the architect, and of the sixty-six books in the Bible written by thirty-eight persons, all were like the different parts of the structure, each fitting in their proper

Learned writers have never equalled the Bible and never will, and the New Testament is inspired just as well as the old book. Its effect on the lives of men is another test of God's prophecy. The good books of today are endorsed by Christian people and the bad ones condemned. Secretary Adair illustrated this point by a recital of incidents

Both left a gambling room at the same time and one encountered a poster advertising an agnostic's lecture on the subject "Is Suicide a Sin," and entered a theater to hear the infidel's version. He immediately afterwards committed suicide. The other man entered a gospel mission, was saved and tollowed Christ ever after.

The libble is first on the field of unknown lands and civilization comes after. It is the greatest book on sucess ever written, and it men would follow its teachings they would meet

IMPROVEMENTS AT NO. 32. When the pupils of No. 32

chool return to their studies many changes will be noticeable about the school grounds. During the past two months workmen have been engaged in building a substantial retaining wall around the grounds, which is a decided improvement in every respect, and edds materially to the appearance of the place. The grounds will also be levelled off and sodded and otherwise beautified.

At the old No. 13 school building on Eynon street, which is used as an annex to No. 32, improvements are also being made. Partitions on the first floor are being removed and the interior is being subjected to a thorough renovation. The entrances will also be repaired before school opens.

WELSH BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. D. D. Hopkins, of Wales, who as expected to assume the pastorate of the First Welsh Baptist church esterday, was unable to leave the old ountry on Aug. 15, as was expected, owing to his failure to obtain quarters on the steamship which departed on that date, and his departure has scessarily been postponed until tomorrow. He is expected to arrive in this city on Wednesday of next week.

The pulpit was supplied yesterday by Rev. Mr. Morgans, of Mahanoy City, and next Sunday evening the young people of the church will have harge of the services.

Rev. Mr. Hopkins will begin his pasorate at the church on Sunday, Sept. 10, and it is expected that large audiences will greet him on that date, as he is very popular with the people of the First Welsh Baptist church.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Professor Daniel Protheroe, of Milwaukee. Wis., conducted the singing at the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist. hurch yesterday morning and also sang a solo. The service was largely attended

Gossip and News Notes.

All that was mortal of the late Richrd Callery was laid to rest in the family plot at the Minooka Catholic emetery Saturday morning. Not in years has the death of a res ident of South Scranton brought together as large a gathering as attended the obsequies of the deceased. The deep sense of respect and the sorrow felt over Mr. Callery's death were eloquently attested by the many at his funeral. The remains reposed as if in a peaceful slumber, in a handome casket in the main parlor of the homestead, Many beautiful floral pieces surrounded the casket. At 9 o'clock the remains were closed from view, and the procession moved to St. Joseph's church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Moffat, of Taylor, who also pronounced the funeral eulogy. spoke of the uncertainty of death and the necessity of being prepared to meet

r, and a true christian. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to their resting place. The pall-bearers were: James c. Downs, William J. Burke, C. T. Boland, P. R. Lowry, Michael McDonnell and T. Maloney. The flower-bearers were chosen from the A. O. H. and were M. G. Cusick and P. C. Joyce.

Many from out of town attended the OTHER PUNERALS.

The funeral of the late George Frueian took place from his home on Cedar avenue Saturday afternoon. The eseem in which he was held was abundantly attested by the large concourse of friends and neighbors present at the ast sad rites. At 2.30 o'clock the procession maved o the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, where services were held. Rev. W. A. Nordt, the pastor, officiated, assisted by the church choir. Rev. Mr. Nordt paid merited tribute to the memory of the deceased. Several fitting hymns were sung by the choir. At the close of the services the renains were borne to the Pittston avenue cometery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were County Commissioner John Demuth. Select Councilman John J. Schneider, George Huesner and John Reuther. From his late home on Alder street. the funeral of William Russ was held Saturday afternoon. The funeral ser-vices were held at the house, and intersent was made at the Independent emetery at Minoeka.
