PAINTERS' MEETING—There will be a special joint session of the painters to-morrow evening at their usual meeting place.

DONATIONS RECEIVED—The Home for the Friendless acknowledges with gratitude the following: Entre Nous club, $10; a friend, $5.

TO BINGHAMTON—The annual excursion to Binghamton, N. Y., for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless will be on Thursday, Sept. 14.

STRUCK WITH A STONE—Fred Ash, of Main street, was struck on the head with a large stone, thrown by some unknown person, on Tuesday evening, and six stitches were required to close the wound.

WILL ARRIVE TODAY—John Fitzhugh, of Minooka, who was seriously injured in Philadelphia a short time ago by falling from a window's scaffold, is to be discharged from the hospital Friday and will arrive home Saturday.

CHANGES AT HONESDALE—Delaware and Hudson Surveyors are now at work there.

There will soon be further changes made at Honesdale by the Delaware and Hudson company. The surveyors have traversed with their instruments the bottom of the canal basin and planted their stakes. Orders have been received here to rebuild what is known as No. 2 steam shovel, but what use it is to be put to no one knows.

The suggestion, however, is that it will be utilized in loading dirt from the banks here into cars for the purpose of filling up the canal. The grade as made by the surveyors will place the railroad bed under the basin bridge.

That structure will have to be raised seven feet to permit the cars to pass under it. The grade of the railroad, it is said, opposite Ninth street, will be about eighteen inches lower than the street.—Wayne Independent.

THEIR ANNUAL REUNION.

WEDDED HALF A CENTURY.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Broadhead, sr., Celebrate Golden Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Broadhead was the scene of joyous festivities on Tuesday, the occasion being the celebration of their golden wedding. They were married at Saylorsburg, Pa., by Rev. Mahlon Sisty on Aug. 29, 1849. Eleven children blessed their union, of which nine are still living. All of the children, seven of the grand children and one great grand child were present. Raymond L. Porter, of Waterbury, Conn., one of the grand children was unable to attend.

The children are Charles W., of Montrose, W. James, of Elk Lake, Mrs. Anna R. Fargo, of Waterbury, Conn.; Rev. J. Erwin, of Forest City, Saml. J. J., of Wealthy, Margaret, Luther B. and J. M., of this place.

At noon a beautiful repast was served, after which Photographers Kemp, of Scranton, took a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Broadhead and their nine children. Mr. Broadhead is a veteran of the Civil war and was a member of Company B, One Hundred and Eighty-fifth regiment, New York volunteers.

Mr. Broadhead was born at Beaumont, Luzerne county, on June 22, 1826. Mrs. Broadhead was born at Sand's Eddy, Northampton county, on March 25, 1826. Her maiden name was Margaret Tild.

This was the first reunion of the family in seven years. After a delightful day most of the children and grand-children returned to their homes.

FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Accused of Robbing and Assaulting an Aged Man.

Patrick Jordan, of Oak Hill, was arraigned last evening before Alderman Miller on charges of aggravated assault and battery and highway robbery preferred by Patrick O'Connor, an aged resident of Moosic.

The latter, who is 62 years of age, says that on the night of Aug. 17 Jordan met him on a road near a coal breaker and brutally assaulted him, knocking him down and kicking him on the shoulders and ribs. He also says that Jordan took from him his purse containing $2.55.

O'Connor was unable to help himself and lay where he fell till morning. The alderman committed Jordan to the county jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

John Gibbons, who was charged with being an accessory, was discharged.

COMPANY B NON-COMS.

They Were Announced Last Night by Captain Kambeck.

Company B met last night in its room in the armory and elected Lieutenant W. C. Scott as treasurer; and Private Alfred Atkinson as secretary. Captain John W. Kambeck also read the names of the non-commissioned officers appointed by him. They are: First sergeant, E. W. Bieseker, second sergeant, Warren Cawell, third sergeant, D. Smith, fourth sergeant, H. F. Kellow, quartermaster sergeant, W. H. Cutler, corporals, A. T. Berry, A. P. Ridgeaway, Frank Malott, Joseph A. O'Hara, John T. Cook, Charles G. Cowell, John Lack and Patrick J. Welsh. All of the above are old non-commissioned officers of the company.

NEARING A SETTLEMENT.

Master Plumbers and Men Have Another Conference.

The master plumbers and the journeymen held another conference last evening in the rooms of the Builders' exchange.

Both sides were very reticent at the conclusion of the session and it is very probable that another meeting will yet be required before matters are finally adjusted. It is now known that the only hope of contention between the two sides is the eight hour demand. Everything else has been satisfactorily arranged.

A Reunion.
A very pleasant reunion was spent Aug. 29 at the home of James Jopling, at Inkerman, Pa. It was the seventy-first birthday of Mr. Jopling. His sons and daughters, with their children, numbering thirty-five, decided to surprise him. It is needless to say that it was a success. A fine supper was served. Mr. George Jopling, in behalf of the guests, presented Mr. J. Jopling with a pair of gold glasses, wishing that he may be able to wear them for many years. The following were present: Mrs. Thomas Jopling, George, Wilford and Charles, of Moosic; Mr. and Mrs. George Jopling, Olive, Bart, Howard and George, of Plainsville; Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Feld and Grace Reid, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, Jennie, Ethel, James, Mabel, and Myrtle, of Inkerman; Mr. and Mrs. James Jopling and Claude and Edna, of Beckville; Mr. and Mrs. Will Booke, Edith and James, of Beckville; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Studley and Ethel Studley, of Green Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wilson and Earl Wilson, of Moosic.

The following trio were given twenty days each on charges of drunkenness and vagrancy: John Carrells, James Brown and Michael White.

DIFFERENCES ARE FINALLY ADJUSTED

PRESIDENT TRUESDALE QUICKLY EFFECTS A SETTLEMENT.

Difficulty Over the Matter of the Length of the Working Day Is Overcome and the Complete Schedule Is at Last Framed—The Conference Adjourns and the Committee Separates—Terms of the Agreement Are Not to Be Made Public as Yet.

After ten days of argument, the conference on the new schedule of rules for the government of the Lackawanna engineers came to a close at noon yesterday, with both parties asserting that a satisfactory agreement had been reached.

The framing of the new schedule was completed last week, except in the matter of the length of the working day. The men wanted it fixed at 10 hours, but the company could not make it less than twelve. Mr. Russell declared. Neither party would make a concession and the engineers withdrew to talk the matter over among themselves.

Grand Chief Arthur was sent for, and after a consultation with him another attempt was made to reach a settlement with Mr. Russell. It proved unsuccessful, and as a last step before turning the case over to Grand Chief Arthur, the engineers appealed to President Truesdale. He met them yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock and at 11:45 an agreement was reached. Its terms were not made known and will not be officially announced until the conference with the conductors' trainmen and firemen are concluded, both parties to the conference having agreed to this.

The only important feature of the schedule officially announced was that eight and one-third miles an hour would be adopted for all sections, such like halts on the run. It is generally understood that the rate per mile is to be three and one-half cents for engineers of first-class trains and four cents for engineers of the slower trains.

Superintendent Russell claims that the engineer's now have a schedule which compares favorably with that on any road in the country, and in this he is corroborated by Grand Chief Arthur. Chairman Swallow and Secretary Davidson, of the engineers' committee, also say that the engineers' condition is bettered to a large degree by the new schedule and that hereafter the men will be better and more equitably paid.

At 5:30 o'clock the engineers waited on General Superintendent Russell and fixed up the matters to the agreement. They then adjourned finally and left for their respective homes.

President Truesdale went back to New York on the 8:30 p. m. train, and Grand Chief Arthur left for his home in Cleveland at 5:50 p. m.

The conductors' and trainmen's joint committee consulted among themselves at A. O. U. W. hall in the morning and at 6 o'clock resumed their conference with General Superintendent Russell and his associates, the division superintendents and heads of the different operating departments. They were in session until 9 o'clock and will reconvene this morning at 9 o'clock. They report that everything is moving smoothly.

CONTRIBUTION CONDITIONAL.

Letter Carriers' Fund Was Decreased $300 Yesterday.

The letter carriers' contribution fund is $300 smaller this morning than it was yesterday morning, which financial shrinkage is due to the mayor's and council's position regarding the laying of the tracks of the Scranton Railway company on Arthur avenue.

General Manager Silliman and company, contributed a check for $300 to the fund on July 25. He gave the check to Major W. S. Miller, chairman of the finance committee, with the proviso that it could be withdrawn in case the company was not allowed to go on with its work on the Arthur avenue loop to Nay Aug park.

As the work has been stopped on this loop by order of the mayor and as the railway company will not be able to have the line running in time to avail itself of the increased revenue that would come from better facilities for handling the crowds that will journey to the park next week, Mr. Silliman called yesterday at Major Miller's office and requested the return of the check, which request was complied with.

The affair throughout was a pure business transaction.

RECEIVED A HURRIED CALL.

Murphy Left Last Night for Philadelphia.

Lieutenant Thomas P. Murphy, who has been appointed second lieutenant in the Forty-seventh regiment United States volunteers, left yesterday to report in Philadelphia, at once and left last night at 10:05.

He will act as recruiting officer in the Arch street recruiting station for ten days, after which he expects to join his command.

On account of the unexpected call Lieutenant Murphy must forego a farewell reception that was to be tendered to him this evening by the Knights of Columbus.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ORGANIZE

Form Themselves Into a Mutual Protective Association.

A number of the retail merchants of the city held a meeting last evening in Raub's Hall on Wyoming avenue and organized an association to be known as the Scranton Retail Protective Association.

The following officers were elected: President, J. K. Smith, first vice-president, William Farrell, second vice-president, C. G. Rosar; recording secretary, J. W. Rittenhouse; assistant recording secretary, S. K. Spencer; treasurer, Herman Young; directors, Charles Gray, S. B. Jones, George Coons, J. W. Warnke and Philip Holt.

GOOD SINGING ASSURED.

Convention Glee Club Will Furnish Excellent Music.

The people of this city hardly realize the rare musical treat that is in store for them during the letter carriers' convention. The Scranton Glee club, organized for the purpose of furnishing vocal music during the convention, held one of its final rehearsals last evening in the high school auditorium.

The club is under the leadership of John T. Watkins and under his able direction has made great progress. The ensemble effort, especially in Frobenius's "Crusaders," which will be rendered, is soul stirring in its tone and volume.

PROPOSE TO ANNUAL PAVING CONTRACT

PROVIDENCE PEOPLE TIRED OF WAITING FOR COMPANY.

Common Councilman M. V. Morris Waits on City Solicitor Vosburg and Asks Him to Figure Out a Feasible Way of Taking the Job Out of the Hands of the Dilatory Philadelphians and Giving it to the Next Best Bidder, M. H. Dale, of This City.

A movement is on foot to take the contract for paving North Main avenue and Providence road away from the dilatory Girard Construction company and give it to the next best bidder, M. H. Dale.

Common Councilman Morris V. Morris, with the consent of the other North End councilmen and the approval of the property holders, is heading the movement.

He interviewed the city officials yesterday and finding them either favorably disposed or indifferent to the proposition, waited on City Solicitor Vosburg and asked him to figure out a legal way of carrying out the project.

Mr. Vosburg is satisfied that it can be done, but hesitates to give an opinion as to the proper way of proceeding until he has given the matter some study. A suggestion to the effect that the resolution awarding the contract could be repealed by a concurrent resolution was thought by Mr. Vosburg to be feasible. He would not say it was, though, until he looked into the matter further.

CAUSE OF MOVEMENT.

The failure of the Girard company to make any move towards carrying out their contract during the four months since it was signed, and the inability of the city officials to get any satisfactory answers to queries as to what the company proposed doing, led to the present movement.

What precipitated it was the action of the Scranton Railway company in beginning extensive and costly temporary repairs on its North Main avenue tracks. A gang of 100 men were put to work yesterday morning at the Wood street intersection laying wooden ties for a double track to the square. The trolley company has waited a year at least for the pavement to be laid, intending to set its rails in concrete. General Manager Silliman, who has had numerous interviews with the trolley company regarding the commencement of the paving work, has evidently become convinced that it isn't to be undertaken this year and not wishing to put up with the dilapidated North Main avenue track for another six months, resolved upon improving them temporarily. When the paving is begun, if it ever is begun, these tracks will have to be dug up, the wooden ties removed, deeper excavations made and steel cross ties on a concrete base put in their place. It is safe to say that the trolley company would not go to this great expense if it was not assured that the paving operations were a dim and distant uncertainty.

Mr. Dale, whose bid of $1.98 per square yard is only one cent higher than the Girard bid, stated last evening that he is willing to take the contract and start on the work the minute papers are executed.

MR. DALE'S STATEMENT.

"I would prefer that the Girard company should do the work as they propose to lay their brick from my company," said Mr. Dale, "but in view of the fact that the Girard company is in danger of losing the contract I am anxious to get it, so that my company shall not lose the state of the brick. There may be some pro bono publico in my motive, but I am not making any pretensions in that direction. If the North End people want me to take the contract I stand ready to accommodate them."

The contract with the Girard company was signed May 29, 1898. It calls for the completion of the work by May 29, 1900. According to expert calculations the work cannot be done in less than four months. Only a small portion of it could be completed this year, as City Engineer Phillips will not allow any concrete to be laid in frosty weather, and it would be scarcely possible, judging from the way the winters are lengthening out in this region, to do much more prior to the expiration of the contract. But, this aside, the company has not commenced work yet and gives no assurance that it will commence this year, which means that the North End will have to wait a year or more with the mud canal on Main avenue and Providence road, which, they claim, is depreciating their property and injuring their health, and which they do not propose to put up with if there is any way of avoiding it. The legislation looking to a change of contractors will be introduced in council one week from tonight.

Why the Band Won't Come.
Commissioner General John B. Webster of the Pan-American exhibition, which will open its gates to the world at Buffalo on the first day of May, in the year 1901, impressed upon William G. Curtis, the special South American commissioner, that one of the features which the management was anxious to secure was a Peruvian band, which to the countries of South America was as famous as is the band of John Philip Sousa to the music lovers of this country.

"The men and women of the United States would greatly enjoy listening to the playing of the national airs of the South American countries by that famous organization," said the commissioner general to Mr. Curtis a short time before that gentleman started for the south. "Secure them and let me hear from you."

And Mr. Curtis started for faraway Lima, in Peru to get that band. A day or so ago the commissioner general received the letter which he had been expecting day by day.

It was a long letter but the facts regarding the band might be "boded" into the following startling dispatch:
"Impossible to get band. It was in the thick of the most recent revolution. It is all dead."
