Death of Mrs. Bradford-A Military Miner-Silk Mill Resumes Operations-New Musical Composition. Personal News.

Mrs. Bradford, an aged lady, who has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Swick, of Main street, for the past six months of a cancerous growth, died yesterday afternoon. The deceased has for the past seventeen years made her home off and on with her sister here. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Brown, of Jersey City, and Mrs. Brown and a son of Corning, N. Y. The funeral will take place on Sunday. Interment will be made at Factoryville. A somewhat unusual sight may be dally witnessed at the Delaware and Hudson colliery, where a miner who served in an infantry regiment during the late trouble at Porto Rico now goes to his daily toll in full regimentals, including the military leggins, In place of his Mauser rifle he now carries a drill. He says he prefers the mine drill to the military drill. The silk mill which has been idle sev eral weeks, started up full blast again yesterday morning and the prospects are bright for full time for several months to come. A CARD OF THANKS.

PROF. COLES FOR SEPTEMBER.

From Storms and Signs. The great Atlantic cyclone and tidal wave, that we predicted in our August forecasts, came in all its fury and swept ive thousand human beings off the face of the earth and left fifteen thousand others homeless and starving. This is but the forerunner, we believe, of greater and more destructive storms to follow in all parts of the world, as more remarkable conjunctions of the planets than has occurred for six thousand years will take place during the next four months; great disasters are probable, a cataclysm possible. From the 1st to the 6th; from the 8th to the 12th; from the eranton, were the guests of Mr. and 14th to the 18th and from the 20th to the 30th will be great danger periods, when destructive storms and floods are liable to occur at any place. THEATRICAL.

"The Purple Lady." "The Purple Lady," by Sydney Rosenfeld, the author of "The Senator" and a score or more of successful plays, will receive i .- . rst local presentation here tonight at the Lyceum theater. It was one of the chief farcical successes in New York last season, and, if we are to judge by the reception it has met with in some of the cities outside of the metropolis, our theatergoers will turn out in full to see this mirth provoking farce. "The Purple Lady' is said to be a complete laugh
