It is not always best to wait until it needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dians rhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years put together, and until the last rew years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly fulling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh be a constitutional disease, and there to be a constitutional disease, and there-fore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 16 s to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. "A Trip to Chinatown."

That Charles H. Hoyt and his farces have a strong hold upon theater-goers of this city has been thoroughly demonstrated time and again. His varlous comedies have been greeted by large and fashionable audiences when presented here, and the heavy demand for seats for the engagement of his revival of "A Trip to Chinatown" a: the Lyceum next Monday afternoon and evening and the unusual interest manifested in the coming of this popular comedy success forcibly illustrates once more the fondness and admiration by which Mr. Howt's peculiar methods for producing merriment are held by the amusement-seeking pub-The "A Trip to Chinatown" presented this season comes heralded as being even better and brighter than ever, with everything in the way of music, dances, specialties, scenery stage accessories and costumes new and up-to-date. Harry Gufoll, know-a as the leading comedian of the Hoyt & McKee staff of fun furnishers, will be seen in the role of Welland Strong.

This Week's Repertoire.

The repertoire of the Wolford Sher!dan company, which appears at the Academy of Music all next week is decidedly unusual, including as it does an entire line of plays which are now presented for the first time at popular prices. Among the productions given during the engagement are "On the Mississippi, "A Soldier of France," "The Bowery Girl," "The Showman's Daughter," "The Pulse of New York" "In Her Power," "The Octoroon," "Miss Cleopatra," etc. They will all be presented complete. The company said to be strong and their presentations are particularly handsome. Miss Mamie Sheridan Wolford, a particularly charming actress, is at the head of the company, and is supported by a strong array of artists. Something new in the way of vaudeville between the casts is promised by the management. The opening play will be "On the Mississippi," one of the strongest plays in the repertoire. Matinees will be given daily commencing Monday.

"The Dairy Farm."

James H. Wallick's new play, "The Dairy Farm," is equipped with picturesque scenery, artistic printing and an excellent company. The play is based upon the old but ever new story that true love ever triumphs over all obstacles, and wins its way to hap piness at last. "The Dairy Farm' will be presented at the Lyceum theater on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Sept. 6 and 7.
