GRAND OFFICERS HERE.

Came in Response to the Request of Committees of Conductors and Trainmen of the Lackawanna

E. E. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, grand chief of the Order of Railway Conductors, and P. H. Morrissy, of Peorla, Ill., grand master of the Order of Railway Trainmen, arrived in the city early Monday morning and yesterday met and conferred with the committees representing the train, a and conductors who are employed on the Lackawanna railroad. Last week these committees were in conference with Superintendent Russell, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company concerning the number of hours to constitute a day and matters pertaining to a schedule of

On Friday a question arose in the onference that the members of the committee deemed of such importance as to require a consultation with the grand officers of the orders. The conference consequently came to an end for the present and Messrs, Clark and Morrissy were sent for. They met with the members of the committees in A. O. U. W. hall yesterday and the matters at issue were talked over. They will meet with the members of the committee again today.

THE SOUTH.

Thousands of Visitors in North Caro-

Yearly. The mountains of Western North Carolina have indeed been a refuge this summer. From every state south of Maryland and east of Obio the tourists have poured by the thousands, and today the countles west of the Ciue Ridge in North Carolina are thronged with visitors who have fled from the torrid rays of the sun in the ome land to the shades of these great mountains.

The cooling waters of the French troad, Swannanoa, Davidson and Mills rivers, the Pigeon, the Tuckaseege, the Tennessee, Hiwassee, Nantahala, Toe, 'ane and other rivers and creeks have been sought by the invalid, the pleasure-seeker and the sportsman, and from the Elue Ridge to Smoky Mountains every mountain glen, and gorge, ind valley, and country side has been filled with those locking for a cooler spot, a deeper shad w.

And none have been disappointed. There has not been a night this summer, between Mitchell's Peak and Chunky Gal, when sleep was not comfortable under more or less covering. It seems safe to say that between 15,600 and 25,000 people are now in our mountains and still they come. And this throng increases as the years go What formerly was confined to Asheville has now spread until it covers every one of the 12 counties lying west of the Eidge, to say nothing of the half dozen or more on the eastern side of the mountain.

CONGREGATIONALISTS CLOSE. Resolutions Adopted at the Final

Session in Taylor Yesterday.

At the closing session yesterday of he Congregational church representatives, held in Taylor, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That we, members of the Welsh Association of Eastern Pennsylcania, urge the representatives of congress to do all that they possibly can, according to the laws of the United States, to unseat Representative Roberts, of I'tah, for the reason that he s guilty of polygamy.

"Resolved, That we heartly commend the law to do away with the can-teen in the army of the United States, and believe that it is the duty of the secretary of war to enforce the law,"

OPENING OF THE THEATRICAL SEASON

LARGE AUDIENCES AT THE LY-CEUM AND ACADEMY.

At the Former the Attraction Was "A Trip to Chinatown" with Harry Gilfoil in the Role of Welland Strong - The Wolford-Sheridan Company Opened Its Senson at the Academy by Presenting "On the Mississippi"-Received a Very Cordial Reception from the Large Au-

The theatrical season in Scranton was formally opened yesterday at both the Lyceum and Academy of Music. Performances were given afternoon evening and the houses were crowded. Naturally the largest crowds vere at the evening performance.

At the Lyceum the attraction was "A Trip to Chinatown," Hoyt's enjoyible farce, which never seems to lose is popularity. It has been brightened and burnished for this season and new and up-to-date specialties introduced. At the head of the company in the role of Welland Strong is Harry Cliffoil, the whistling comedian, who has long been dentified with the Hoyt forces. He kept the farce moving in a spirited way last night and proved a great entertainer. Assisting him were Mable Montgomery, Eleanor Falk, Bertha Holly, Finn Reynolds, Gus P. Thomas George Shields, Harry Mestayer, E. M. Hall and others, Mr. Hall gave a numer of selections on the banjo. He is ecognized as one of the leading banjo players of the country. From the charactor of the actists who comprise the company that Mr. Hoyt has sent out o do "A Trip to Chinatown" this year t can be safely predicted that it will have a successful season.

"On the Mississippi."

At the Academy of Music the Wolford-Sheridan company opened its own earon as well as the season of the Academy by presenting the five-act drama, "On the Mississippi." The manner in which it was applauded is the best testimony that can be given oncerning the way it pleased the audiences that saw it afternoon and evening. The company is headed by Mamie Sheridan Wolford, a very talented young woman, who made a splendid impression last night in the role of Marie Granden. The supporting company is composed of very competent persons and the play was staged in an xceptionally fine manner. troduced and the performance is practically continuous. Among the specialty artists are Miss Stella Blair, dancer; F. J. Hilliker, baritone, who sang several numbers, and Victor Harvey, who sings parodies on popular songs in an irresistibly funny manner. This afternoon the company will present "A Soldier of France" and tonight In Her Power."

"The Dairy Farm."

Eleanor Merron, a relative of Julia Ward Howe, author of the famous Battle Hymn of the Republic," has a new pastoral play, "The Dairy Farm," which will be seen here at the Lyceum, Sept. 6 and 7. The lina Mountains-Crowd Increases elevate the stage, reasons thus: There expense of modesty that ever paid respective of faction. There are no the purchasers, nor the seller; in fact. "insurgents" when the governor's the purchasers, nor the seller; in fact, both parties to the bargain lose. Otherwise expressed, the American stage is now to a great extent given over to immodest, suggestive plays, yet with all their vogue and the prestige of Paris, London and New York sucesses, none of these pieces has carned fraction of the money that "Old cention what "Uncle Tom's Cabin" ably be often entertained by Mrs. Con-as drawn to the box offices, Miss Merron says a perfectly clean ! story if well told will always create gowned. Yesterday she were a more laughter and better laughter than spangled black, with white slik and smutty tale. This is the idea of "The Dairy Farm," to give to the American at her throat. Her dinner gown last people a good, bright clean play that night was white satin encrusted with is just as funny as anything from richly wrought black lace.

the Boston Serenaders.

The management of the Lyccum comises its patrons a novelty in the ngagement of "The Boston Serenaders," an organization of recognized lyric players, presenting their own farcical operattas. "The Boston Sere-naders" is a new organization and the first of its kind in the country. It does not claim its productions to be light operas, but modestly announces them as fareleal operettas.

They are said by competent critical ho have seen them to be a happy edium between light opera proper and the higher class of farce comedies. On Friday, Sept. 8, this company will preent Mr. Fred Miller's latest work. 'Davy Jones," a nautical musical nov-

TOOK TOO MUCH MEDICINE.

Thomas Koschok Died Very Suddenly at Winton. Thomas Koschok, a miner employed n the Grassy Island shaft at Olyphant, ited very suddenly at his home in Win-on borough early Sunday evening. Coroner Roberts investigated the case thoroughly yesterday morning and discovered the probable cause of death. It appears that the deceased had obtained a dose of medicine from a neighbor last week for a stomach disorder he was suffering from.

He called at the house again on Sunday evening and, not finding the man in, went to the cupboard where the medicine was kept and took almost half the contents of the bottle. He became very weak and went home and died soon after retiring to his bed.

The medicine he took contained opium and the quantity taken of this particuiar drug alone was ten times the ordinary dose. He had been a drinking man and the post-mortem examination revealed the fact that he had only one lung. These conditions tended to increase his susceptibility.

An inquest will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the undertaker's rooms in Olyphant

MORNING PARADE THE LARG-EST EVER HELD HERE.

Organizations in Line Made a Very Creditable Showing and Were Reinforced by United Mine Workers from Up and Down the Valley. Thousands of Men in Line-Picnic and Speeches at Laurel Hill Park During Afternoon and Evening. Organizations in Line.

The Labor Day parade surpassed enything heretofore conducted by or ganized labor in this city. The mosnotable representation being the turncut of the miners from the differen oranches of the United Mine Workers of America from this city and adjoining towns between Carbondale and Wilkes-Barre.

Mayor Moir was to have a prominent place in the demonstration, but owing to some mistake a carirage was not provided and after some annoy ance had been caused his honor h was placed in a carriage on the left of ex-Mayor Fellows. Probably the strongest represents ers, was the turnout of the Carpen ters' unions, numbering several hundred men. The Flumbers' union also unde a very creditable showing, and had in line a large number of men. The Tinners' union, which is a comparatively young organization, were vell represented in the parade, and the Electrical Workers, with an "illumin-

tion in line, outside of the Mine Work

ited colored man" were a feature of he demonstration. Nearly a thousand men were in lin from Forest City and Vandling, and the North Scranton, Taylor, South Scranton and West Scranton mine vorkers were strong in numbers. The Horseshoers' association were counted, and were uniforms of similar
