of the roulette ball. These are instances of the turning of electrical princlples to dishonest ends. One of Mr. Morgan's illustrations of fakes, pure and simple, is the Kansas "electric spring," to which thousands of people continue to flock for the cure of their allments until it was discovered that the patients got their shock by standing on an iron plate connected with well. As a personal experience, Mr. Morgan tells of a "doctor" who invited his approval of an "electric lounge,

CARBONDALE. LABOR DAY PARADE.

Thousands of Mine Workers in Line. Picnic in the Afternoon.

The labor organizations could not have had a more favorable day than yesterday for their parade. It was cool and clear and everything moved along with spirit. Yesterday's was the first purely labor demonstration Carbondale has had in many years and it was the result of work done recently by organizers in this section.

It was after 11 o'clock when Grand Marshal R. J. Padden gave marching orders. He and his aldes were followed a platoon of mounted police, after which came the city officials, Mayfield band, Archbald, Jermyn and Mayfield unions, Lackawanna drum corps, Simpson union, Carbondale unions, Nos. 844 and 877 and the Carbondale Juniors.

About three thousand men were h line and the procession placed the miners before the public in a new and favorable light. Their numbers general appearance conveyed the impression of strength.

In the afternoon the assemblage repaired to McLaughlin's-better known as Murdock's-grove and had a picnic There they were joined by mothers wives, children and sweethearts and a merry time was had until late in the

The success of vesterday's affair will doubtless encourage the United Mine Workers to further efforts.

> Good Enough to Take.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medi-cine for the cure of coughs, colds, la grippe, croup and whooping cough it is inequaled by any other. It always cures, and cures quickly. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

Mr. Kingsley has decided to again try and finish the salt breaker at Ayery Island, La. Yesterday Superintendent George Wescot and four men started for Avery Island. Mr. Russell Hoffecker, of this place, accompanied them. It will be remembered that Mr. Wescott and his corps of carpenters were forced to return to this place some three months ago on account of half their number being taken down with typhold fever. Since their return all have fully recovered their usual health.

From the Chicago Record. Taking for his text the "reverend" promoter of the late electrolytic salts swindle, the lucrative netivity of Keely, and of Pennock of battery notoriety, Jacques L. Morgan pays his addresses to modern electrical fakirs, whose operations, he says, are characterized by impudence which is successful only because it is so colossal as to paralyze all attempts to gauge it. The antediluvian electric-helt scientist still charges his harness with red pepper, and the electric-bottle man proluces the gentle illusion of his craft with essential oil of mustard; the disnonest jockey simply lets his mount loaf along till he is on the home stretch, when he connects his noble steed with the electric gear under his saddle, and the effect is instantancous. The burglar now discords the 'jimmy" and drill, and melts his way noiselessly into the treasury safe with a carbon and a few feet of wire. The loaded dice of the gambling cheat is a game.) clumsy device alongside of the magnotic roulette ball. Concealed under the arm of the croupier's chair are buttons corresponding to the red, black, odd, even, high, low and rows of numbers. These buttons connect by commutators to electric magnets on the wheel, the ivory ball having a soft iron core of high permeability. There is no place of metal in existence which

WANTED- A POSITION AS HOUSE.

At the Farallones the erosive agents have worked with queer caprice. This rock being granite, has been acted upon by the sea at all levels, and through the long period when it has been rising out of the water depths. Through a long, narrow hole, slanting and communicating with the ocean, there comes at inter-vals a terrific stream of air, forced by the spasmodic heaving of the waves against the lower orifice. The govern-ment, which uses this island for lighthouse purposes, inclosed the upper end with the nozzle of a fog horn, and every few second there was blown an ear-split-ing braw!, which was heard far out at sea and above the din of the breaking rollers. It was allowed to roar only in weather, but it was eccentric in foggy that it would only sound at high tide When the tide was low, although the weather might be very thick, the thing was silent. For lack of its warning ship went ashere upon the Island rocks, and then it was that the government abandoned its location on the wind hole and erected a steam siren, or mechanica fog horn, which has since very faithfully
