SUNDAY EVENING FIGHT.

Last Sunday evening Hospital street was the scene of a fight that resulted in the arrest of Andrew Barber and Melala, Joe Cooper witnessed the beginning of the fight and attempted to stop it but failed. When the men were arraigned before the mayor they admitted having been drunk but refused to tell where they got their beer.

Cooper was present to prosecute and told about the fight stating that the men were drunk and used cinbs and nold; recitation, Miss Alice Chivers; stones. This part of the story being denied, the mayor fined them $5 or fifteen days in jall. After the prisoners had been remanded for non-payment of fines and just before the mayor left his office, one of their countrymen paid Attending the Tripp Reunion-Fashthe fines.

DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY.

The seventy-first anniversary of Methodism in Carbondale will be celebrated by the people of the Methodist Episcopal church by services which will be held in that edifice on Sunday and Monday next. Many of the former pastors of the church will be here and will participate in the services which have already been arranged by Rev. Mr. Chaffee, An anniversary supper will be served by the ladies of the church. The anniversary will be celebrated as the diamond anniversary although that event will not be due for four years.

CITY WATER.

A resolution was read in council rooms Monday night providing that a contract be made with the Consolidated Water company to be in effect until April 1, 1901, for supplying water for fire purposes for seventy-eight hydrants at 15 cash and for 20 cents per 1,600 gallons for flushing tanks, payment for hydrants to be made only for time when in use. An opinion from the city solicitor was read stating that such a contract would bind the city for that period as well as the company but the thought was expressed that the contract was legal.
