CARBONDALE.

CHANGED MANAGERS.

R. Pierrepont Hamilton, of Scranton, yesterday closed negotiations for the proprietorship of Hotel Anthracite. Mr. Hamilton previous to his time of residence in Scranton, acquired much knowledge in this line in the St. Nicholas hotel, New York, then under the management of L. D. Biroux, who will be with him for a time in this city. The negotiations for his control have lasted for some time and finally lense was signed lasting until April 1 1901. The new manager will allow all of the old help to remain. Among the most important changes that are to be made is the changing of the space naw occupied by C. Ditchburn's flour store into a lunch room. The future husiness of the retiring manager, W. L. Thompson, has not been announced. This is the sixth change of managers at the Anthracite.
