EXCELLENT CONCERT IN TAB-ERNACLE CHURCH.

Given by the Pupils of Miss Sadie Jones, Assisted by Local Talent. Miss Cora Storms Injured in a Collision at Stroudsburg-Family Reunion in Honor of Mrs. Mary Watkins-Painting of Colonel Ira Tripp Presented to Hose Company-Other Notes and Personals.

An excellent entertainment was given the Tabernaele Congregational church fast evening by the pupils taught by Mirs Sadie Jones, assisted well known talent. The audience about half filled the church, and the exercises were presided over by David J. Davis. Probably the most pleasing numbers on the programme were the tableaux presented by the children. They represented 'Dewey," "Rock of Ages," "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Innocence." These selections were mostly given in the form of recitations Miss Sadie Edwards gave a pleasing plano selection, and Miss Effic Browning recited "One of the Herces," very cleverly. Philip Warren sang a solo, and the Misses Thomas Weatherhog. Evans, Lewis, Bowen, Browning, Richards. Williams and Jenkins gave sev eral dramatic posings. Mrs. James will spend a few days there and in | Heckel rendered a soprane solo in excellent voice and Reba Williams recited "A Mother's Prayer" very pathetically, A duet, "Tell Me Where do Fairies Dwell," was given by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Reese and was followed by a recitation, "The Lost Chord," by Blodwin Jenkins

In the second part of the programme Iver Price played the "Bells of Aberdovey," on the piano, and Miss Eva Thomas recited "A Wayward Life." She was assisted in the rendition by Maud Weatherhog, whose recital of "Eack of Ages" was excellently given, Miss Sadie Edwards sang an alto solo, and dramatic posings, including "Near-er My God to Thee," were given by the nine little girls mentioned above. Muss Olive Bowen recited "The Song of the Camp," assisted in the solo part by her father Edwin Bowen. "The Stars and Stripes Forever," recitation was given by Miss Reba Williams, and additional dramatic posings were also given, Miss Jones deserves great credit for the excellent manner in which the entertainment was givn and the audience showed its appreclation by generous applause.

MISS STORM INJURED.

Miss Cora C. Storm, of 425 South Main avenue, a teacher at No. 18 school, met with a painful accident at Stroudsburg on Monday, which will undoubtedly incapacitate her for some time While driving along one of the principal streets, in company with two other ladies, their carriage was run into by a heavy wagon, driven by an intoxicated man, who was returning from the Stroudsburg fair.

The ladies noticed the reckless driver oming and tried to avoid a collision by turning to the side of the street, but the ruffian seemed bent on overturning their carriage, and this he succeeded in doing, throwing the ladies out, and detaching the four wheels of the vehicle from the body.

Miss Storm sustained a dislocation of the knee, and suffered a severe shock, and the other ladies escaped with slight scratches and bruises. Miss Storm was assisted to the home of Mrs. Davis, nearby, and Dr. Lesh was summoned and set the fracture, and the injured woman was brought to this city yesterday afternoon and is now resting comfortably at her home. The ruffians who occupied the wagon whipped up their horses and escaped without stopping to ascertain the extent of the ladies' injuries. They are known, however, and warrants have been sworn out for their arrest.

PLEASANT FAMILY REUNION. Mrs. Mary Watkins is seventy-eight years of age, and resides with her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Williams, at 1117 Luzerne street. Thursday evening was an occasion of great pleasure to this worthy matron. Her children and grandchildren, several of whom are here on a visit from the west, planned a family gathering, probably the last one in the earthly career of their nother, because the children are wide ly distributed over the country.

Grandmother Watkins was in un usually good spirits, and looked a verilable queen as she sat surrounded by a happy group of children and grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, at whose home the gathering was held, are charming entertainers. The occasion was one to be long remembered. Refreshments were served and numerous reminiscences indulged in.

Those present were Rev. W. G. Watkins, Mrs. W. G. Watkins, Misses Bertha, Susic. Lily, Ethel, Ruth and Master Earl Watkins; Mrs. E. R. Willlams and daughter Bertha, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Davies, of Brazil, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knarr, Misses Stella. Sadie, Bessie, Masters Harry and Willie Knarr, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Williams, Miss Alice and Master Charles Williams, and Grandma Watkins.

How Mrs. Pinkham HELPED MRS. GOODEN.

[LETTER TO MRS. FINEHAM NO. 12,733] "I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries.

"I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine.

"The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look!' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health."-Mrs. E. J. GOODEN, ACKLEY, 1A.

REVENUE STAMP TAX.

Powers of Attorney Used in the Transfer of Stock.

A misunderstanding has evidently arisen regarding the form of stock transfers upon which a 25-cent revenustamp is required, and for the benefit of secretaries of companies and attorneys of corporations, a recent ruling by Acting Commissioner Williams will be of interest.

Under date of August 2, 1899, the internal revenue commissioner ruled that the following form was not a power of attorney within the meaning of the internal revenue law, and would only taxatic as a transfer rate of 2 cents for each $100 or fraction thereof of the par value o the stock: For value received, I hereby assign and
