EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ARRANGING FOR THE FATHER MATHEW DAY PARADE.

Prospects of the Event Being Held in West Scranton on October 10. Meeting of the Board of Government Yesterday—Rev. Hopkins at Welsh Baptist Church—Funeral of Elmer Richards—Fourth Ward School Controllership—Moonlight Assembly—Other Notes and Personals.

The societies identified with the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the Scranton diocese, most of whom are located in West Scranton, are making preparations for the annual observance of Father Mathew day in this city on Tuesday, October 10. The principal event of the day will be the parade in the morning, and during the afternoon a picnic will be held under the auspices of St. Peter's society of Bellevue. In the evening the various societies will conduct dances, both Mears' hall and St. David's hall having already been engaged for that purpose.

An effort is being made by the West Scranton societies to confine the parade to this side of the river and also to hold the picnic in the Round Woods, but both of these questions have not yet been decided upon, and will not come up for final consideration until the next meeting of the general committee in charge of affairs. The Board of Government held a special meeting in Masonic Hall yesterday afternoon, at which the following members were present: President, Rev. J. J. McCabe, Auburn Centre; first vice-president, James Masterson, Wilkes-Barre; second vice-president, William Gilroy, Archbald; treasurer, William Mulloy, Carbondale; secretary, Charles Canavan, West Scranton.

The principal matter of business reported was the completion of arrangements with the railroad companies for special transportation rates on October 10 between Carbondale and Wilkes-Barre. It is expected that a rate of 50 cents will be secured between Scranton and Carbondale, and an equally good rate will be made down the valley. The parade will consist of four divisions, the first being made up of clergymen and officers in carriages, headed by the Knights of Father Mathew of Archbald, as guards of honor.

Grand Marshal Peter J. McCoy is now in communication with the various societies and will be unable to announce the formation of the parade and line of march until the aides selected by the different organizations are reported to him. Hon. Thomas Mooney, of Carbondale, has been selected as marshal for the Pioneer City division.

The Hyde Park Father Mathew society held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, and discussed the arrangements for the parade, and acted upon matters pertaining to uniforms, etc. They also decided to hold a social session at their next meeting, which will be held two weeks hence.

St. Paul's Pioneer corps also met yesterday afternoon and took similar action relative to Father Mathew day. The members decided to conduct their thirteenth annual banquet at St. David's hall on Tuesday evening, October 17.

A meeting of St. Lea's Battalion will be held this evening in their headquarters on North Main avenue to consider the appointment of an aide to the grand marshal and to decide upon uniforms for the parade.

KIDNEY CURE

BEGAN HIS PASTORATE.

Rev. D. D. Hopkins, the newly-selected pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, began his pastorate at that edifice yesterday morning. During the service, which was in Welsh, he referred feelingly to his acceptance of the call to the church and said he had given the matter earnest consideration before deciding to come to America.

At the evening service, which was also in Welsh, Rev. Hopkins preached an eloquent and forcible sermon, taking his text from the twenty-eighth chapter of Mathew and the twentieth verse, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo I am with you always, even until the end of the world."

The speaker said, among other things, that "the language of the church today is the same that Christ taught his, and that Jesus Christ ignored the popular theology of the day and condemned it in its face. It is a moral crime to preach something in the name of Christ, and a minister of the gospel standing before an audience has no right to preach anything but Christ and Him crucified."

FUNERAL OF ELMER RICHARDS.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Elmer Richards, who met an untimely death in an elevator shaft last week, were conducted at the home of his parents in Bellevue and at the Plymouth Congregational church Saturday afternoon. Many young people were present, including a large number of the pupils from No. 13 school, where deceased was a student under Professor David Owens.

Brief services were held at the house and the remains were afterwards borne to the Plymouth Congregational church where Rev. E. A. Boyle officiated. A sextette, composed of Misses Agnes and Gladys Joseph, Mrs. Louis A. Howell, David E. Hughes and Elias Evans, sang several hymns during the service.

The pallbearers and flower bearers were from the Plymouth Congregational Sunday school and No. 13 school and were Elmer Collins, Evan Davis Aaron Edwards, Ellsworth Kelly, Archie Mears. Burial was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Reese Lloyd, of North Bromley avenue, employed as a company hand in the Diamond mine, was squeezed between cars while at work on Saturday and suffered a fracture of the shoulder blade. Dr. George B. Reynolds attended him.

James W. Gritman and Miss Eliza R. Payliss were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Bellevue, by Rev. S. F. Mathews, pastor of the First Baptist church. The wedding was a quiet affair, being attended only by the relatives and friends of the family. Refreshments were served after the ceremony, and the evening was enjoyably spent by the guests.

The Columbia Hose and Chemical company will hold an important meeting this evening, when several important matters pertaining to the firemen's parade will be acted upon.

E. R. Griffiths, who was for many years a member of the firm of Eynon, Griffith & Co., will today assume the responsible position of general manager and buyer of the grocery department of Jonas Long's Sons.

A double wedding will occur at St. David's Episcopal church at noon tomorrow, when Rev. E. J. McHenry will unite Miss May Fisher and Thomas A. Beck, and Miss Mary E. Kenward and John Booker. A reception will follow and will be held in the Bicycle club house.

Rev. S. F. Matthews, of the First Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of the Welsh Calvinistic church, South Main avenue, last evening. The services were conducted in English.

An iron fence is being placed on the Roberts' court side of No. 18 school yard.

Work will be resumed at the Mount Pleasant colliery this morning, after an idleness of two weeks.

Work will be resumed at the Mount Pleasant colliery this morning after an idleness of two weeks.

A dancing class will be opened in St. David's hall this evening by the Admiral Dewey Social club.

The Women's Veteran Relief union will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. Leah James, 708 South Main avenue, Wednesday evening, Sept. 13.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Phillips returned from their wedding tour last evening, which was spent in New York city and a trip up the Hudson.

Misses Krager and Denn, and George Krager, of North Hyde Park avenue, leave this evening for an extended visit with friends in Sayre, Susquehanna and Binghamton.

Mrs. Evans, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Contractor and Mrs. William R. Williams, of South Main avenue.

The Alerts of Wyoming the reputed amateur champions of Luzerne county came into town yesterday to demonstrate their superiority over the home team, but they were sadly disappointed and before the ending of the opening innig they realized their opponents ability to handle the willow. The visitors were easily outbatted by the home team. The fielding of both sides was good. The Alerts were defeated by the score of 18 to 7.

John Gorham of Ashley, was the guest of Patrick Connolly yesterday.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary A. Lee, of 532 North Lincoln avenue, breathed her last on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, after only two days' illness. She was born in Abington, this county, Aug. 27, 1834, and was married to Edwin Lee, now deceased, in April, 1851. They came to Scranton in 1870 and she had lived here since. She was a home-loving mother, never so happy as when she had her children with her. She was an invalid for a number of years, consequently went from home but little. She bore her suffering with the greatest fortitude and filled a place in her home life that only a loving mother can. Deceased leaves three children to mourn her loss, Ira R., of 528 North Lincoln avenue; Manly L. and J. Louisa Lee, of this city, and two brothers, John and Lewis Rose, and one sister, Mrs. Julia H. Baker, all of Susquehanna county. Funeral Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

CONSTABLE WOELKERS PLACED UNDER ARREST.

He Is Charged with Having Committed a Brutal and Unprovoked Assault on John Gordon—What the Free Press Says About the Case—Funeral of Joseph Savensky Who Was Killed in a Sewer Trench Friday Evening—New Social Club Has Been Organized.

The following is reprinted from yesterday's Free Press:

Joe Woelkers, of the South Side, assaulted John Gordon, a Tribune reporter, Friday evening in the presence of several hundred spectators. A cave-in occurred at a sewer trench at the corner of Cedar avenue and William street in which a foreigner was killed.

While a rescuing party was making an effort to recover the man, barrels and planks were secured in order to make a guard to keep the crowd at a safe distance away from the trench. While the rescuing party were at work Mr. Woelkers assumed command of the situation.

A few spectators were permitted to enter the enclosure, among them being physicians, the contractor, some councilmen and several drunken men. Mr. Gordon was sent from his office to get a report of the accident and also mixed up with the crowd within the guard rails. Woelkers on seeing him immediately came forward and picking the reporter up bodily, threw him over the planks. The constable then seized the newspaper mans right foot and twisted it to such an extent that nearly wrenched that member at the ankle. Then the reporter was stood on his head and handled very roughly for the time being. Several indignant citizens came to the rescue at this point of the game.

What prompted Constable Woelkers is not known. Mr. Gordon is peaceable and does not possess pugnacious qualities. On the other hand, he is quiet in his demeanor and was there to do his duty.

"I am not here as a spectator," said the reporter. "I am here representing The Tribune." This was told to Woelkers, but there was no necessity of it, as the constable knows Mr. Gordon for the past five years and was fully aware that he represented The Tribune.

Woelkers is hot-tempered, but the law does not countenance such actions as that of last Friday by officials. Woelkers is over-officious and his doings should not be tolerated.

Mr. Gordon had Woelkers arrested. The warrant was issued by Alderman Ruddy, of the Twentieth ward, and it is the earnest hope of all that the court will make an example of Woelkers.

Woelkers went before Alderman Ruddy and waived a hearing and entered bail for his appearance at court. Charles Mirtz became his bondsman.

Saturday night other warrants were sworn out before Alderman Ruddy for Woelkers' arrest on charges of using vile and profane language and making threats. The warrants will be served today. They are the result of a meeting between Mr. Gordon and Constable Woelkers Saturday night, when the constable indulged in one of his characteristic outbreaks.

TWO WERE MISSING.

When the force of men engaged on the Seventeenth district main sewer at Willow street began work Saturday morning, there were two men missing from the gang, Savensky, who was killed the night before, and another foreigner, who worked with the dead man.

Some one said the unaccounted for man was also buried under the immense mass of stone and gravel that engulfed Savensky.

Contractor Koons placed a large force of men excavating in the trench to ascertain the truth of the report, and while they were digging for the second body the missing man walked to the scene and informed Mr. Koons that he took a day off and would be around this morning.

FUNERAL OF SAVENSKY.

The funeral of Joseph Savensky, who was killed by a cave-in at Cedar avenue and Willow street, Friday evening, where work is being done on the Seventeenth district main sewer, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home in rear of Hotel Best on Cedar avenue.

The remains were borne to the Sacred Heart Catholic church on Prospect avenue, where services were held by the pastor, Rev. J. Zawiczsky. Interment was made in the Polish cemetery at Minooka.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The employes of the paper box department of the Lackawanna Knitting mills held an outing at Nay Aug park Saturday afternoon and evening. About fifty of the young ladies and gentlemen employed in that department attended the outing, which was a pleasant affair in every sense.

The alarm of fire sounded from Box 47, Saturday night, was occasioned by a small blaze at the home of Jacob Lewert on Hickory street, near Pittston avenue. One of the parlor curtains was ignited by being blown against a lamp that was placed near it. The damage done was very little.

A number of the young members of the Neptune Engine and Hose company have formed a social club, which will be known as the Neptune Engine Company Pleasure club. The following officers were elected a few evenings ago: President, Joseph Woelkers; secretary, Peter Rosar, jr.; treasurer, Henry Keifer; janitor, William Fickus; trustees, John Keifer, William Rosar and Peter Robling, jr. It was decided to conduct a ball at Natter's hall the night of Oct. 4 and the following committee was appointed to arrange for the event: John Keifer, Peter Rosar, John Leuther, Charles Snyder, Louis Zimmer, William Rosar, Otto Robinson and Peter Robling, jr.

Work was commenced Friday preparatory to the remodelling of the Century Hose company quarters. The many improvements to be made, as detailed in this column a week ago, will be pushed with all possible rapidity.

It is George Neher, not George Mayer, who was appointed as one of the inspectors of the Seventeenth district main sewer by Mayor Moir, Thursday night. Mr. Neher is a resident of Pittston avenue, in the Eleventh ward, and is an old and respected citizen of this side. He has been for many years a bricklayer and mason and is well qualified to perform the duties of inspector.

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Charles Melvin, of West Market street, last Saturday evening. Singing, recitations and games were indulged in until a seasonable hour, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Libbie Neary, Jennie Glynn, Maggie Melvin, Messrs. Charles Melvin, Hector Davies, Thomas Davies, Michael Glynn and Thomas Griffin.

The funeral of William Jones took place from his late home on Birch avenue yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by his many friends and relatives. Services were conducted at the house, the Revs. David Jones and W. F. Davies officiating. After the ceremony the remains were viewed. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery. The pall-bearers were Thomas Jones, Joseph Knott, Meredith Morgan, Richard Thomas, Robert R. Williams and Thomas Danvers.

The Scranton Traction company has almost completed a new track on North Main avenue. The track is being laid on the side of the road, in order to leave room for the sewer which will be laid in the middle of the avenue. The sewer is also progressing rapidly and when it is completed there is no reason why the almost forgotten and the very much needed North Main avenue pave could not be laid.

Rescue lodge, 371, K. of P. will confer the third rank on Tuesday evening next.

The Puritan church choir will hold their regular rehearsals on Tuesday and Friday of every week.

The Father Whitty society will meet at their rooms Thursday evening all are requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted.
