Indoor and Outdoor Attractions This Week-Rev. Thompson Called to the Baptist Church-Home from Canada-Personal News.

The loan exhibition, which will be open for three nights in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church, beginning Wednesday night, promises to be a most interesting affair. The various committees who have charge of the different departments have been most enthusiastic in their work and their task has been lightened considerably by the great success they have met with among the people who have anything interesting to loan. The success of the exhibition is certain, enough loans having already been made to make an interesting display. In the curlo department will be shown a King Henry badge, which was worn by Napoleon the First, who presented it to the great grandfather of Edward Miller, of Greenfield for personal bravery. There will be an interesting exhibition of coins, among them one believed to be 2,000 years old, the property of Mr. C. D. Winter. Tickets of admission are now on sale at C. D. Winter's store.

There will be plenty of indoor and outdoor amusement for our people this week. Besides the exhibition already alluded to Crystal Fire company will hold a picnic and clam bake in Maple Grove Thursday afternoon and evening and the Mayfield band will hold their pienie en Saturday afternoon in Electric grove.

Week of Popular Plays.

This week the Mitchell All Star Players will produce a series of popular plays at the Academy of Music. This evening the company will open with Daniel Hart's play, made famous by Daniel Sully and Stuart Robson called "Government Acceptance.

This is the first time this piece has ever been played at popular prices; the scenic, electrical and mechanical effects are exact reproductions of the original, and the company is claimed to be as capable as any now playing at epretoire houses. "Two Little Vagrants" justifies its fame as one of the very best melodramas ever written. Melodramatic in treatment, in the strenuous manner of its acting, in the importance it gives to scenic and mechanical effects, it is not "melodramatic" in the sense in which that word is now too génerally understood by theatre-goers; it is never, or very seldom, merely "theatrical." Its main interest and strongest situations derive their importance and strength from the fact that they appeal with genuine dramatic force to the emotions. "Two Little Vagrants" is, in a phrase, full of "human interest." It is in every respect a great
