THE SCHOOL CONTROLLERSHIP. Since the retirement of Benson Davis as representative from the Fourth ward on the board of control, and in view of the expiration of his term of office in February next, many candidates are looming up for the office. The election of Benjamin Williams to fill the unexpired term has caused considerable surprise and comment. He is comparatively unknown in the ward, although a gentleman of high standing. The most formidable candidates mentioned on the Republican ticket are A. Eynon, cashier of the West Side bank, and Thomas E. Price, the well known newsdealer and barber. The former is too well known to need any introduction to the voters of the Fourth
