CARBONDALE.

OBSEQUIES.

The remains of Patrick McAndrew were consigned to their final rest yesterday morning. The funeral services were attended by a large assemblage, testifying plainly to the high esteem in which deceased had been held in the community. The cortege left the home on Collage sireet and proceeded to St. Rose church, where a high mass of requiem was said by board and ascertain if that resignation Rev. Father Griffin. He also preached is final and report at the next meeting an eloquent and touching sermon from the text; "He is dend; his sout is hidden in Christ," in which be extofice the high character and personal worth of the deceased and gave many words of comfort to the sorrowing family Interment was then made in St. Ros cemetery, the pall-bearers being Law rence Burke, Patrick Keough, Mark Dugan, James Killeen, Patrick Bar rett, William Walker, William Malloy and John McDonald.

THE DRILL BROKE.

Drilling operations at the silk mill artesian well were interrupted yester day by the breaking of a drill at depth of more than one hundred feet. Drilling in other parts of the city is progressing and it commences to look as have to double its rates again to make the money it has been figuring on. A large number of families on Sand and wanted to go slow in the matter street are being supplied by a well and and consult the civil engineer for the indications are that the gain in rates will not make up for the loss of patrons.

THE SPOONERS.

The Spooners have returned with the same company they had a year ago Some specialties have been added and the show is bigger than ever and the biggest and best for the money that Carbondale has had the privilege of patronizing. The two old Spooners have been improving themselves. Cecil has added a number of new and captivating dances and when she bubbles over with fun the whole audience bubbles with her. Edna May has added power to her emotional work. Large audiences the remainder of the week are certain. Today's matinee, "!nex;" tonight, "Fanchon, the Cricket."

WORK ON STORAGE PLANT.

Work was resumed with vigor on the coal storage plant at Anthracite park after the rain. The park fence has been completely razed and the grading is being pushed rapidly to conclusion. The concreting is ready for the steel arches which are to be furnished and erected by the Allentown fron company. The plant will be exactly like the one seen at East Buffale by a number of Carbondalians last week.

Not the Wisest Way.

It is not always best to wait until it s needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diavrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

Meeting of School Board-Resignation of the Assistant Principal. Loan Exhibition Open This Evening-Firemen's Clam Bake-Per-

The school Board met in regular sesdon last evening. The following bills were read and ordered paid: Maynard, Merrill & Co., books, $87,57; S. D. Davis, supplies, $163.25; Electric Company, $2. It was decided that the length of the school term for the present year besimilar to that of past years, viz : nine months. The secretary to renew the insurance policy held by C. D. Winter. Birs, one of the teachers in the High School, stating she had been appointed a teacher of the Carbondale High School and asking the board to release her from her contract and acept her resignation. On the motion of Mr. Hunter her request was granted the resignation to take effect at the close of school on the last Friday of the present month.

The secretary had a number of applications from teachers but they were ot considered. It being the opinion of the board that the vacancy could be filled by promotion from the present corps of teachers. It was decided that the vacancy be filled at a special mesting of the board to be held next Tuesday and that any vacancy caused by premotion should also then be considered. The recretary was requested to have all the teachers present their certificates and diplomas at the next meeting.

On the motion of Mr. Moreom the secretary was instructed to advertise for bids for the hauling of coal from the Delaware and Hudson breaker and the removal of ashes from the school buildings the bids to be in before next Tuesday's meeting. A contract was orderd to be drawn up to be signed by the president and secretary of both Jermyn and Archbald school boards in regard to the payment of the tuition fees of children from the latter borough who are attending the local

The Loan exhibition will open in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church this evening. The committees were hard at work all day yesterday in building booths and arranging the displays and the exhibition will prove both interesting and instructive. "Two Little Vagrants."

The big melodrama whi h will be resented at the Lyceum theater on Wednesday, Seat. 13, and Thursday, Sept. 14, and with a matines on Thursday, is said to have some remarkably strong situations.

In the first act there are two pic tures that are painted in strong dramatic colors to furnish the groun I work for the subsequent scenes. next two acts are filled mainly with the children, Fan-Fan and Claude, There is a deal to bring laughter and a deal to bring toars, but all is co natural and so tender and so he ve that these two acts are an idyll which might easily serve as a play without the preceding or succeeding acts. A uniformity of dramatic power and skill is apparent from the first scene to the last, no situation or climax falling into common place or insignificance. To sum it all up, it is pre-eminently natural. The realistic features of the play are enhanced by admirable scenic effects, which are duplicates of the European production. The company which delineates the characters in the drama is said to be superior to any that has yet the play. The beautiful and impressive character of Fan-Fan is in the keeping of Miss Mildred Holland, who has become famous in that character.

As a special feature and for the benefit of theater-goers who would like to ee Miss Holland in another character besides Fan-Fan, she will alternate that part with the part of Helene while in Scranton, playing Fan-Fan on Wednesday night and Thursday matinee, and Helene, the leading female character, on Thursday night.

In the cast are Neva Harrison, Barbara Douglass, Anna Bodden, Bengie Harrison, Eleanor Worthington, Katherine Vincent, Arthur Cogliser, Frederic Douglas, Del La Barre, Walter Cooke, Harry W. Collins, W. H. Webber and others.
