

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION TENDERED MEMBERS OF ROYAL ARCANUM.

Address by Edmund Bartl on His Experiences in the Klondike Gold Fields—Boy Injured in the Mines.

An informal reception was tendered last evening by Lackawanna council, No. 133, Royal Arcanum, to members of the order who have recently located in this city...

After the regular business of the council was terminated, the doors were thrown open to the invited guests...

Charles Oliver, eng. presided at the occasion, and made a few remarks...

Refreshments were served and a smoker followed and the event proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever held by Lackawanna council.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAINED. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Conlin gave a pleasant party on Thursday evening...

Paines' Celery Compound 75c Pinkham's Compound 70c Pierce's Golden Medical Dis 75c Mellon's Food 38c and 55c

GEORGE W. JENKINS, 101 S. Main Avenue

gold piece. Large quantities of find gold can be found in many of the rivers, but it does not pay to wash it out.

It is a criminal offense of the government, he thinks, to permit prospectors to go into the regions blind.

In speaking of returning to the gold fields, Mr. Bartl said if he was to attempt the trip again he could do so in five months on the first trip.

He met a party of would-be prospectors one day and thought he would have some fun with them.

He was thrown to the ground and dragged for some distance. When picked up the boy was badly cut and bruised.

HORSES BECAME FRIGHTENED. A team of horses owned by Contractor John Wisniewski became frightened at a passing train on the West Lackawanna avenue crossing shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning...

DRIVER BOY INJURED. John Lewis, aged 15 years, employed as a driver in Bellevue mine, was painfully injured while at work yesterday.

HOUSES BECAME FRIGHTENED. A team of horses owned by Contractor John Wisniewski became frightened at a passing train on the West Lackawanna avenue crossing shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning...

DEPARTURE OF A YOUNG MAN. William H. Hutton, of Jackson street, has decided to go to Brazil to assist in the construction of an electric light plant in one of the large towns along the Amazon river.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The funeral of the late Mrs. Bouray was held yesterday afternoon.

Pea Coal Delivered. $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park.

GREEN RIDGE. The Baptist Young People gave the last of their lawn socials last evening.

North Scranton. A party of young people from this section visited Storrs No. 3 mine, on Tuesday evening.

Does Coffee Agree with You? If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains.

Price for Saturday 19c.

Globe Warehouse

Light and medium weight, fast blacks, black with white feet, assorted sizes, etc.

This is the first time that Genuine Shaw Knit Hosiery has been offered in this city under 25 cents a pair.

Price for Saturday 19c.

Globe Warehouse

Feed the Fire

The food we eat is fuel. If the stomach works properly it is transformed into health and strength.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Lee, May Mayers, and Messrs. Willie Fiedler, Ray Reed, Tom Jones, W. O'Connell, Martin Roberts, Price, John and James Conlin, Michael Lynch, John and Thomas Timlin, John Canavan, Thomas and Will Saul, James McAndrew, David Kelly and Bert Bald win.

AMONG THE CHURCHES. Tomorrow evening Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, will deliver the second sermon on the women of the Old Testament.

The members of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church will listen to the eloquence of Rev. Owen Jones, of Oak Hill, Ohio, at both services tomorrow.

Rev. A. E. Boyd, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, will lecture tomorrow evening on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

A new choir has been organized at St. John's German Catholic church under the direction of chorister George Stess.

The funeral of Mrs. Clarence McGuire took place yesterday morning from the home of her father, Patrick McDonald, of 629 Pearl street.

MISS KIEFER SURPRISED. The many friends of Miss Winifred Kiefer, of Brook street, tendered her a surprise party on Wednesday evening.

BREVITIES AND PERSONALS. The St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevolent society met in regular session in Pharmacy hall on Thursday evening.

ACCIDENTS. As the result of a small piece of stone which lodged in it, Mrs. Collins, of Pala Alto, has lost her right eye.

OBITUARY. Miss Melaney Murphy, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. Michael Murphy, of 127 Jackson street, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the results of an operation for appendicitis.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment will be made in the Dunmore Catholic cemetery.

Mary, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moyles, of Beach street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

As the result of a small piece of stone which lodged in it, Mrs. Collins, of Pala Alto, has lost her right eye.

Charles Bulewicz, of Plymouth, had his leg broken by a fall of rock Thursday at the Parrish colliery in Plymouth.

David John Richards, of Plymouth, employed at the Blue Hill mine, was quite badly injured yesterday morning by being caught and squeezed between cars.

Falling under a moving passenger train at the Church street station Thursday evening, Claude Mimion, porter at the Hotel Hamilton, had one of his legs cut off below the knee.

While riding between Mt. Carmel and Centralia Thursday night on the Shamokin and Mt. Carmel trolley road, James Sainaco, of Pottsville, fell from a car.

George W. Farnley, a retired merchant of Shamokin, while in Philadelphia, fell down an elevator shaft at the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was under treatment, and was critically injured.

At Black Walnut, near Moshoppen, about 7 o'clock on Thursday morning, while two boys named Harvey and Jackson, aged respectively 13 and 9 years, were driving across the railroad at the station, they were struck by the gravel train and instantly killed.

The body of an unknown boy was found near Hankin's station on the Erie railroad Thursday. He was five feet in height and weighed about 115 pounds.

Morris Conrad, a Sunbury dairyman, drove over a 25-foot bank Thursday morning and was probably fatally injured. The horse hung for an hour by their harness to trees which they struck in their descent.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Davis, of South Hyde Park avenue, have returned home from Lake Ariel.

Mrs. William Pass, of West Lackawanna avenue, will leave today for a visit to Waverly, N. Y.

Rev. B. I. Evans of South Main avenue, will preach tomorrow at Bangor, Pa.

Mrs. B. I. Evans, of South Main avenue, was called to Wilkes-Barre yesterday, owing to the illness of a relative.

Ell Beers, John Pidgion and John Kilpatrick, of Carbondale, called on Peter P. Mechy, of Tenth street, on Thursday evening.

Thomas E. Reynolds, of South Main avenue, has accepted a position with a hardware novelty company, with headquarters in this city.

Permanent Man George Myers, of the Columbia Hose and Chemical company, is enjoying his annual vacation.

Benjamin Ronshaw, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives on North Main avenue.

Funeral of Mrs. Clarence McGuire Held Yesterday—Miss Kiefer Surprised—Other Notes.

The funeral of Mrs. Clarence McGuire took place yesterday morning from the home of her father, Patrick McDonald, of 629 Pearl street.

MISS KIEFER SURPRISED. The many friends of Miss Winifred Kiefer, of Brook street, tendered her a surprise party on Wednesday evening.

BREVITIES AND PERSONALS. The St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevolent society met in regular session in Pharmacy hall on Thursday evening.

ACCIDENTS. As the result of a small piece of stone which lodged in it, Mrs. Collins, of Pala Alto, has lost her right eye.

OBITUARY. Miss Melaney Murphy, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. Michael Murphy, of 127 Jackson street, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the results of an operation for appendicitis.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment will be made in the Dunmore Catholic cemetery.

Mary, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moyles, of Beach street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

As the result of a small piece of stone which lodged in it, Mrs. Collins, of Pala Alto, has lost her right eye.

Charles Bulewicz, of Plymouth, had his leg broken by a fall of rock Thursday at the Parrish colliery in Plymouth.

David John Richards, of Plymouth, employed at the Blue Hill mine, was quite badly injured yesterday morning by being caught and squeezed between cars.

Falling under a moving passenger train at the Church street station Thursday evening, Claude Mimion, porter at the Hotel Hamilton, had one of his legs cut off below the knee.

While riding between Mt. Carmel and Centralia Thursday night on the Shamokin and Mt. Carmel trolley road, James Sainaco, of Pottsville, fell from a car.

George W. Farnley, a retired merchant of Shamokin, while in Philadelphia, fell down an elevator shaft at the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was under treatment, and was critically injured.

At Black Walnut, near Moshoppen, about 7 o'clock on Thursday morning, while two boys named Harvey and Jackson, aged respectively 13 and 9 years, were driving across the railroad at the station, they were struck by the gravel train and instantly killed.

The body of an unknown boy was found near Hankin's station on the Erie railroad Thursday. He was five feet in height and weighed about 115 pounds.

Morris Conrad, a Sunbury dairyman, drove over a 25-foot bank Thursday morning and was probably fatally injured. The horse hung for an hour by their harness to trees which they struck in their descent.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

Two-year-old Michael Terras, of New Silver Brook, got possession of a box of matches at the Terras home Thursday morning, and lighting the matches, was so terribly burned that he died in great agony shortly afterward.

While a young man named Hester was operating a lever on a steam shovel on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad at Georgetown, Wednesday, his foot caught in the large chain attached to the bucket and as it was being raised, the unfortunate young man was carried up with the bucket.

When Pain Racks the Body

Frank Long, who lives near Lennan, Mich., says: "I was taken with a pain in my back, and I was obliged to take to my bed."

"I gradually became worse, until I thought death would be welcome release. I was finally induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and after using five boxes, was entirely cured."

"I am confident that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life. I will gladly answer inquiries concerning my sickness and wonderful cure, provided stamp be enclosed for reply."

FRANK LONG. Sworn to before me at Venice, Mich., this 15th day of April, 1898.

G. B. GOLDSMITH, Justice of the Peace. —From the Observer, Flashing, Mich.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves.

They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, rheumatism, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 60 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

THE CHEAPER GRADES. Keep us in mind and you won't regret giving us your patronage—giving you our goods as represented—giving you our easy terms of payment or very lowest prices for cash.

Immensely stock of Household Goods—Stoves, Carpets, Iron Beds, etc. Five large floors full to the ceiling—

Thos. Kelly's Store, 131 and 133 Franklin Avenue.

AMUSEMENTS. LYCEUM THEATRE. BURDORF & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager.

Monday Night, Sept. 18, Broadhurst's Glee and Pleinade.

Why Smith Left Home REGULAR PRICES. Tuesday, September 19.

Mr. Edward C. White Presents the Great Indiana Play.

On the Wabash. By Joseph Arthur. Author of "Blue Jeans," "Strong Cast."

Hear the Famous Village Choir. Regular prices.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. HUGLOR & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager.

Balance of the Week, MITCHELL'S ALL-STAR PLAYERS in Repertoire.

PRICES—Evening, 10, 20, 30; matinee, 10, 20, 30, except Saturday matinee, 10 and 20. ONE WEEK, commencing Monday, Sept. 18.

Mr. CHARLES LEVYHURNE, Manager of the Week. BON TON STOCK CO.

In a repertoire of comedies and comedy dramas. With a magnificent array of Gargantuan Scenery and Mechanical Effects.

Change of Play at every performance. Popular Prices—10, 20 and 30 cents. Matinees Daily, Commencing Tuesday.

GALEA Matinees Daily. Coming Attractions. September 18-19-20.

HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE. 10—Great Acts—10 September 21-22-23.

METROPOLITAN BUJESQUEURS. REDUCED FARES TO PHILADELPHIA VIA CENTRAL RAILROAD OF NEW JERSEY FOR THE NATIONAL EXPORT EXPOSITION.

AT PHILADELPHIA ON SEPT. 14, AND CONTINUES UNTIL NOV. 30, 1899. For this occasion special excursion tickets will be sold from Scranton.

BEAUTY, THE CONQUEROR BELLAVITA. Arsenic Beauty Tablets and Pills.

Patented in Great Britain and other countries. Solely prepared and bottled by the Proprietor, Dr. J. C. Bellavita, Philadelphia, Pa.

How to Patent Your Ideas. MONEY TO PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

SAFETY RAZORS. The kind you have always bought.