

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

TESTIMONIAL CONCERT IN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Given for the Benefit of John W. Davies, a Ministerial Student. Child's Narrow Escape from Death by Burning Clothing—Crowd of Ruffians on a Street Car—Chickens Thieves Chased—Other Notes and Personalities of General Interest.

A testimonial concert was given last evening at the First Welsh Congregational church on South Main avenue for the benefit of John W. Davies, son of Thomas W. Davies, of South Main avenue. Mr. Davies has been studying for the ministry and recently completed a six years' course at Marietta college, Ohio, and while there won several prizes. Last evening's benefit was for the purpose of assisting him to pursue his theological studies at the University of Chicago. He will leave here next Monday.

There was a fair-sized audience at the concert. Roger Evans was chairman. The Dewi Sant Glee club, under the leadership of William J. Davies, rendered the opening selection. Miss Margaret Thomas, who possesses a sweet contralto voice, sang with fine effect. Miss Norma Davies followed with a recitation and was encored. David Jenkins and David Davis rendered a duet.

A piano duet by Miss Norma Williams and George Martin followed and they were compelled to respond to an encore. Charles Cadogan, who is so well known as a humorist, gave a recitation and responded to an encore. Mrs. St. John, of Chilhowie, Virginia, who is a noted singer, rendered two selections with excellent effect. The glee club, which was a feature of the evening, closed the first part of the programme.

Miss Lizzie Jenkins sang a solo, followed by John W. Davies, who recited. David Stephens sang in his usual fine voice "Phena," and in response to an encore rendered a Welsh ballad. David Davies sang "O Fendegdig Wallia," followed by a baritone solo by David Jenkins, which was well rendered. The Dewi Sant Glee club closed the entertainment by singing "I Long for Thee." The club is composed of some of the very best quality of voices on the West Side. Miss Norma Williams was accompanist of the evening.

CHILD'S CLOTHES ON FIRE. Maurice, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Harris, of Sloan Park, had a narrow escape from being burned to death on Saturday. Together with a number of boys, the little fellow was playing in the open field and some of them were burning scraps of paper. One of the boys threw a piece of the burning paper on the child which ignited his waist, and instantly his clothing caught fire. Lizzie Harris, aged 19 years, a sister of Maurice, ran to his assistance and tore the burning clothes from his body sustaining several burns about the hands. The boy was uninjured, save the slight singeing of his hair. The presence of mind displayed by the little girl under such perilous circumstances was commendable.

RUFFIANS ON A STREET CAR. A crowd of toughs boarded the last Taylor car on South Main avenue Sunday night and engaged in a dispute with one of the passengers. When the car reached Hampton street the passenger was pulled from the car and subjected to a pummeling by the toughs.

The man made his escape, with the assistance of the conductor and motor-man, and reached his destination in safety. When Patrolman Thomas Jones reached the scene of the disturbance, he found a man's hat, but no trace of the ruffians could be found.

CHICKEN THIEVES ABOUND. Two suspicious looking characters were discovered on North Hyde Park avenue at an early hour yesterday morning by Patrolman Matthews, and when the officer gave chase the men dropped a bag and ran away. They were traced to Price street, but disappeared in the darkness. The bag contained two chickens, the property of some unknown fancier, and Matthews removed them to the station house, where they can be secured by the owner.

LOTS! LOTS! Any person looking for one to build a home on should visit the Round Woods Park plot. Fine location; solid ground; magnificent views; healthy surroundings; excellent neighborhood; fine avenues and streets. Near central city. Popular prices; good title. Office on the plot, H. D. Jones, agent.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The alarm of five yesterday afternoon from box 88 was caused by a slight fire near the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad on Keyser avenue. It was extinguished by a pail of water.

Thomas Hopkins, of 1316 Eynon street, a driver in the Hampton, sustained a broken leg by being caught between the cars while at work yesterday. He was removed to his home, where Dr. Reynolds set the injured member.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Plymouth Congregational church will meet this evening. Alderman John will conduct the hearing this evening in the case of B. G. Morgan vs. Michael Cadden, who is charged with driving on the sidewalk in front of Morgan's residence.

The Columbia Hose and Chemical company held an important meeting last evening pertaining to the approaching firemen's convention. The traction company's cars are now running over the new rails on the South Main avenue double track.

The Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church resumed their meetings last evening for the winter months. Officers were elected for the ensuing term.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Patrolman John McColligan, who has been confined in the Scranton Pri-

Mrs. George Triverton, of North Main avenue, is visiting her son at Pittsburg. S. B. Tripp spent a few days at Walton, N. Y., where he attended the Walton fair. TWO MORE MEMBERS. Prof. H. L. Burdick and Miss E. Brundage Added to Faculty of High School.

SOUTH SCRANTON NEWS. Committee of Citizens Meet and Appoint Sub-Committees to Wait on City Treasurer Robinson in Regard to the Sewer.

If ever a project launched for the good of the people was "choked," the Seventeenth district main sewer takes a front seat in the procession.

It would take a historian fully acquainted with the birth and career of South Scranton to give in detail the many obstacles that this sewer movement has met and overcome since an ordinance was introduced for its construction in common council years ago by Hon. John J. Schouer, who then represented the Eleventh ward in that branch of the city legislature.

But, coming down to modern history, the residents of this side are fully in touch with what the sewer advocates have had to contend with since the contract was given to Dunn Brothers. Little need be said of what work was done to induce Contractor Coons to take the job and now that he has begun with the construction of the sewer, he is on the verge of throwing up the job, because he cannot get any money from the city. It is this fact that a meeting of the citizens committee of the district was called for last night, as was announced in The Tribune yesterday morning.

The meeting of the committee was held at Mirtz' hall, on Pittston avenue, with Chairman S. S. Spruks in the chair. It was learned that a year ago C. G. Boland, who was the city treasurer, sent out to the property holders the notice that their assessment was due and should be paid. Owing to the many delays in commencing the work of the sewer and the probability that it would not be commenced the property holders have not paid their assessment and are now awaiting another notice from the city treasurer. Mr. Robinson, the present treasurer, states that he will not send a notice, believing that the one Mr. Boland sent was sufficient.

A committee composed of S. S. Spruks, H. K. Klauwimer, Jacob Geiger, Jr., and Hon. John J. Schouer will wait on City Treasurer Robinson and request him to mail a second notice, in order that the sewer will be a "sure certainty" by the first year of the new century.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. Camp No. 430, Patriotic Order Sons of America, met in regular session at Hartman hall on Pittston avenue last night. Several applications for membership were received and acted upon. At the national convention of the order, which will be held at New Haven, Conn., next week, James Bird, president of Camp 430, will be one of the delegates who will ably represent Pennsylvania.

The funeral of Patrick Gilbride, the unfortunate man who died in a cell at police headquarters Tuesday last, was held from his late home yesterday morning. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

Common Councilman M. J. Cusick, of the Twentieth ward, is being congratulated upon the arrival of a baby boy at his home on Prospect avenue. H. G. Melloy, one of Wilkes-Barre's leading furniture dealers, is the guest of his brother, Rev. E. J. Melloy, pastor of St. John's congregation.

At St. John's church Sunday the approaching marriages were announced of Miss Sarah Flaherty, of Pittston avenue, daughter of Patrick Martin Flaherty, to M. J. McClave, of Brook street, and Miss Ella Jordan, of Pittston avenue, to Andrew J. Noone, of Buffalo.

TWO MORE MEMBERS. Prof. H. L. Burdick and Miss E. Brundage Added to Faculty of High School. Owing to the crowded condition of the High school, two members were added to the faculty at last night's meeting of the board of control. The new appointees are H. L. Burdick, for several years principal of No. 27, who will go into the commercial department at a salary of $1,000 a year, and Miss E. Brundage, who will teach in the classical department. She will receive $900. Miss Brundage now resides in Green Ridge. She has had considerable experience as a teacher, but has not heretofore held a position in this city. Tuition in the High school was reduced from $100 to $75 for pupils outside the district. The following was presented by the building committee and adopted: That all contracts entered into by the board on and after this date shall have inserted a clause requiring a strict compliance with all labor laws now on the statute books of the state and municipality, especially those relating to alien labor and the regulation of the hours of labor. This will also apply to the contract for No. 2 school, which was awarded to John Benore & Son, but has not yet been signed by officials of the board. Max Phillips, on recommendation of the building committee, was removed from the position of janitor of No. 3 school for alleged incompetency, although the action was earnestly opposed by some members of the board. It was decided to buy an additional lot at No. 2 school, for which $2,200 will be paid.

On recommendation of Superintendent Howell the following were permitted to take a post-graduate course at the High school: Walter Benedict, Rose Grass, John George Williams, Alvin Burns, Tallen Davis, Mabel Neeld, Harry Rose, Sadie Jones.

BOYCOTT TAKEN OFF ONE FIRM. But the Committee Places New Names on List. The executive committee of the Building Trades council met last evening in strike headquarters on Lackawanna avenue. It was decided to raise the boycott from one of the firms because it had employed only union labor since it had been declared.

There were new names added to the list, but a member of the committee said that there might be more before another week.

OBITUARY. Francis, the 14-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, of 314 Prospect avenue, died yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

BANQUET OF MINISTERS. They Met in the Miller House on Washington Avenue. A number of the members of the Abingdon Baptist association, which held its annual convention last week in North Scranton, sat down to the annual banquet of the association yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the dining room of the Miller house at 339 North Washington street.

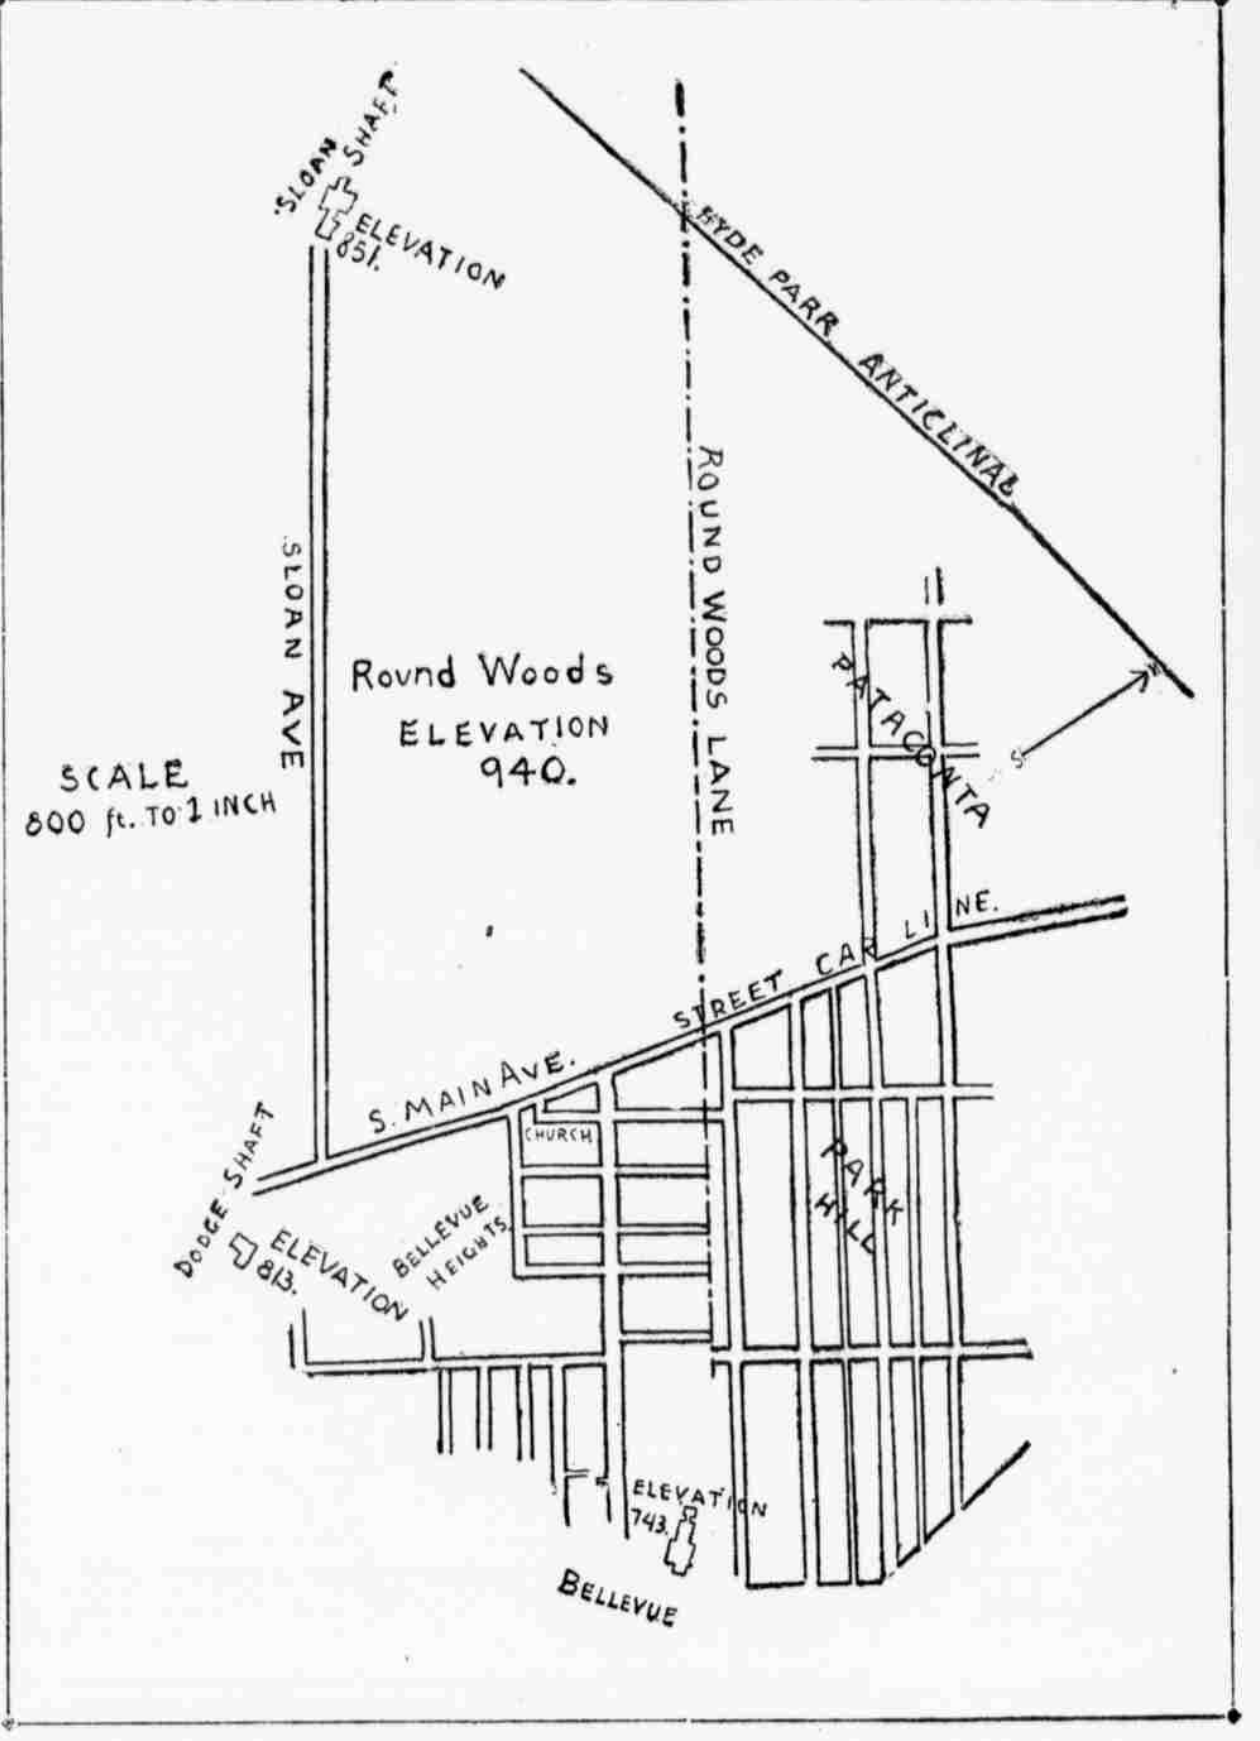

Those who were present were Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn

Build Your Home On Solid Ground

A PERSON cannot be too careful in selecting a site for his home. In doing so there are many important things to be considered and not the least of them, in this valley, is security against settling and caving, which often cause great damage to houses built on land thus affected. As can be seen by a brief study of the following diagram, purchasers of

ROUND WOODS PARK LOTS

Are amply protected against such losses, as the most careful and accurate surveys show this plot to be the safest place in Scranton

Location:

The Round Woods Park is generally admitted to be Scranton's Ideal Home Site, being the most beautiful spot in the valley, with a 15-minute car service direct to the property.

The wonderful and substantial improvements that have already been made have caused much wonder and amazement among purchasers and prospective purchasers, but what has been done so far is merely a drop in the bucket compared with what is in store for the property holders on the plot.

Prices from $200 to $1,500

On payments so easy as to be within the reach of all. We will also build you a home on terms within your reach.
