OLYPHANT.

A team of horses belonging to the Eagle Hose company, of Priceburg, became frightened while some lumber was being loaded onto the wagon at Elm Park grove. The frightened animals took to the railroad and in their mad course crossed the railroad bridge near No. 2 breaker with ease, and kept the tracks until they reached the iron bridge below the Dunmore street crossing, and when about half way over fell between the ties. After about an hour's work with the aid of ropes and planks the horses were released from their dangerous position, none the worse for their experience.

Mayfield Council Meeting Lively While It Lasted-Pay Day at Edgerton Colliery-Reopening of the Loan Exhibition Tonight.

The fifth attempt to hold the reguer meeting of the Mayfield borough ouncil last evening was again a failcre. At the time of opening the meeting all the memoers, with the exception of Chairman Dempsey, were present. After waiting a few moments without any apparent sign of the chairman coming, Councilman William Ed-munds moved that Mr. Shlanto be appointed temporary chairman. The moion was seconded by Councilman Haris and was about to be put to a vote by the secretary when Councilman E. F. Edmunds objected, stating the meetng had not yet been formally opened and until it was, no motion could be intertained. The secretary thereupon proceeded to call the meeting to order and read the roll-call, omitting the name of Councilman Bergan. E. F. Edmunds drew attention to the omission and asked why Bergan's name was not called. The secretary replied that on Aug. 7 council had objected to Mr. Bergan having any seat in council and that on Aug. 11 the council by resolution had declared the sent vacant by reason of Mr. Bergan having changed his residence from Mayfield to Jermyn. Mr. Bergan denied that he had done so and denied the right of council to leclare his seat vacant. The secretary replied that he had nothing to do with ouncil's actions. E. F. Edmunds susained Bergan's claim and said that Bergan had proof in his pocket that he was entitled to his seat. William Edmunds here interposed and said they vere not hunting for any such proofs He made a motion that Mr. Shlanto be appointed chairman for the evening,

The secretary then informed the three remaining members that he held in his hand the resignation of Chairnan Dempsey as a member of council, dated Aug. 6, and inasmuch as this made two vacancies on the council of seven, the three remaining members were a quorum and could carry on the business of the borough.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it local disease, and prescribed local cemedles, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and there-fore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. THEATRICAL.

George H. Broadhurst, who has been grinding out successful farces at an alarming rate during the last few years, is the author of "Why Smith Left Home," which was presented at the Lyceum last night by a company organized to present it in the cities of the country outside of New York The farce had a successful run at the Strand theater in London and is now running at the Madison Squar theater in New York city. It was the first presentation of the farce by the company that produced it last night at the Lyceum. The audience did not discover that fact, for it ran with as much smoothness as if the company had been playing it for weeks,

There is a good deal of humor and plenty of action in the farce and the company seen at the Lyceum last night knew how to bring out the humor and take advantage of the action.

Bon Ton Stock Company.

A company of very capable actors, headed by Charles Leyburne opened a weeks engagement at the Academy of Music last night by presenting "The Black Flag." The company carries its own seenery and properties with it and ave one of the best productions of that famous comedy-drama that has ever been seen in this city. Some of the claver people in the company besides Mr. Leyburne, are Elvyn Gordon. Jeanette Ashbough, Josle Price, Emma Bunting, James Durkin, Fred Forrest and Bert Merket.

Between the acts very pleasing specfalties are introduced by Lester and Shaunnesy, buck and wing dancers; Emma Bunting, a graceful and entertaining soubrette, and Charles Ley-burne. The Saville sisters introduce singing and dancing specialties that made a big hit with the audience. One of their numbers that greatly pleased is a butterfly dance with electrical effects. This afternoon the company wil present "Moths of Society." and tonight "The Census Taker." Tomorrow afternoon "A Black Flag" will be repeated and at night "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown," will be

The scenes are laid on the banks of the Wabash, in Southern Indiana where the author long studied the quaint life of these people. Out of that seemingly uneventful life he has evolved a story that is absorbingly interesting, beautiful in the freshness of its love passages, laughable in the brilliancy of its wit. a veritable kaleidoscope of pathos, humor, love and villiany.
