THAT OLD FORGE INJUNCTION AGAIN

COURT WILL BE ASKED TODAY TO DISSOLVE IT. Testimony with Reference to the Matter Was Taken Yesterday Before John Taylor, Sitting as Commissioner—Mears' Case Is Still on Trial in Common Pleas Court. Another Action in Trespass Against the Scranton Railway Company—Marriage Licenses.

Major Everett Warren, representing the Pittston and Scranton Street Railway company, will make an application to Judge Gunster this morning to have the injunction heretofore issued against that company, dissolved.

Some time ago the borough council of Old Forge passed an ordinance permitting the Pittston and Scranton Street Railway company to construct a trolley road on certain streets of that borough. As soon as the company began the construction of the road an injunction was obtained by Charles J. Keogh, and other property owners of the borough, writing among other things that the franchise was corruptly obtained. On this ground the injunction was continued by Judge Gunster.

On Aug. 11 another ordinance was introduced in the borough council which was passed and became a law on Aug. 28. It is stated that no charge of corruption can be brought in connection with the passage of this ordinance and the court is therefore asked to dissolve the injunction heretofore granted and permit of the construction of the road.

Judge Gunster directed that testimony be heard yesterday before Commissioner John Taylor and sessions were held morning and afternoon in the law library. The company was represented by Mr. Warren and the property owners by Attorneys Hannah and McCollum. The following witnesses were examined: B. J. Judge, A. Blaudard, Patrick Gallagher, William P. Monroe, Thomas Stevens, Thomas Kirtland, John Hennelein, Robert Staff, Attorney John H. Penner and Thomas Burke.

Common Pleas Court. All of yesterday was consumed in listening to the evidence of the plaintiffs in the case of the Pittsburg Terra Cotta Lumber company against John A. Mears. Just before court adjourned Mr. Burns opened the case on behalf of the defendant.

The case of J. A. Barron against Robert Johnson, which was put on trial Monday, was given to the jury yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. A verdict had not been reported up to the hour for adjourning.

After the Barron case was given to the jury the settlement suit of Bridget Gray and others against Mary McCormack and others was put on trial before Judge Gunster in No. 2. Half a lot of land on Lafayette street is the matter at issue. Plaintiffs and defendants are near relatives.

Mrs. Harvey on Aug. 29 was going to her home on Larch street, Green Ridge, when the defendant's car and when near Poplar street the car left the track. It was an open car and when it stopped suddenly Mrs. Harvey was thrown with great violence against the seat in front of her and had several ribs broken and sustained severe internal injuries. She also suffered from shock and has not yet recovered. She asks damages in the sum of $5,000.

Desires Partition. Alfred R. Hicnett, through Attorneys Vosburg & Dawson, yesterday petitioned the court for partition according to law of a property which he alleges is owned jointly by Hugh James and the petitioner.

The lot is situated on Main avenue, West Scranton, and contains 11,400 square feet of land. Mr. James, it is alleged, refuses to allow a division of the property to be made.

Yesterday's Marriage Licenses. Martin J. Cooney, Dunmore. Sarah A. O'Horo, Dunmore. Michael Spitzer, Olyphant. Carl Czupren, Scranton. George Jopling, Moosic. Mary Scherer, Moosic. John H. Holland, Scranton. Mary A. Duffly, Scranton. Andrew Miner, Scranton. Anna Zeleniak, Fell. John Skillington, Scranton. Julia Gerrity, Scranton. Marvin B. Whitford, Scranton. Rena E. Day, Scranton. James C. Smith, Scranton. Mertie S. Dymond, Scranton.

THE FEAST OF SUCCOTH. Celebration of It Was Begun Last Evening.

The celebration of the Feast of Succoth was begun by the Hebrews Monday evening by holding of Divine service in their various places of worship. The services were continued yesterday morning. The feast will last eight days, and the last services will occur on Monday evening and Tuesday morning, Sept. 25 and 26.

Succoth is one of the three great festivals in the Jewish calendar, the other two being Passover and Pentecost. On these three festivals, in ancient times, all the male adults of every Jewish family, traveled to Jerusalem, for the purpose of offering up special sacrifices, and bringing special thanks offerings to the temple. Succoth is the harvest festival, or the Feast of Ingathering, and the services are similar to Thanksgiving services.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES. Hon. T. W. Loftus Passed Away Early Yesterday Morning. Hon. T. W. Loftus, of Olyphant, who was injured by jumping from a street car at the Marine crossing Monday evening, when a collision between the car and a coal train was inevitable, died at an early hour yesterday morning.

Deceased was conscious to the last and greeted those who surrounded his bedside in a pleasant manner. Mr.

Loftus was a member of the state legislature in 1873-4-5, and was prominently identified with the political and social life of Olyphant. For a number of years he taught school in the town. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Michael Loftus and Daniel Loftus, of Carbondale; Mrs. Murray, of Archbald; Mrs. Gilhoed and Mrs. Mary Cummings of Olyphant, and wife and uncle of Mr. James Cummings, of the Truth, and Mr. John Cummins, deputy prothonotary of Lackawanna county. The funeral will take place from his residence in Olyphant tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Coroner Roberts went to Olyphant and viewed the remains yesterday. Death was due to perforation of the lungs. An inquest will be held in the court house Friday evening.

MILLER VERY MUCH ALIVE. False Story of His Sudden Death Startles His Host of Friends.

A false rumor that Charles H. Miller, of Adams avenue, had dropped dead got in circulation early yesterday afternoon and it was not till early evening that the denial caught up with the false report.

In the interim Mr. Miller's legion of friends throughout the city were being shocked one after the other as the false story spread. Most unfortunate that it reached Mr. Miller's home and as he was over at Maplewood as the guest of ex-Sheriff Charles Robinson, his family was thrown into a terrible state of alarm. Telegraph messages were unsavory in assuring their fears and it was not until Mr. Miller, accompanied by Mr. Robinson, came back to the city on the 3.30 train that they were reassured.

After calming his family, Mr. Miller hastened down town to head off the story. As may be imagined he was never before so enthusiastically greeted by his friends.

APPEAL FOR THE HOME. Managers Are Desirous of Raising a Fund of Ten Thousand Dollars to Pay Off Debt.

At the last regular meeting of the Home for the Friendless it was decided that desperate measures must be immediately taken to relieve the institution of its incumbered debt. Many plans were discussed and the gravity of the situation more than ever impressed upon the managers. The result is not in the slightest degree exaggerated the public has for some time been aware. The appeal made earlier in the season was nobly answered and the funds thus received went to satisfy immediate necessities. The receipts from the excursion of last week must go for the current expenses and the support of inmates.

In November another large payment of interest will fall due and as yet there seems to be no possible way of procuring the required sum. The whole situation resolves itself into this fact that unless some means can be devised to relieve the Home of at least a portion of the debt, the work for the present must be vastly curtailed. If not abandoned, if the debt of $23,000 were once raised it would be an easy matter to provide for ordinary needs, but the interest absorbs all the many generous gifts of the public and leaves little for maintenance.

Therefore after prolonged deliberation it has been thought best to make a proposition to the public. It has been estimated by careful thought that there are 300 men in this city who will be willing to give fifty dollars apiece toward a fund of $15,000, which is to be exclusively toward paying the debt. The list would include none who would probably need to make a sacrifice to give this sum. The Home is practically supported by many who do not make a sacrifice to donate their mite to the cause. There are men who labor by the day, women who must save their annual membership fee of $3 from an allowance narrow enough at the best.

There are little children and young women who have no spending money except that which they earn, but who give to the Home because it cares for little orphan children and homeless old women. The man who will give $50 toward the $15,000 fund will confer a lasting benefit to the institution and will be able to realize that something tangible is at last being done to relieve the burden hanging ever one of the widest charities of this region.

The officers and managers of the Home for the Friendless, any one of whom will be glad to receive subscriptions are as follows: Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, Mrs. D. E. Taylor, Mrs. Cora Merrifield, Mrs. E. S. Moffat, Mrs. C. R. Penman, Mrs. R. J. Foster, Mrs. B. M. Winton, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. N. Y. Leet, Mrs. E. H. Ripple, Mrs. R. G. Brooks, Mrs. C. P. Matthews, Mrs. F. W. Mason, Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. G. F. Scott, Mrs. J. P. Dimmock, Mrs. D. Langstaff, Mrs. E. Hunt, Mrs. E. F. Chamberlin, Miss E. K. Richmond, Mrs. R. W. Luce, Mrs. J. L. Connell, Mrs. Charles Schlager, Mrs. J. A. Robertson, Mrs. L. B. Stelle, Mrs. J. B. Shannon, Mrs. A. Hendrick, Mrs. W. Watson.

Dockash Stoves and Ranges

A particular feature of the Dockash line of Parlor Stoves is the construction of the fire pot and grate, allowing their removal through upper mica door. You will appreciate the fact if you ever have to renew these parts. Many persons object to nickel trimmings on a stove because it's hard to blacken the stove without soiling the nickel. In the Dockash the nickel parts can be removed without loosening a bolt or screw. Makes it easier to polish the nickel, too. Repairs Always in Stock.
