MIDWIFE ARRESTED.
Charged with Illegal Practice in Lackawanna County.
Mrs. Lena Gable, of Stroud court, West Scranton, was arrested last evening on a warrant issued by Alderman John for the illegal practice of midwifery.
About two months ago Mrs. Gable was arraigned before a coroner's jury in connection with the death of an infant, and the practice of midwifery was then condemned by the jury.
The woman waived a hearing last night and entered bail in the sum of $500 for her appearance at court.
Thomas Gleason, of 128 South Van Buren avenue, became her bondsman.

SPECIAL AGENTS ARE ABOUT.
Arrests Made in Hazleton and at Stroudsburg Fair.
Special agents of the internal revenue department have been circulating in this district in search of unlicensed liquor dealers. Nine bottles who were doing business without a revenue license were arrested in Hazleton last Saturday and seven saloonkeepers who had unlicensed stands at the Stroudsburg fair were gathered in a few days previously. They escaped prosecution by taking out a license and paying costs.

PARK FOR THE WEST SIDE.
H. P. Simpson Contributes $100 to Start a Fund for the Purchase of the Round Woods.

The following letter has been received from H. P. Simpson, of this city: Scranton, Pa., Sept. 19, 1899.
Scranton Tribune, City.
My Dear Sir: Enclosed please find my check for $100, to start a fund through your monthly paper, with the idea of purchasing the Round Woods for the use of a public park. The only restriction on same being that the mayor of the city of Scranton shall appoint a committee which shall expend the money judiciously in improvements, and that the city shall guarantee an amount to keep the park in good condition. Yours truly, Harry P. Simpson.

COUNTY AUDITORS.
The office of county auditor is one of the most important in the county and the character of the men nominated to fill the position is a matter of great importance to the community at large.

Among the gentlemen who have announced themselves as candidates for nomination by the Republican party for this office, we feel entirely justified in saying that none of them stand higher than W. D. Spencer, of Waverly, Pa.
Mr. Spencer comes of New England stock, his grandfather, Leonard Spencer, removing from Connecticut to Greenfield township, this county, in 1812, where he spent his life in subsiding the wilderness and raising his family, among whom were Simeon Spencer, the father of this sketch, Simeon Spencer residing during his entire life within the limits of old Luzerne county, and here William D. Spencer was born.

His early life was like the early life of every young man in this vicinity who was born upon a farm—hard work during the summer months and attendance upon the common schools during the winter months supplemented by a term or two at Lewisburg university.
At the age of 17 Mr. Spencer enlisted in Company B, One Hundred and Forty-third regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, and served with that regiment until the close of the war of 1861.
Returning to his old home, he entered upon the study of law and as a farmer, a miller, and a hotel keeper he has shown his fitness for any position within the gift of the people by making a pronounced success of everything to which he has turned his attention. And today he is one of the most successful farmers in what was formerly Abington township, and today is a representative of the farming interests of the county at large.

If good citizenship, devotion to one's country, large capacity, sterling honesty, a successful business life and eminent fitness are qualifications which commend themselves to Republican voters, then the people will make no mistake in supporting William D. Spencer, of Waverly, Pa., for the office of county auditor.

STATE CONVENTION OF THE FIREMEN

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
Arrangements Perfected for the Reception of the Visiting Companies on Parade Day and Also for the Entertainment of the Ladies Who Will Come Here to Attend the Convention—Companies That Have Recently Expressed Their Intention of Participating in Parade.

The firemen's executive committee in charge of arrangements for the coming firemen's convention held a very well-attended meeting last evening in one of the council chambers in city hall. The men's and women's reception committee were present for the purpose of gaining general information regarding the arrival of delegates, etc.
The men's reception committee at present consists of the following members: Chairman, T. J. Jennings; Philip Robinson, Hon. M. F. Sander, H. C.
Green, Wade Pinn, P. Gordon, Max Zizelman, D. J. Newman and J. B.
Holmes. It is proposed, however, to recruit the number to about twenty.
The ladies' committee is already composed of that number, with Mrs. Joseph Danner as chairman.
Both committees were furnished with skeleton blanks showing the time and place of arrival of all the companies who have so far signified their intention of coming here to participate in the parade. Fifty-seven companies have already responded to the invitations set out, but the committee confidently expect that nearly a hundred will be present on the day of the parade.
Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg and a number of other cities have not been heard from at all.

HICKEY GRAND MARSHAL.
Ex-Chief P. J. Hickey was appointed grand marshal of the parade, and the following committee was appointed to select his aides: H. J. Spruok, T. J.
Jennings, J. H. Reilly, M. P. Gerrity and D. J. Newman. The contract for all the electric illuminations was let to Richards Bros. An offer of Jonas Long's Sons to furnish the power for the illuminations from their own private plant was read and accepted.
The ladies' reception committee have prepared a programme of entertainment for the visiting ladies. On Monday evening, Oct. 2, they will be shown through the silk and knitting mills and the button factory. On Tuesday evening they will be given a trolley ride to various parts of the city.
On Wednesday afternoon the ladies will be taken for a drive over the Boulevard and on Wednesday evening one of the unique features of the convention, the asphalt dance, will be giving on Myrtle street between Mulberry and Vine street.
There will be between 1,500 and 2,000 incandescent lights used in illuminating this block and there is no doubt but that a very brilliant effect will be produced.
Although money has been promised to cover all expenses to be incurred, the committee are having quite a difficult time in getting hold of the actual cash. They are in receipt of a letter from State Secretary Winder, of Reading, telling of the new raised by the firemen of that city when the convention was held there three years ago.

WHAT READING DID.
Mr. Winder states that between $7,- 000 and $8,000 was collected without any trouble whatever, one company turning in over $1,000. The fund excess that the six breweries in the city donated altogether $2,500. The local committee thinks that the large city of Scranton should at least keep pace with the city of Reading.

The companies registered for participation in the parade are the following: City Fire, among the latest have been are the Columbia Hose and Steam Fire Engine company, of Shenandoah, forty men and band; East Bangor Volunteer Fire company, of East Bangor; thirty men and band; Goodwill Fire Engine and Hose company, forty men; Hand in Hand Fire company, of Philadelphia, thirty-five men; Neptune Fire company, of Dunmore.
Secretary William Tanner is sending broadcast throughout the state large posters containing the details of the convention, parade and tournament.
Electric arches are to be constructed at the following intersections: Franklin and Lackawanna, Spruce and Washington and Wyoming and Lackawanna. The evergreen arches are to be erected at other points in the central city and a handsome arch made of ladders is to be erected in front of city hall.
Jonas Long's Sons will furnish free the current for the illumination of the arch at the Lackawanna-Wyoming intersection and also for the asphalt dance on the 400 block of Wyoming avenue. J. A. Mears will furnish the light for the arch at the Washington-Spruce intersection. A ladder arch is proposed for Providence square.

morning.

dence sufficient, after hearing the testimony of the chief and detective, and committed the prisoner to the county jail without bail to await the action

LOOMIS IS MADE PRESIDENT.
Succeeds W. R. Storrs as Head of the Providence Gas and Water Co.
The Providence Gas and Water company has reorganized by electing E.
E. Loomis, superintendent of mining of the Lackawanna company, to succeed W. R. Storrs as president, and by substituting W. K. McFarlin, chief engineer of the Lackawanna, and Mr.
Baker, auditor of the Lackawanna coal department, as successors to the Messrs. Storrs and W. F. Hallstead on the board of directors.
The other officers continue as heretofore.

MORE TIME WANTED.
Respondent in the Election Contest Will Make an Application to the Court Today.

Attorneys representing M. J. Kelly, the respondent in the Langstaff contest, the office of county treasurer, will make an application to the court for an extension of time. Today is the last for taking testimony on the part of the respondent, and as only about 70 per cent. of the witnesses it is desired to examine have been heard, it is desired to have the court allow sufficient time to examine the remaining witnesses and offer such documentary evidence as they feel it necessary to present.
Some time ago the court allowed the complainant thirty days in which to present evidence to be rebuttal and his attorney will also ask for an extension of time, alleging that thirty days is not sufficient time in which to present the evidence they will marshal in rebuttal.
Up to date about 12,000 witnesses have been examined and 22,000 pages of testimony have been taken. It will take at least six months for the commissioners to prepare their report and it may take the best part of a year. No matter how rapidly the contest is pushed along it cannot be determined in less than another year. Mr. Kelly's term as county treasurer will expire Jan. 1, 1901.
According to the most conservative estimates the contest will cost at least $80,000. Mr. Langstaff has left the city and apparently abandoned the contest.
Attorney fees and other like expenses are now being paid by those who signed the petition for a contest and who fear they will have to pay the costs.

CLAY PIPE CLUB OUTING.
It Will Take Place at Lake Ariel Next Thursday.

The eighth annual outing of the Clay Pipe club, the social organization composed of members of the City Engineers' corps, will be held at Lake Ariel next Thursday. The train will leave the Erie and Wyoming Valley station at 8:25 a. m. and returning will leave the lake at 4:30 p. m.
The invitations which are being sent out today proclaim as usual that "cell kinds of refreshments including clay pipes, tobacco, etc.," will be served to the guests.

HEART DISEASE THE CAUSE.
Verdict in the Case of Miss Mame Sheerin.
The coroner's jury empaneled to investigate the death of Miss Mame Sheerin, whose sudden death occured at the Academy of Music Monday evening and was recognized a verdict to the effect that death was natural. Heart disease was the cause.
The funeral will be conducted tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St.
Patrick's church and interment will be made in Cathedral cemetery.

THE TIME EXTENDED.
Y. M. C. A. Architectural Contest to Close on October 15.

The architectural contest for the prizes offered by the Y. M. C. A. directors of this city for the best plans for entirely new building has been extended until October 15.
This was because several of those contesting had not yet finished their work and also for the reason that several new contestants were desirous of entering the field. The contest has interested architects not only in this city but from all over the country.

MICHAEL LAVELLE KILLED.
Michael Lavelle, of 125 Charles street, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon while at work in the Marine mine, where he was employed as a laborer.
He was working in a chamber loading a car when a large slab of rock became detached from the roof and fell on him without warning. He was struck on the head and body, the latter being frightfully mangled.
A Welcome to Admiral George Dewey, the Hero of Manila.
On September 29th, there will be a grand land parade, led by the marines who did such gallant service for the flag in that great engagement before Manila.
On September 30th, there will be a grand naval parade up the Hudson River, led by Admiral Dewey's famous sea fighter, the flagship Olympia.
On September 28th and 29th, the Lackawanna railroad will sell reduced rate tickets to New York and return, good to return on or before October 5th, six days, and including train between New York and Scranton every week day. Only four hours' ride, or two hours quicker than any other route.

STATE MEETING OF VETERINARIANS

WAS HELD IN THIS CITY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.
Session in Board of Trade Rooms and Was Attended by a Number of Members—Resolution Passed Urging City Officials to Take Up Matter of Local Meat Inspection.
A Number of Interesting Papers Read and an Address Made by State Veterinarian Pearson.

The semi-annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Veterinary Medical association was held yesterday afternoon in the assembly rooms of the Board of Trade building. While not a very large number of members were present, it was nevertheless a very interesting and profitable meeting.
The members arrived in the city yesterday morning and were received by the reception committee, Dr. Jacob Helmer, chairman, and Drs. Charles E.
Gilbert and Harry Storms. They were taken for a drive over the Elm-hurst boulevard and around Lake Scranton, after which dinner was served at the Jernyn.
The meeting began in the afternoon at 2 o'clock with President J. Curtis Michener, of Calmar, Pa., in the chair.
The other officers present were: Second Vice President Otto G. Nosek, of Reading, and Corresponding Secretary W. L. Rhoads, of Lansdowne.
The members of the association who answered to roll call were as follows:
Dr. H. K. Church, of Luzerne; Dr.
H. A. Paquet, of Scranton; Dr. Charles L. Gilbert, Jr., of Scranton; Dr. W.
J. Fretz, of Pottsville; Dr. E. E. Tower, of Montrose; Dr. L. E. Mead, of Tank-hannock; Dr. W. J. Stearn, of Ham-miltown; Dr. John W. Adams, of Philadelphia; Dr. A. R. Pottsbarger, of Selin's Grove; Dr. Edwin Hogg, of Wilkes-Barre; Dr. W. L. Miles, of Pleasant Mount; Dr. Leonard Pearson, of Philadelphia; Dr. John M.
Conroy, of Clark's Green; Dr. E. G.
Rice, of Towanda; Dr. Joseph D.
Houldsmith, of Philadelphia; Dr. John C. Fooker, of Allentown; Dr. J. A.
Timberman, of Wilkes-Barre; Dr. G.
R. Du Bois, of Wilkes-Barre; Dr. J.
B. Layton, of Westchester; Dr. W.
H. Hoskins, of Philadelphia; Dr. T. R.
Rayner, of Chestnut Hill; Dr. D.
C. Stanton, of Factoryville, and Dr.
Jacob Helmer, of Scranton.

The report of the delegates to the recent national meeting lately held in New York, which was the largest in the history of the organization, was read.
DECEASED MEMBERS.
Resolutions on the death of two members of the society were next read and adopted. One was on the death of Dr. John J. Smith, of Chambersburg, who died of Westchester, Dr. W.
H. Hoskins, of Philadelphia, who examined while making a post-mortem examination on the body of a cow. Several of the members expressed themselves as considering that the death of this man, making an effort to discover more about a disease which is frightfully contagious, all for the sake of humanity, was just as heroic as one as the death of a soldier on the battlefield. The other resolution was on the death of Dr. Isaiah Michener, of Lawersville, who was the oldest veterinarian in the state, being over 89 years of age when he died and having practiced his profession for over sixty years.
Several new members were admitted to membership in the association.
It was also decided to have the chair appoint a committee of five members to report at the annual meeting of the association to be held next spring in Philadelphia upon the advisability of starting an indemnity fund for the relief of members in distress and also for the purpose of defending any members in case of prosecution on charges of cruelty to animals.

MEAT INSPECTION URGED.
The following resolution regarding meat inspections was next unanimously passed: Whereas, The question of meat inspection is now one of the daily problems confronting national, state and municipal governments and demanding a proper solution at the hands of those charged with the direction of public affairs in the care and protection of our people from the dangers that lie therein; and Whereas, The creation of these positions are fraught with the danger of improperly educated and unfit persons seeking and obtaining the positions of municipal meat inspectors, thus robbing the people of the good that should flow therefrom; we earnestly commend the application of the federal civil service rules in the selection of these officials, and Whereas, The now conceded need of this protection in every city and borough of our state and the fact that it would impose no hardship from a monetary point of view in increased taxation upon the people, as a tax of less than one cent per week upon each inhabitant will provide for its maintenance in every city and borough and in large cities it can be made through municipal abattoirs a revenue producer.

FOOTE & SHEAR COMPANY'S DEMONSTRATION OF MAJESTIC STEEL AND MALLEABLE IRON KITCHEN RANGES.
The great superiority of the Majestic Steel and Malleable Iron Kitchen Range, over all others, is now being demonstrated on the main floor of the Foote & Shear Co.'s large establishment, No. 119 Washington avenue, in a most practical manner.
A great portion of one side of the main floor is devoted to the exhibit. One of the ranges is in operation, upon which an expert cook makes good things for the ladies who call and which is served to them in a first class manner by an experienced waiter at small tables provided for the purpose.
A gentleman from the factory is also present, explaining the good points embodied in the range—and there are many of them—to all who call.
The demonstration will continue throughout the week, and the ladies are cordially invited to call. A useful souvenir—a patent steel paring knife—will be given to each lady during this demonstration.

Dewey Day Celebration at New York Sept. 29 and 30, 1899.
The Delaware and Hudson railroad will sell excursion tickets from all stations to New York and return at one fare and a third for the round trip. Tickets will be good going Sept. 28th and 29th and good to return on trains leaving New York on or before Oct. 4th, and to destination on or before Oct. 15th, 1899.

Miss Cordelia Freeman, Voice Building and artistic singing, is now ready to meet pupils. Voices tried without charge. Southworth studios, from 2 to 6 p. m. daily.

Grand Welcome to Admiral Dewey.
New York, September 25th and 30th. The Central Railroad of New Jersey will place on sale excursion tickets to New York and return at reduced fares for this occasion.
