THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1899.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ANOTHER ACCIDENTNARROWLY AVERTED BY MOTORMAN.

Little Child Playing on the Street Had a Close Call from Being Run Down by a Street Car-Chicken Thief Caught Red-Handed and Stranger Charged with Stealing a Horse-Arrangements for St. Leo's Banquet-Notes and Personals.

Despite the fact that so many narrow escapes have been reported recently in the newspapers, parents will permit their children to play on the streets where electric cars are run, and there is scarcely a day passes that motormen are not called upon to exercise extraordinary precaution to avoid running them down.

An instance of this happened on Robinson street, yesterday afternoou, when a Petersburg-Lafayette car was running towards the central city. The car was passing the residence of Drayman George Brown when a wagon going in the oposite direction was also passing.

A child about three years of age, belonging to the peanut vender residing across the street, was hanging on to the rear of the wagon and dropped off just as the car came along. Without any thought whatever of danger the littlie fellow ran across the tracks and escaped being run down by a few feet.

A new motorman was running the car, and was being directed by another motorman, who noticed the child and but for his timely action in having the brakes applied, a serious accident would undoubtedly have occurred.

HELD FOR HORSE STEALING.

Some time ago Fred Myers, of the Archbald, suffered the loss of a horse and buggy in a very mysterious manner, and no trace of the outfit could be found. On Tuesday night a stranger giving the name of Charles Smith, appeared at the house and offered to disclose the whereabouts of the horse and carriage.

Smith was induced to remain over night at the house and a warrant was issued by Alderman John for his ar-He was given a hearing and held in $500 bail for appearance at court to answer the charge of stealing the horse.
