

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MAME SHEERIN YESTERDAY.

Obsequies at St. Patrick's Church Attended by Many Friends of the Deceased—Miners' Mass Meetings—Fight on Scranton Street—Another Child Struck by a Street Car—Furnished Straw Ball—Evangelist Pugh Here—Other News Notes and Personals.

The funeral of the late Miss Mame Sheerin, whose tragic death occurred at the Academy of Music on Monday evening, took place at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning. A solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Father Lavelle at 9 o'clock. The church was filled with friends of the deceased and the members of St. Cecilia's Catholic Total Abstinence union and the Daughters of Erin, of which she was a member, walked to the church with the funeral cortege.

The floral offerings were as follows: "Spray of Life," John P. Kearney; "Broken Wheel," Miss Nellie Tighe; "Gates Ajar," St. Cecilia's society; harp, Daughters of Erin; basket bouquet, Miss Mary Tufty; casket bouquet, C. M. Storm, wreath, Miss B. L. Cawley; anchor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trice; casket bouquet, Miss Emma Gibbons; crescent, Miss Nellie Tighe; broken column, Miss Anna L. Kearney; and a pillow with the inscription "Our Darling," by the family.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Sheerin, who survive her, together with the following brothers and sisters: Patrick J., William, Michael, Frank, Cecelia and Margaret. The pall-bearers were John P. Kearney, John McDonough, William Murray, Patrick Durkin, Frank Clarke and Richard Walsh. Michael Hogan, Michael Graham, Michael Calkin and John R. Jones. The interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

MINERS' MEETING. An open air meeting of miners was conducted in Bellevue heights last evening for the purpose of interesting the men in the organization known as the miners' union, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Addresses were delivered by Deputy Organizer Courtwright and other prominent speakers. The meeting was attended by several hundred workmen.

Another meeting will be held this evening in French Roof hall on Washburn street and all men employed in and about the mines in this vicinity are invited to attend. Mr. Courtwright and other prominent labor leaders will deliver addresses. The meeting will commence at 7.30 o'clock and will be an

Uwanta

Good cough remedy, take Du-fours French Tar. For Sale at

GEORGE W. JENKINS, 101 S. Main Avenue

Our Annual Sale of High Class Wool Blankets

Begins tomorrow. As usual, it will be a sale marked by excellence of quality rather than small figures for quality and little money are incompatible; they cannot be combined. But if thoroughly honest goods and prices that are at least a quarter less than they usually are interest you, then visit this sale and we'll guarantee that your every desire will be satisfied.

Among the Special Values Offered Are the Following Lots:

- 12-4 Fine White All Wool Blankets, Jacquard border and great weight, guaranteed value $12.00. Sale price $8.75
11-4 pure white wool Blankets, same as above in description and quality, worth $10.50. Sale price 7.50
11-4 pure wool white Blankets, worth $8.50. Sale price 6.75
11-4 pure wool white Blankets, worth $7.00. Sale price 5.50
11-4 pure wool white Blankets, worth $5.00. Sale price 4.50
11-4 pure wool white Blankets, worth $5.00. Sale price 3.50

Scarlet or Grey Blankets

- 11-4 pure wool Scarlet Blankets, worth $6. Sale price $5.00
10-4 pure wool Scarlet Blankets, worth $4.50. Sale price 3.50
11-4 pure wool Grey Blankets, worth $6.00. Sale price 4.50
10-4 pure wool Grey Blankets, worth $3.75. Sale price 2.95

Lots of Blankets here for less money if you want them.

AVOID HEAT PROSTRATION Use the WORLD-FAMOUS

Body, Brain and Nerve Tonic. ALL DRUGGISTS. AVOID SUBSTITUTES. Portraits and endorsements sent postpaid. MARIANI & CO., 123 W. 15th St. New York.

open air session, to which the public is cordially invited.

USED KNIFE AND REVOLVER. Henry Peter and his wife, who reside on Scranton street, engaged in a quarrel Wednesday night and Gaetano Naso, a relative, interfered. Peter pulled a knife on Naso and attempted to slash him, when Angel Shetsy interfered. A revolver was also used in the fracas.

Lieutenant Williams and Patrolman Peters were summoned and found the three men mixed up in a general melee on Scranton street and placed them all under arrest.

At the hearing before Alderman Moore yesterday morning Peter was fined $5, Naso $5 and Shetsy $2. All the fines were paid.

ANOTHER CHILD ESCAPES. About 7.30 o'clock last evening another small boy had a narrow escape from injury by being struck by a street car on North Main avenue, near Clarke Bros' store.

The car was running along slowly when the boy ran in front of it and was struck by the fender, throwing him several feet away. Fortunately his injuries were slight, but he was badly frightened.

FURNISHED STRAW BALL. Charles Lawson, of Scranton street, hired a horse and buggy some time ago from Liverman Joseph Kelly and abused the animal. A warrant was issued by Alderman Kelly for his arrest on the charge of cruelty to animals.

At the hearing before the alderman Lawson furnished "straw" bail. The case came up before the grand jury this week, and the bail was forfeited.

Constable Jacob Ellman re-arrested Lawson last night and he was locked up in the police station. He will be given a hearing this morning by Alderman Kelly.

EVANGELISTIC MEETING. Rev. John Pugh, an able evangelist, will preach at the Cathedral next Sunday evening, and will illustrate his remarks with crayon sketches. His subject will be "Profit or Loss, Which?" The public is invited.

A special meeting of the West Side Republican club will be held tomorrow evening to consider important business. The presence of every member is desired.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Lieutenant H. A. Parsons will preach at the Allis mission next Sunday evening, and will illustrate his remarks with crayon sketches. His subject will be "Profit or Loss, Which?" The public is invited.

Waldie Stevens, of Moore's meat

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

CHESTNUT STREET FREE KINDERGARTEN OPENED.

Supported by the Presbyterian Church and is for the Benefit of Italian Children—An Interesting Missionary Meeting Held Yesterday—Odd Fellows Nominate Officers—Marriage of Miss Lena B. Spettigue to Frank Lent—Neptune Hose Company Meets—Other Notes and Personals.

The free kindergarten on Chestnut street opened Wednesday morning. This worthy institution is supported by the Presbyterian church and last year did excellent work. During the summer, committees from the church repaired and thoroughly renovated the school rooms and the cheery aspect which greeted the little deserving children on opening day was worthy of the time and labor employed.

The kindergarten is for the Italian children of this borough and is in charge of Miss Morris, of Scranton, and Miss Mary Decker, of Dunmore, the latter volunteering her services for this year.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY. The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Myron Knight, on Monroe avenue, yesterday afternoon. The topics for discussion were "Janan" and "Prayer."

Interesting and instructive papers were read by Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. King, Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Knight. An original paper on "The Lord's Prayer" was read by Mrs. W. F. Gibbons. A business meeting followed. The society will meet on Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. H. Boyca.

OFFICERS NOMINATED. At the regular meeting of the local lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, on Wednesday evening, the following officers were nominated for the next term: Noble grand, Thomas R. Keller; vice-grand, J. G. Bone, H. F. Marshall and H. E. Spencer; secretary, P. Brady; assistant secretary, H. F. Marshall and J. E. Dancy; treasurer, Henry Weber and James G. Masters; trustee, H. E. Spencer, George Harper; representative to Grand lodge, Arthur Spencer and Richard Weber.

The election will occur on Wednesday evening next.

SPETTIGUE-LENT. Miss Lena B. Spettigue was united in marriage to Frank Lent at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Spettigue, on North Blakely street, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

After the ceremony, dainty refreshments were served to those in attendance, among whom were the following from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Spettigue and daughter Mary, Mr. William P. Bray, of Jersey; Misses Phoebe and Alice Neave, Mrs. Frank Richmond and daughter Clara, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Higgins and daughter Edna, of Scranton; Miss Jennie Wood, of Moosic; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lent, of Rutledgeville; Mr. and Mrs. Hadlock and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lent, of Port Jervis; Dr. W. H. White, Miss Rena Wood, of Beech lake; Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Spettigue and daughter Mabel, Miss A. V. Spettigue, Mr. O. N. Spettigue, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Garrett, Mr. George Garrett, Mr. George Spettigue, of Honesdale; Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cook, Mrs. N. Cary, of Forest City; Mr. Julius Spaeth, Miss Martha Spettigue, Mrs. M. J. Stone, Miss T. J. Maxey, of Carbondale.

Mr. and Mrs. Lent will take up their residence in Honesdale, where Mr. Lent is employed by Gibbs, Kelly & Co.

ITEMS OF INTEREST. The Neptune Hose company held a business meeting last night and disposed of a number of matters pertaining to their coming fair. The fire boys are leaving no stones unturned to make the venture the rousing success it should be.

The Ladies' auxiliary of Locomotive Railroad Trainmen held a social at the home of Edward Warner, on Clay avenue, last night.

A number of the young friends of Miss Virginia Saunders tendered a farewell surprise party at the home of her parents on New York street last evening. Miss Saunders will leave Dunmore for the west next week.

The school board meets this evening. A teacher will be selected for the newly introduced business course in the high school.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS. Rev. W. F. Gibbons returned yesterday from Susquehanna, Pa., where he had been attending the sessions of the Presbytery.

The Daughters of America held a postponed social at Laurel Hill park last night.

Miss Hall, a graduate of the School of Oratory, Boston, Mass., met a number of the public school teachers in No. 4 school building yesterday afternoon. She is desirous of forming a class of elocution in Dunmore.

Mr. J. J. Curtis, of Honesdale, representing the American Book company, was in Dunmore Wednesday looking after his company's interests in this borough.

Mr. Gilbert Close has registered as a student at Princeton college. Mr. Close left for Princeton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Davis, of Clark's Green, and Virginia Loomis, of Lemont, visited at the home of Prof. R. N. Davis, of North Blakely street, Tuesday.

MARKET, IS SUFFERING FROM A LACERATED ARM CAUSED BY FALLING FROM A CHAIR WHILE CLEANING WINDOWS.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church tendered a surprise party to Mrs. E. Morgan of South Main avenue on Wednesday evening. The members of the disbanded Republican league will in all probability unite with the West Side Republican club.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Edward Moore, of Jackson street, who was afflicted a few days ago with an attack of appendicitis, is recovering.

Mrs. David Sebrine, of Tunkhannock is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Granacher of North Bromley avenue.

Miss Margaret Moylan, of Chestnut street is visiting her parents at Waymart.

Miss Nolan, of Middletown, N. Y., is being entertained by the Misses Gilroy, of Jackson street.

Mrs. T. V. Powderly and Mrs. M. L. Collins, who have been visiting friends on North Main avenue, returned to Washington, D. C., on Wednesday.

Richard Harris, of Acker avenue, who was injured in the Dodge mine some time ago, is able to be around again.

Mrs. James E. Lewis, of Kingston, is visiting at the home of her parents on Hampton street.

SOUTH SCRANTON NEWS. Marriage of Miss Lena Hartman to Peter Kellerman Solemnized Last Evening—Other News Notes.

An exceedingly pretty wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hartman, of Cedar avenue, corner of Birch street, last night. Their daughter, Miss Lena Hartman, was united in marriage to Peter Kellerman, of 1016 Crown avenue, in the presence of 150 guests and friends.

Rev. W. A. North, of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, of which congregation the bride and groom are prominent members, officiated at the ceremony.

Misses Anna Hartman and Kate Neher were bridesmaids, and Fred Kellerman, a brother to the groom, and William Fickus attended the groom. Little Miss Wildschmid Barnhart acted as flower girl and two young nieces, Misses Fickus and Rose Barnhart, acted as ushers.

As the wedding party entered the parlor Miss Lavinia North pleasantly rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ceremony over Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman received the congratulations of all present.

The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of pearl gray laces with lavender and white trimmings. Her maids wore pretty dresses of white organdy. Miss Barnhart, the flower girl, was attired in pink silk.

The bride and groom were delightfully remembered by their friends, receiving an immense number of beautiful and valuable presents. The co-workers of Mr. Kellerman at Meers & Hagen's sent him a complete bedroom suit. The 150 guests did ample justice to an elegant spread. The several courses being served by Misses Carrie Nape, Kate Kellerman, Ida Chase, Theresa Brill, Florence Reuz, Mamie Lengler, Minnie Fickus and Rose Apperschlag. Dancing was indulged in for the remaining hours of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman are highly esteemed young people and their new abodes of their many friends. They will commence housekeeping today at 801 Cedar avenue.

THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENED. The case of Mrs. Helen Smith against Frank Scholofsky and his wife, who are charged with assault and battery and larceny by bailie, came to an unexpected ending yesterday morning. The defendants are the people who used Deputy Constable Miriz in a shameful manner Wednesday night when he was taking them to Alderman Lent's office for a hearing.

When arraigned yesterday morning Mrs. Smith and Miriz withdrew their charges and an amicable settlement was reached.

DIED FROM INJURIES. The 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Siga, of Stone avenue, died last night from the results of severe injuries received at her home a few days ago.

She was playing in the yard, started a fire, and in the usual manner her clothes became ignited and she was quickly enveloped in flames. Assistance soon came, but she was unable to be rescued. All efforts to save her were made by the physicians but it was of no avail. The time of the funeral has not been decided upon.

Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. E. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. Phone 6653.

GREEN RIDGE. Mrs. D. F. Toole, of Penn avenue, is visiting relatives in Dundell.

Mrs. George Siga, of Stone avenue, of Capouse avenue, have returned from New York city.

JONAS LONG'S SONS. JONAS LONG'S SONS. JONAS LONG'S SONS.

Magnificence of Styles. Originality of Designs. Absence of Milliner's Prices. MILLINERY OPENING. Next Week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Why Does the Public Rush to These Friday Sales?

"Why do I always attend your Friday Sales?" remarked a lady in answer to a question directed to her by us. "I'll tell you," said she—and her reasons were so clear that we think them worth repeating. "There's never a time when I don't need something," remarked the lady, "and it often happens that just what I want is at these Friday Sales. If so, I save considerable, for you certainly sell certain things cheap on that day—cheaper than on any other."

Were founded for that purpose. We aim to make it a record-breaking day; so far we've not been disappointed. We make great preparations to serve every one on that day. We secure sufficient lots of goods that no one may be disappointed. We make the prices an object for you to come.

If you've never been (and it isn't likely that you have not) suppose you come this Friday. Something in the appended list ought to interest you.

$1.50 Each for Rockers on Friday. worth $2.25. Half Price on Some Domestic Things for Friday.

BED SPREADS AT 50c—One case of the largest size white Bed Spreads, all hemmed ready for use. Choice Marcelline patterns and extra heavy quality. Would be cheap at $1.10, in most stores they're $1.25. On Friday 85c

BLEACHED MUSLIN AT 4c—2,000 yards of full yard wide Bleached Muslin that will wash up nice and soft. Not a yard in the lot worth less than 6 cents; some of it worth 7 cents. On Friday only at 4c

OUTING FLANNEL AT 6c—The regular to cent quality of heavy Outing Flannels in the very newest check, plaid and stripes. No better bargain has ever been offered by any store than these for Friday 63c

20c Yard for 35c Dress Goods on Friday Only.

11 Cents for 36-inch Figured Denim on Friday.

35 Cents for Fine Leather Belts, Worth 50c.

Down in the Basement Things Are Lively.

HAT RACKS AT 7c—Six-Hook Hat Racks, very strong and well made; worth 10 cents. On Friday 7c

COFFEE MILLS AT 15c—Wood Coffee Mill with polished box, strong and durable. Always sold at 23c. On Friday 15c

BASTING SPOONS AT 5c—Enamelled Basting Spoons and Skimmers, the regular prices of which are 10c; take them away on Friday at 5c

GLASS CASK AND FRUIT SALVERS AT 17c—Full ten inches in size, fire polished and of a very pretty design; always 25 cents. On Friday at 17c

23 Cents for Fast Color Ingrain Carpets.

Two Big Items in Hosiery and Underwear.

THE UNDERWEAR AT 15c—Women's Heavy Ribbed Vests and Pants, about twenty-five dozen in the lot. Always sold at 19 cents. On Friday only 15c candidate to the coming Democratic convention. Misses Ivy Andrews and Clara Horton returned home from Lake Ariel, where they visited Miss Josephine Anderson, Miss Lizzie Morris, of Nanticoke, is visiting Mrs. E. B. Boock of Summit avenue.

Jonas Long's Sons

Messrs. Jenkin Evans and Cooney Pinkney, of Nanticoke, are the guests of Mr. Harry Cross, of Cayuga street. Miss Margaret Llewellyn, of Plymouth, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, of Warren street.

OBITUARY. James Jordan, of Austin Heights, died yesterday morning at his home at the age of 43 years. Funeral Saturday at one o'clock from St. Lawrence church, Old Forge.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

AMUSEMENTS. LYCEUM THEATRE. BURGRINDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager. Monday and Tuesday Nights, September 25 and 26.

THE QUEEN OF CHINATOWN. A Carol of Special Sensory and Mechanical Effects, Direct From Record-Breaking Engagements in New York and Philadelphia.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. BURGRINDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager. Balance of Week.

BJN TON STOCK COMPANY. Presenting Mr. Chas. Leyburn in a repertoire of popular plays. Dime matinees Thursday and Friday; Saturday matinee 10 and 12c. Evening prices, 10, 25, 50c.

One week commencing Monday, Sept. 25. MISS KATHERINE BOBER in a repertoire of up to date productions, opening Monday evening with Sardou's masterpiece.

"Madame Sans Gene." Daily dime matinees commencing Tuesday. Evening prices, 10, 25, 50c.

GALETTI Matinees Daily. September 21-22-23. Faust's Metropolitan Burlesquers...

Next Attraction "Hot Old Time in Dixie."

MADE ME A MAN. AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Disorders—Failing Memory, Headaches, Sleeplessness, etc. Sold by Druggists and Dealers.

For Sale in Scranton, Pa., by Matthews Bros. and H. C. Sanderson, druggists.

TRIBUNE WANT ADS. BRING QUICK RETURNS.