SILK CITY CONCLAVE HERE ON A VISIT

PATERSON HEPTASOPHS ENTER-TAINED BY LOCAL BRETHREN.

Accompanied by City Officials and a Band They Came Here Nearly Three Hundred Strong and Spent a Day Looking Over the Electric City Under the Guidance of the Heptasophs of This City and County. Address or Welcome at the Armory.

Silk City conclave, Improved Order of Heptasophs, of Paterson, N. J., made this city the scene of its third annual outing, yesterday, and was royally entertained by the Heptasophs of this city and vicinity.

The local reception and executive committees, composed of representatives from the various conclaves, assembled at Hotel Jermyn in the morning at 10 o'clock and proceeded to the Lackawanna station, headed by the Lawrence band. The Paterson visitors were due to arrive at 19.30 o'clock, but their train was delayed by the wreck of a coal train at Lehigh and they did not reach the city until 11.30.

There were nearly 300 in the party and they were accompanied by Robinson's Second Regiment band. All the officers of the conclave came with them. They are: Past archon, Frank I. Forbes; archon, H. A. Sherman; provost. L. A. Cowles; secretary, James H. Gall: financial secretary, James K. O'Dea; treasurer, H. H. Schoonmaker; inspector, Samuel Garrabruch; warden, William Thompson: prelate, James Growney; sentinel, Alex Bryson, jr. The committee of Patersonians in charge of the affair consisted of the following: Chairman, L. A. Cowles; secretary, James H. Gall: treasurer, H. L. Quackenbush: Thomas W. Foyle, J. B. Greibel, Thomas W. McAndrews, F. I. Forbes, H. Schoonmaker, P. Don-nelly, H. B. Wood, E. J. McDonald, H. A. Sherman, C. C. Cozzens, A. Adams, Dr J. A. Browne, Thomas McNamara, C W. Stonely, Chris Groetch, James K. O'Dea and E. J. Feeley, jr.

PROMINENT CITIZENS.

A number of prominent citizens of Paterson also came with the delegation. Mayor Hincheliffe, who was very desirous of coming to the city, was unable to get here on account of pressing official business. Among the more prominent citizens who did come were Chief of Police Fred J. Graul, Assemblyman Wood McKee, Alderman John Boylan and John Johnson, County Surrogate Charles M. King, City Controller Thomas McLain and Hon, Christopher il the visitors were particularly neat and attractive badges with the words Third Annual Outing, Scranton, Pa., inscribed on them. The local committee distributed other badges bearing a picture of two clasped hands, representing the cities of Paterson and

The visiting delegation were escorted to Hotel Jermyn, where they partook of lunch. As the condition of the weather was so very threatening it was decided to hold the meeting in the armory instead of at Nay Aug park, as originally planned. Shortly after the meeting had commenced in the latter place, however, the sun came out perversely and shone brightly in through the windows, making several members of the local committee say things.

The meeting opened with an overture by the Second Regiment band and a selection, "The Letter," by the Scranton Glee club, both of which were excellently rendered. C. G. Boland, who acted as chairman, then introduced Mayor Moir, who was in especially good humor and who made an address of welcome to the visitors. He said, in

MAYOR'S ADDRESS.

"I take great pleasure in welcoming you to this city. The particular thing I notice about your organization is its great unselfishness. The fact that no member ever reaps any benefit himself from the money he pays to the order. but that this money is never disbursed until he dies, makes the Heptasophs a unique organization. Other orders pay sick benefits and have funds for aiding needy brothers, all of which may be classed as selfish aims. But you seek only to provide for those left behind you and I am sure tht the real, sincere, pure motives back of this desire will aid in laying up treasures for your-

"Another thing I notice is that your order is cosmopolitan. I took particular notice of the first four men is line today. The first one on the right was a member of that bold, dashing race, an Irishman; next was a member of the thinking race, a German: next was a member of a race without whom a parade in Scranton would not be a success, a Weishman, and next to him, as if the order wished to show its contempt for the Dreyfus outrage, was a Hebrew.

"In conclusion, I would say that when I thought of the derivation of the name Heptasophs today I was, of course, reminded of the seven wise Greece and decided that It must be derived from them. But it seems to me this afternoon that there are 700 wise men in Scranton from the appearance of this gathering and only a few fools like myself who don't know enough to join the order. BOUQUET PRESENTED.

Henry U. Hopewell then presented the mayor with a magnificent bouquet of orchids, the gift of the members of the Silk City Conclave. H. A. Sherman, archon of the Silk City conclave responded to the mayor's address in behalf of Mayor Hinchcliffe. Superintendent of Schools George Howell then spoke on behalf of the Heptasophs in this valley, welcoming the visitors to the city said that the charity that actuated men to provide for the welfare of their family when they are gone, without any care for self, was the very purest kind of charity. Short addresses were siso made by several other Hepta-work, which sophs, both of this city and Pacerson, of the fair.

interspersed with selections by the glee

e'cb and the band. The visiting members at the conclusion of the meeting were taken for a trolley ride on special cars to various parts of the city, including Laurel Hill, the Country club and Hyde Park. Dinner was served at the Jermyn from to 6 o'clock and the majority of the visitors returned to Paterson shortly after 10 o'clock, after a band concert and informal reception at the Jermyn. A number of the letter carriers from Paterson were also present and enjoyed once more the hospitality of this city, All the visitors expressed themselves as being delighted at the arrangements made by the local committee and expressed a desire to come here again. An orchestra furnished music in the armory in the afternoon and vening for those who desired to dance.

TWO MORE TRUE BILLS.

Little and O'Toole Indicted for Criminally Libelling Alderman Kelly and Jacob Ellman.

The grand jury yesterday returned two more true bills against Little and O'Toole, of the Scrantonian. The ases were those in which Alderman John P. Kelly and Jacob Ellman are the prosecutors.

The jury completed its work and was discharged. The final report contained twenty-eight true bills and nearly 200 ignored bills. Appended are the jury's recommendations and the true bills:

To the Henerable the Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Lackawanna. The grand inquest inquiring in and for the said county of Lackawanna, respect-fully report as follows, to wit: Resolved, That our thanks are due to District Attorney John R. Jones for the careful and painstaking way in which e has prepared all bills of indictment, the has performed his official duties, and for the great executive ability he has demonstrated in the prompt disputch of the public business. He has reduced the great bulk of business in his office to a most commendable system. Assisted by his able and courteous deputy, W. Gay-lord Thomas, and his competent detective, Thomas Leyshon, the district attorney's office of this county is a model for the ommonwealth.

We have visited the county jail and found this institution to be well kept. The building and surroundings are neat and clean. The food furnished to the prisoners is of good quality. We make the following recommenda-

First-That a thoroughly strong gate be placed at west gide of jall yard to substitute present wooden gate, and also that sewer connections be made with the cells of basement corridor. That the floor of west wing basement corridor be ecure better ventilation throughout the corridor on third floor of court house; that the side walls and cellings of said corridor, as well as the district attorney's effice and ladies' waiting room, be

Third-That a man be regularly emloyed to run the court house elevator. Fourth-That a new lineleum covering the floor of the district attorney's of ce be furnished. Fifth-That the sidewalk on the west side of court house square be raised to the curb line.

Respectfully submitted.

The Fifty-third Exhibition of the Susquehanna Agricultural Society. Special to The Scrapton Tribune

Montrose, Pa., Sept. 21 .- The fiftythird annual fair of the Susquehanna County Agricultural society was held here yesterday. The weather of the day previous looked as if the fair would be a repetition of a year ago, but the officers of the society and nearly 4,000 people who attended were happily disappointed in the change of the weather, which for the occasion was all that could be asked for. The entries, which closed the day previous (under a new rule) enabled the judges to perform work earlier and every seemed pleased with the result of their decisions The list of entries in all the different classes were the largest ever known in the history of the association. programme as published was carried out to the letter. Mons. Dubec with his trained animals and William C Hoefler, the champion trick bicyclist, entertained those present with their respective performances. Great credit is due Secretary W. A. REPORTED SALE OF DIAMOND "FLATS" CONFIRMED.

As Exclusively Stated in Yesterday's Tribune a Deal for the Plot Has Been Closed and Big Industries Are to Be Located There-Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Men Buy the Large Parcel-Another Sunday Flyer on the Lackawanna.

The exclusive announcement in The Tribune yesterday morning of the sale of a large portion of the Diamond Flats plot of ground, owned by the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, was confirmed by Superintendent E. E. Loomis, of the mining and real estate department, yesterday. Sixty-eight acres of the plot on the right hand side of the Providence road, going north, were sold Wednesday to a syndicate which will be known as the Diamond Land and Improvement company, of which T. J. Foster and Detective H. Harring, of this city, and John T. Lenahan and Patrick Gilligan, of Wilkes-Barre, are the principal

Mr. Loomis also closed a deal with Attorney J. W. Browning for four acres west of the Providence road, near Battle street, in the First ward. This small plot is to be used for manufacturing purposes. Messrs, Browning, J. K. Johler and Jacob Dietrick, who are interested in the land, are negotiating for the establishment of a mill for the manufacture of steam boilers on their plot.

Mr. Browning, when seen by a Tribune reporter yesterday, said he could not give out anything definite regarding the proposed industry, but that he was quite certain it will be secured. T. J. Foster, of the Colliery Engineer company, who, as above stated, is one of the leading men of the Dia-mond company, is an interview gave out that as the deal had just been made the company had not formulated its plans. The land will be improved, it is not known at present. He further stated that he was of the opinion that the men interested will build manufactories or use their efforts to induce factories to locate Nothing definite can be done until the company has fully organized, which will be next week. The consideration was $102,000.

Foster said, but to what extent

Superintendent Loomis stated to The Tribune reporter that there is not any probability of the land on the opposite side of the large tract being sold in the near future. "We may want that ourselves," he significantly remarked. but would not say anything further on the subject.

It is understood that the Diamond company's tract is already negotiated One very large concern, supposed to be the Pittsburg Iron and Steel company, is booked as a certainty to locate on one part of the tract. Another goodsized concern is said to be almost sure of locating on the other portion.
