CARBONDALE HAS POOR BOARD BOTHER

ELECTED DIRECTOR REFUSES TO ACCEPT APPOINTMENT.

Squabble Arises from the Attempt to Reorganize the Board Under the Act of May 5, Last-Edward Robbins Who Was Elected Last Spring for Four Years Insists on Serving Out His Term-Sewer Suit Also Originating from the Pioneer City.

Carbondale, too, has a poor board

May 5, of this year, the legislature passed an act reorganizing the Carbondale poor district. It provides among other things for six directors, one from each ward, instead of the four directors elected from the old districts.

The three directors from the second, third and fourth wards held over and the judges of the quarter sessions court were directed to appoint three new members from the First. Fifth and Sixth wards to hold office until the first Monday in April, 1900. Elections are prescribed in the interim to supply vacancies as they occur in the various wards.

A. W. Daley, of the First ward; Henry Carter, of the Fifth ward and Edward Robbins, of the Sixth ward were appointed by the judges. Through a misunderstanding the judges were sitting in common pleas when they made these appointments on May 14. The error was discovered and yesterday court convened itself in quarter ressions and revoking the former apointments issued a new order, Messrs. Daley and Carter were reappointed from the First and Fifth wards respectively, but in the Sixth ward, Milo Gardner was substituted for Mr. Robbins.

The cause of the substitution was Mr. Robbins' refusal to accept of the appointment.

Last spring he was elected for a four Sixth wards, and ignoring the appointment under the new act, contined to attend the board meetings under authority of his election certificate. This being brought to the attention of ourt by an affidavit from John H. Thomas his appointment was revoked, and Mr. Gardner substituted as the member from the Sixth.

It is likely that mandamus proceedngs will follow the organization of the board.

The answer of the defendant in the case of the City of Carbondale against A. B. Nicol was filed yesterday by Attorney Charles L. Hawley. The city is endeavoring to enforce a $61.38 lien on the defendant's property for a sewer assessment for the Nicol

The defendant opposes it on the The Only Dentist grounds that the assessment was not made according to the foot-front rule, as it purports to have been made, the assessment baving been computed by the depth of the lot rather than its frontage; also because the alley is private property, and instead of the sewer being a benefit to the property is a detriment because of the nulsance cre ated by its emptying into the river at a point closely adjacent to the defendant's property.

It is likewise contended that the claim of the city is barred by the statute of limitation.

AGREE TO A CASE STATED

Controller Howell's Claim for Compensation from the School Board Is to Be Taken to Court.

The finance committee of the board of centrol met last night and discussed the controversy over City Controller Howell's claim for compensation from the school district for supervising its warrants. Solicitor D. J. Reedy reported that City Solicitor A. A. Vosburg, who was supporting Controller Howell's claim had areed to submit the matter to court mended that the board give this means of settling the dispute its cancilon, The committee decided to submit Solicitor Reedy's recommendation to the board.

It is generally believed that this plan if carired out will result in a decision to the effect that the board is not required to submit its warrants for the city controller's countersignature, as the law of 1874 under which this is be ing done at present has been declared unconstitutional and no other law as agreement was reached. The verdict | far as can be learned makes any such provision.

Mrs. Col. Richardson SAVED BY MRS. PINKHAM.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 72,896] "You have saved my life, snatched me from the brink of the grave almost, and I wish to thank you. About eigh teen months ago I was a total wreck, physically. I had been troubled with eucorrhea for some time, but had given hardly any attention to the trouble.

"At last inflammation of the womb and ovaries resulted and then I suffered agonies, had to give up my profession (musician and piano player), was confined to my bed and life became a terrible cross. My husband summoned the best physicians, but their benefit was but temporary at best. I believe I should have contracted the morphine habit under their care, if my common sense had not intervened.

"One day my husband noticed the advertisement of your remedies and immediately bought me a full trial. Soon the pain in my ovaries was gone. I am now well, strong and robust, walk, ride a wheel, and feel like a girl in her teens. I would not be without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is like water of life to me. I am very gratefully and sincerely your wellwisher, and I heartily recommend your remedies. I hope some poor creature may be helped to health by reading my story."-MRS. Col. E. P. ACTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS WAS PREMATURE.

Junior Order United American Mechanics Believe the Charges of Insubordination Will Not Be Sustained-Per Capita Tax May Yet Be Paid Under Protest-Action Must Be Taken Within Thirty Days-Special Meetings Will Be Called to Settle Difficulty.

The suspension of the state council's charter by the national councilor will not affect the subordinate councils in any way at present. The national organization is bound under the rules of the order to take action in the matter within thirty days, but before the expiration of that time it is thought that a special session of the council will be held to order the per capita tax paid under protest.

It is not generaly known, but it is a fact, that if such hasty action had not been taken by the national officers everything would have been satisfactorily arranged without any trouble. One of the delegates had a resolution in his pocket to offer which recommended the payment of the per capita tax under protest, and It was the intention of the antis to defeat the committee's recommendation as they did, but not to abandon it entirely. Many of the delegates are of the opinion that the charge of insubordina-tion was premature and that when the matter is presented to the national judiciary in the proper light, the declsion is bound to be in favor of the state council. The charges were not specified, and unless the national officers can show good cause for their action they will not be sustained in suspending the charter before the convention had finally adjourned. The antis aver that the state council officers are in league with the national officers, and that the charges were contemplated long before the convention assembled in view of the disruption which was imminent at the beginning of the sessions. After the crisis came, they organized by electing Past National Councilor Badger, of Philadelphia as chairman, and Past State Councilor Keer, of Pittsburg as secretary. Attorneys Pike f Philadelphia, and Teufer of Beaver county, who were delegates, were appointed to defend the interests of the anti-faction. State Councilor Bowers says the harges of insubordination have been formally preferred and will be considered by the national judiciary. The state council will be summoned to make its defense. After the trial, if a conviction is found, the charter will be re-veked. The state board of officers will address a communication to the subordinate councils calling on them to assert their allegiance and loyalty to the supreme body and requesting them to send representatives to a special meet ing, at which time and place the national council will be requested by petition to restore the charter to the councils declaring their allegiance and illingness to obey the supreme laws The outcome of the suspension will be watched with much interest all over the United States, owing to the large representation of Individual members in the state of Pennsylvania. The state council is an incorporated body and can operate under the title of the Jr. O. U. A. M. without consulting the national council the antis declare, and as the Fennsylvania membership comprises nearly two-thirds of the whole national body, it is a question in their minds whether it is not advisable to remain independent ..
