LUKE D. BROUGHTON DEAD.

He Predicted His Demise by the Planets. New York, Sept. 24.—Luke D. Broughton, president of the Astrological society of this city, died at his home, No. 68 South Washington square, on Sept. 22, at 4 o'clock in the morning. He had expected to die at 10 o'clock on the evening of Sept. 21, because at this time the planet Mars came in opposition to the position of the sun at his birth. From a medical standpoint his death was caused by Bright's disease.

THE BOHEMIANS PROTEST.

Declare That They Are Not Promoters of Suicides. Chicago, Sept. 24.—A mass meeting of Bohemian residents of Chicago was held today to denounce those responsible for issuing a circular recently in which it was stated that Bohemians are in the custom of forming secret clubs among themselves for the express purpose of inducing suicides. The circular, it is said, had been sent broadcast over the country. Today's meeting was attended by nearly a thousand Bohemians and each speaker, in denouncing the authors of the circulars, was enthusiastically cheered.

Explorer Penny Dead.

London, Sept. 24.—William Penny, who accompanied Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, in 1870, to the expedition for the relief of Emin Pasha, and who subsequently received the gold medal of the Royal Geographical Society, at the hands of the Prince of Wales, is dead.

STORM ON LAKE ERIE.

Wind Blowing at the Rate of 70 Miles an Hour—Yachts Capsize. Toledo, Sept. 24.—Lake Erie this afternoon witnessed the worst storm of the season, the wind blowing at a rate of 70 miles an hour. The blow came up about 4 o'clock and continued for an hour. Four yachts were capsized near the Maumee bay and the crews were rescued with difficulty. Another yacht containing three young ladies was reported lost and the shore of the lake was patrolled until nearly 9 o'clock, when they were found, having gone through the storm and been driven ashore. Considerable damage is reported in Northwestern Ohio to houses and the windows of a street car were blown out in the city as the car was crossing a bridge. The wind is still high.

YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED AT FALCONER.

Physicians conducting the autopsy discovered that the girl would have become a mother within a few months. The police learned that the murdered girl had been much in the company of a young man named Frank Vennerholm of this city. They visited Vennerholm's boarding house, found the young man in bed and arrested him. A search of the room brought to view a vest and pair of trousers, covered with mud and blood, a pair of shoes and a pair of stockings soaking with water and in a trunk was found a white shirt with the bosom heavily splattered with blood, together with a handkerchief in the same condition. The ground in the vicinity of the place of the murder was thoroughly searched and the handle of a razor with the blade broken off was found. The handle was shown to Vennerholm's brother, who had not been informed of the arrest, and he at once pronounced it the handle of his brother Frank's razor. Vennerholm is prominent among the Swedish young people of this city and an Odd Fellow.

STEVENS STRIKE SETTLED.

Strikers Agree to Accept Advance Offered by the Company. Special to The Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Sept. 24.—The strike at the Stevens colliery in West Pittston, which has been on for the past seven weeks and which resulted in a fatal riot a few weeks ago, has been settled. At a meeting of the striking foreigners held at their hall Saturday night it was decided to accept the company's proposition. The original demand of the strikers was for an increase from 50 cents to $1.25 per car, but after numerous conferences with the officials of the company the latter's offer, made last week, of an increase of 3 cents per car was accepted. It is expected that the colliery will resume operations on Tuesday morning.

PITTSBURG POINTERS.

Adm. Korper and Michael Gorrity, both of Wilkes-Barre, employees of the Peoples Telephone company, now erecting a line in this city, were slightly injured Saturday by the falling of a sixty foot pole which they were placing in position. D. W. Banister of West Pittston, is a delegate from the second division to the twenty-first annual convention of Italian Mail Clerks, M. B. A., which meets in St. Louis this week. James Flaxingan aged about 49 years, of South Main street, was fatally injured in No. 4 shaft of the Pennsylvania Coal Company Saturday and died at the Pittston hospital about one and a half hours after the accident. With his brother he was engaged in barring down a piece of loose rock from the roof when it suddenly fell, the victim being caught by the fall and badly crushed. The funeral will occur Monday morning. The cemetery will hold an inquest in Alderman Evers's office Monday afternoon. In a base ball game yesterday between the Pittston Reds and the Wilkes-Barre professionals the latter won by the score of eleven to four. The battlers were: Professionals, Gending and Goulding; Pittston, Grier and Goulden. The game was played at Tommie's park and was witnessed by about 2,000 people.

Dreyfus Meets His Children.

Louisa, Sept. 25.—The Paris correspondent of the Standard says: The excitement of meeting his children has produced a serious reaction in the condition of Dreyfus, and it feared that it may be necessary to send him to Malta and Madeira.

young woman murdered at Falconer last night was identified today by Rev. P. Martinson, pastor of the Lutheran church, as Miss Emily Adolphson, a house servant and a member of his congregation. Physicians conducting the autopsy discovered that the girl would have become a mother within a few months. The police learned that the murdered girl had been much in the company of a young man named Frank Vennerholm of this city. They visited Vennerholm's boarding house, found the young man in bed and arrested him.
