EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

FATHER MATHEW SOCIETY IN SECRET AND SOCIAL SESSION.

Event Attended by Many Prominent Temperance Workers in the Lackawanna Valley-Rally Day Exercises at Washburn Street Presbyterian Church-St. Leo's Battalion Meetings-Sabbath Desecrations. Republican Clubs Combine-Wedding and Party-Notes.

The Hyde Park Father Mathew so clety held a social session in St. Leo's hali yesterday afternoon, which was attended by a large representation of the members and the Father Mathew cadets. President James H. Brown was chairman and made a brief address of welcome. Short addresses were also delivered by J. C. Gallagher, Treasurer Malloy, of the Archbald Catholic Total Abstinence union; Jeffrey J. Powers, Messrs. Foote and Gilroy, of Archbald.

Instrunental selections were rendered by Edward Hurst, Messrs, Gilroy and Foote, and solos were sung by John Shaughnessy, Thomas McGuire and Laughlin McHugh. The cadets also sang several choruses. William Gilroy made a declamation and John J. McLain gave a detailed account of the arrangements at Central Park garden on Oct. 10. The event was followed by a smoker.

At the meeting of the society yests: day final arrangements were made for the Father Mathew day parade and the ball to be given in the armory Adams avenue in the evening. The music will be furnished by Bauer's The general committee is composed of Thames Fleming, chairman; John Shaughnessy, secretary; Morris T. Walsh, treasurer; M. J. Jennings and J. C. Gallagher.

At the meeting of the cadets one hundred new members were enrolled and the juniors decided to engage Hayes Brothers' Drum corps for the 10th of October parade. This is the first instance in the history of the cadets when music was engaged especially for the younger organization.

RALLY DAY SERVICES. The members of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church and Bible school observed rally day yesterday with appropiate exercises. At 10.30 o'clock the pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffat, spoke on the relations between the Bible school and the church and the obligation of church members to participate in the Bible school work. He took his text from Romans xii:11: "Not slothful in business, fervent in spirit serving the

At 12 o'clock the rally day exercises began. All the teachers were present and the scholars of the various classes

Uwanta

Good cough remedy, take Dufours French Tar. For Sale at

> GEORGE W. JENKINS'. 101 S. Main Avenue

responded with the number of members and amount of collection. An offertory was played by the school or chestra and the pupils of the school sang "Stand Up for Jesus." The pas-Rev. Moffat, offered prayer and the assembly sang "Softly and Ten-derly Jesus Is Calling." Responsive reading of the Scripture followed.

After the singing of a hymn, Miss Mabel Spencer recited "I Would Not Live Away" and the primary department gave a selection. W. T. Burall, superintendent of the Sunday school. delivered an address in which he explained the object of the Home Department of Sabbath School Work. It is known as the Twentieth Century Movement and the schools throughout the country contemplate the enrollment of 500,000 morescholars before the year 1900. The attendance was

ST. LEO'S BATTALION.

The members of St. Leo's battalion held a special meeting yesterday afternoon and completed arrangements for their banquet and social to be held in St. David's hall on Wednesday even-The affair is the termination of a ontest for increasing the membership of the society. The participants will be the members and lady friends, officers of the Diocesan union, priests of the parish and prominent workers in the temperance cause.

The various committees have been appointed and the members who will omprise the reception committee are as follows: P. H. Buckley, T. J. Gilroy, James Degnal, Hugh Devers, J. H. Devine, John Mullen, Thomas Tierney, B. J. Hoar, Michael Gerrity and

The battalion will hold a regular meeting this evening and the members holding books for the prize drawing contest are requested to make returns as soon as possible to Secretary James Murphy. The contest will be decided in St. Leo's hall on Oct. 19, when three valuable prizes will be given away. The first prize is a $400 McPhail piano, now on exhibition at Finn & Phillips' store' second prize, a '99 Columbia bicycle, lady's or gentleman's third prize, $20 in gold. The member disposing of the most tickets will be given a suit of colthes

COMBINE EFFECTED

The West Side Republican club held special meeting Saturday evening and decided to accept into membership the members of the Republican league, which was recently disbanded. The negotiations were carried on through a committee composed of W. Gaylord Thomas, W. E. Thayer and Charles Lanning, for the club, and William A. Phillips, Charles E. Daniels and Griffith Davis for the league.

A resolution was unanimously adopted admitting the league members into the club upon the payment of $1 fee, the same to be placed to their credit as dues, the books to remain open for applications of certified members four ceks from date.

The combined organization will make one of the strongest political clubs in Northeastern Pennsylvania, with a membership of several hundred, including some of the most prominent men in West Scranton.

DESECRATING THE SABPATH. For several Sundays during the summer months a crowd of men have been in the habit of carousing in Weber's grove on the back road and despite the entreaties to desist of Connable Joseph Dean, of the Twenty-

Wonderful Handkerchief And Glove Selling.

Dent's Kid Gloves are known the world over. Of these gloves there's no need to say a single word in their favor.

Today we will offer to doz. of Dent's Coronet Kid Gloves, in desirable shades, for ladies' fall wear, at half price. 5 3-4 and 6 only, usual price $1.50 pair,

Special Price 75c.

Fifteen dozen Neptune Gloves for ladies' wear, fancy shades for fall wear. Sizes 5 3-4, 6 and 6 3-4 only. Usual price $1.25 per pair,

Special Price 69c.

Remarkable Handkerchief Values:

They run about half price or less. use entering into details.

> Ladies' Handkerchiefs at 1 cent each. Ladies' Handkerchiefs at 2 for 5 cents.

Ladies' Handkerchiefs at 4 cents each. Ladies' Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs 4 for 25c. Ladies' Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs 10c each.

Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs 3 for 25c. Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs 2 for 25c. Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs 25c each.

Extra Price Limited Handkerchiefs at 25c. Special value in Hemstitched Handkerchiefs at 20 cents and 25 cents each.

Globe Warehouse

first ward, his warnings were only

Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of the grove when intoxicants were sold, dog fights pulled off and several fistic encounters occurred. When Constable Dean tried to stop the affair, he was driven from the woods under penalty of bedily harm. The place is within the city limits and the constable notified Courty De tective Leyshon of the occurrence. Th latter referred him to the mayor. The matter should be investigated and the guilty parties prosecuted.

LITTLE FOLKS ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams, of 153 South Main avenue, gave an afterneon party on Saturday in honor of their son, Jared. The event occurred between the hours of 3 and 6 and during that time the little ones were entertained with music and various amusements. Luncheon was served at 5 o'clock. Those present were; John Benore, Ralph Williams, Russell Richards, John Moffat, William Price, Ebbie Williams, Harry Williams, Archie Williams, Thomas Phillips, Leland Marsh Harry Edwards, Lester Davis, Breck Comegys, Joe Gibbs, Francis Moylan, Philip Cruttenden, Boyd Mason, Har-riet Thomas, Ruth Williams, Elsle Struppler, Annette Howell, Marsh, Gladys Marsh, Edith Lindabury, Judy Wallace, Margaret Com-

egys, Ethel Jones. DAVIS-LLOYD NUPTIALS. A quiet wedding occurred at the esidence of Rev. Thomas De Gruchy. on Jackson street. Saturday evening The contracting parties were Miss Lydia Davis, of Filmore avenue, and Gwilym Lloyd, of 1560 Lafayette street The bride was attended by Miss Rachel Lloyd and Titus Griffiths was grooms-

Both ladies were becomingly attired n traveling costumes. After the cereony a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. loyd will reside on this side.

RESISTED AN OFFICER.

Fred Kotzman, of Price street, cre ated a disturbance in Loftus' hotel on West Lackawanna avenue late Saturday and was arrested by Patrolman Davis. On the way to the station house the prisoner resisted arrest and fought the officer.

Moses in police court vesterday morning Kotzman was fined $5 for his bolsterous conduct.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The board of government of the Catholic Total Abstinence union held meeting in St. Leo's hall yesterday The arrangements for the afternoon. temperance parade were discussed and other business transacted.

A horse belonging to a central city liveryman became frightened at a dog on Jackson street last evening and caused considerable excitement. A runaway occurred last evening on South Main avenue in the Bellevue section which caused much excitement. St. Paul's Pioneer corps met yesterday afternoon in Masonic hall and acted upon several matters pertaining to the Father Mathew day parade. Details for the thirteenth annual banquet on Oct. 17 were also discussed. A cook book tea will be served at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. The second annual boxing tourna ment of the West Side Athletic club will occur in Golden's hall this evening. West Scranton book-keepers and acountants are invited to attend a meetfor the purpose of organization at No. 34 Lackawanna avenue this even-

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. Thomas J. Price and children. f South Garfield avenue, are visiting friends and relatives in New York.

Miss Margaret Griffiths, of Kingston, who has been the guest of Miss Kathryn Phillips, of Academy street, has returned home. Mine Inspector H. O. Prytherch, of South Main avenue, has recovered from Mrs. James Kennedy and daughter, Grace, of Pittston, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. Gallagher, of Jackson street. Mrs. William Simpkins, of Bloomfield, N. J., is the guest of relatives on Lafayette street.

Miss Ella Williams, of North Main avenue, is visiting friends in Mary-

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolfe, of South Hyde Park avenue, are the guests of friends in Syracuse, N. Y. Mrs. O. D. Green, of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Price, of South Main avenue, Mrs. Moses Staples, of Sumner avenue, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. William Dunlap, of Dalton. Miss Elvira Harris, of North Hyde Park avenue, has as her guest Miss Elizabeth Roberts, of Audenreid. Mrs. Henry Moore and daughter, Jessie, of Carson City, Colorado, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. William N. Chase and Miss Elizabeth Jones, of North Bromley avenue, returned Saturday from a visit with friends at Pittston.

Tudor R. Williams, of South Main avenue, left on Saturday to pursue a course of study at Cornell university, Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

A most disgraceful scene occurred on Pittston avenue at Fig street, yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock. Con. and Michael Pallon, of Palm street, brothers, are employed at the South Mill, and re-ceived their monthly wages Saturday. In an intoxicated condition they went into a saloon nearby and engaged in a drunk-en brawl. A spectator who was in the place at the time, made an effort to top the fight, but was used in a foot ball nanner. The proprietor then took a mand in, and the warring brothers besame comrades and viciously assaulted the hotelman who, to protect himself, got a club from behind the bar, and bounded the Fallons until they were bad-y used up. The brothers then went outide and gathered a goodly number of sobbles, with which they broke the large windows of the saloon into fragments. The proprietor and the spectator before nentioned, emerged from the building and attacked the fighting men. Instantly an immense gathering assembled to wit ness the affair. Rev. E. J. Meiley, whose residence is several away, was brought vertised:" Mrs. Adie Briggs. A. J. Coxe. 506 New York street; Mrs. B. L. Duherty. Sport Hill: Mrs. John Political by all who used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the fleest soffee, but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great senefit. Costs about 4 as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

Vertised: Mrs. Adie Briggs. A. J. Coxe. 506 New York street; Mrs. B. L. Duherty. Sport Hill: Mrs. John Political in the special meeting of the school.

[LETTER TO MES. FINERAM NO. 28,465]

"I was a sufferer from female weakness. Every month regularly as the menses came, I suffered dreadful pains in uterus, ovaries were affected and PERIODS OF had leucorrhona. SUFFERING I had my children very fast and it GIVE PLACE left me very weak. TO PERIODS A year ago I was OF JOY taken with flooding and almost died. The doctor even gave me up and wonders how I ever lived.

"I wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's advice" at Lynn, Mass., and took her medicine and began to get well. I took several bottles of the Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and can truly say that I am cured. You would hardly know me, I am feeling and looking so well. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me what I am."-MRs. J. F. STRETCH, 461 MECHANIC ST., CAMDEN, N. J.

How Mrs. Brown Was Helped.

"I must tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than any doctor.

"I was troubled with irregular menstruation. Last summer I began the use of your Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles. I have been regular every month since. I recommend your medicine to all."-MRS. MAGGIE A. BBOWN, WEST Pr. PLEASANT, N. J.

to the scene. Reaching there he commanded the men to stop, but his efforts were not of the slightest avail. In his fatherly manner he attempted to step be-tween the Fallons, who were the only ones to continue fighting, but his cloth did not save him from the drunken brawlers blows. The fight was brought to a close, but Father Melley was used in a shameful manner. There is no little indignation felt in the Twentieth ward over the affair, and arrests, it is stated, Forty Hours' devotion was begun at St. Mary's German Catholic church yea-terday morning at 6 o'clock, with a mass, of which Rev. Peter Christ, pastor, was celebrant. At the mass over 656 men and boys of the congregation received communion. At 10.30 o'clock a solemn high mass was sung. Rev. Adam Christ, of fought the officer.

At the hearing before Alderman Moses in police court yesterday morning Kotzman was fined $5 for his bolsterous conduct.

Mass was sung. Rev. Adam Christ, of Lebanon, was celebrant; Rev. Peter Christ, deacon, and Rev. G. J. Stopper. Sub-deacon. The services last night were attended by such numbers that the large edifice was thronged. Rev. Adam Christ, of Lebanon, preached the sormon. He gave an able lesson on the efficacy of prayer. The visiting priests present at hast night's services were: Rev. Adam Christ, of Lebanon; Rev. Charies Goeck-el, Rev. F. Straub and Rev. J. Disset-kamp, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. William Brehl, of Pittston, and Rev. Father Fricker, of West Scranton, Rev. Father Disselkamp will preach tonight, and Rev. Father Straub tomorrow night.

Louis Knellar, of Pittston avenue, was seriously injured while at work at the car shops of the Lackawanna road. Saturday. A reavy piece of lumber fell on him, injuring him about the body. He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment.

Martin McLaughlin, employed at the "drop" at the South mill, was painfully injured by a flying place of steel, Satur-day. Dr. Walsh was called to attend him. Miss Anna Dailey, of Hickory street, has returned from a visit in Buffalo. Mrs. Patrick Gallagher and daughters, Wilkes-Barre, are guests of Mrs. R. Kane, of Cedar avenue.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The funeral of the late John Martin. the Von Storch shaft last Friday, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The hearse was led to Holy Rosary church by the High Works Cornet band and the Willow Drum corps. Rev. ers were John McNulty, John Gilbride, Michael Loughney, Edward Padden, Philip Brady and Joseph Carroll. The flower-bearers were John McKinsey, John Brady, Patrick Gilboy and Anthony Murphy. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of the late John McGraw took place yesterday afternoon. vices were held at the Holy Rosary church, Rev. J. J. O'Toole officiating. Interment was made in the Cathedral

Alfred John, of Wayne avenue, has returned from a two weeks visit in Lester Meredith, of G. W. Davies' pharmacy, has resigned his position and accepted one with F. J. John, of Green Ridge. The Cumberland band will conduct ball on Oct. 10 in order to purchase ew instruments. Peter F. Regan of the Third district the Third ward, announces himself #### as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic convention. GREEN RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Smith, of Monsey avenue, have returned from a visit to Lake Winola. Joseph Chapman spent yesterday in Honesdale Julius Koch and Sidney Bliss spent Saturday in Factoryville. Richard Robinson won the large atermelon at the guessing contest at I. H. Stevens' store Saturday. Miss Mettle Harvey, of Wyoming avenue, entertained a few of her friends at her home on Friday evening. Eugene Schroeder is seriously ili with typhoid fever.

Miss Mame Charlesworth, of Marion street, is spending a few days in Hones.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Potter, of Monsey avenue, spent Saturday at Scott, where they were called by the death of a relative

Mr. James Licesley, of Wyoming avenue, spent yesterday in Wilkes-Barre. Mrr W. T. MacArthur had an operation performed on her throat Saturday to remove a bone which had become lodged there while eating. The operation proved successful.

Misa Gertie Zurfiuh, of Delaware street, was pleasantly surprised on Friday evening by a number of her Wesley Everhardt, of Gridland, Wayne county, is the guest of Wil-liam Everhardt, of Delaware street. James Stone, of Walton, N. Y., is guest of his brother, William, of Dickson avenue The Green Ridge Odd Fellows will slect officers on Thursday evening.

DUNMORE.

Letters remaining uncalled for, durg the period ending September 23, Persons calling please say "advertised:" Mrs. Adie Briggs. The special meeting of the school board which was brought to an abrupt lose Friday evening by the retiring of Directors Miller and Spencer before all the business was transacted, will be resumed tomorrow evening.

following candidates for the position of teacher of the business course, have seen notified to be present, and meet the board at this meeting: John A. Irwie, John M. Gunster, J. N. Tompkins and Mary F. Kearney of Scranton Daisy L. McCrory, of Wilker-Barre and Thomas McHale of Olyphant, The Epworth League of the Metho dist church has an interesting pro-gramme which it will render at their ext meeting Thursday evening Next Sunday is "Pally Day," at the Presbyterian Sunday school. At the isual hour an elaborate programme will be given in place of the school ex-

The boys are thrashing the chestnut trees which are numerous in this borough and making the surrounding woods merry with their work. Although not ripe yet, they are gathering them in their green state

Henry Bolgar of Buffalo, N. Y., is isiting his brother, Patrolman M. J. Bolgar, of Throop street. Miss Myrtle Burns of Apple savenue visiting friends in Carbondale, Mrs. Albert Comstock of West Drinker street, returned Saturday from isiting friends through the valley. The cadets met yesterday and 'made ecessary arrangements to attend the Father Mathew parade on October 10.

of Mr. and Mrs. George Fritz of Bloom treet Saturday. Mrs. R. M. Roderick and children of herry street returned Saturday from isiting in Honesdale.

A little daughter gladdened the home street is recovering from a recent ill-A meeting of the official board of the Methodist Eniscopal church is called for this evening. The Scranton Stove Works has prented a handsome "Hope Dockash" heater to the Nepture Fire company The same will be chanced off at the fair of the fire boys October 2-14. Council is laying a much needed cross walk at the intersection of Depew and North Blakely streets, A little daughter of John Banks of Elm street is very ill. Mrs. L. L. Atkinson of Hawley has returned after a week's visit with friends in this place.

Miss Margaret Golden of Chestnut

Excavations are nearly completed or a new residence which Benjamin McMillan will creet on Swartz street.

OBITUARY

Alfred J. Reid, aged 34 years, died at his home, 110 North Bromley avenue, Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after suffer ing for a week from an attack of pneu-monia. Deceased was engaged in the monia. Deceased was engaged in the meat business with his brother, W. A. Reid, at illi Jackson street, for a num-ber of years, and was quite well known He was a member of Council No. 497, Ju nior Order United American Mechanics His wife and three children survive him The funeral will occur tomorrow after-aoon at 1 o'clock. Services will be con-ducted at the house, and interment will he made in the Pittston cemetery.

Mrs. J. S. Crawford, of 305 North Hyde Park avenue, died Saturday morning af ter an illness of sixteen months. She was born in Orange county, New York, in 1844, and resided in this city many years. Decemed was a devout member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church and is survived by her husband and the following children: William H., Fred S., Margaret, Jessie, Bertha and Florence Crawford. The funeral will occur tomor-The funeral of the late John Martin. row at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

> Gibson street, Saturday morning, aged : years. He is survived by three daughters and two sons as follows: Mrs. B. V. Voght, of Von Storch avenue; Mrs. James Walsh, of Capouse avenue, and Sarah who resides at home: James, who is with the First United States infantry at Pinar Del Rio, Cuba, and Thomas, this city.

> John Kelley, aged 26 years, died at his home late Friday night, after an illness of a month. His wife, mother and a brother survive him. The funeral will be neld this morning at 10 o'clock from hi late home, 1614 Pittston avenue, with se vices at St. John's church. Intermet will be made at the Cathedral cemetery.

One on the Counsel.

Though Senator Reverldge, in pursu ance of his policy of silence, did not tell this story, the facts occurred as related while the senator was at Nagasaki, Japan The United States consul at that beautiful Japanese city is Mr. Barris, formerly of Wabash, Ind., and like all true Hoo-ders, extremely proud of the youth and good looks of Mr. Beveridge.

It happened that while the senator was calling on Mr. Harris, the transport which was taking the officers and men of the Tenth Pennsylvania from Manila to San Francisco, landed at Nagasaki Several of the officers went on shore and started to pay their respects to Consul Harris, whose consulate is at the top of flight of high marble steps, relates the Chicago Tribune. As the officers went up Senator Beveridge came down, though ecciving them warmly Consul Harris

"Did you see that young man who pass-i you on the stairs? He is a wonderful In fact, he is a United States sens for from Indiana and the youngest mar the ever was sent to the senate."
The Pennsylvanians at once took up the adgets on behalf of Senator Penrose was only 37 years old when he was lected to the senate. "Why, there's Penrose," said one of the officers. "He was born in 1860 and he has been in the senate for at least two years. "Oh!" cried Harris, "you are certainly mistaken. I know that Boics Penrose has son who is more than 40 years old, for 1 have met him. He was here only last week, and he had an autograph letter from his father, written on United States senate paper, and introducing him to all the displomatic representatives of the nited States abroad."

"How much money did you loan him?

asked one of the officers.
"Well," sald Harris, "I did let him have $25. Are you sure that Senator Penrose

They are holding this story against Con

The Leading and Largest Millinery Store

413 Lackawanna Avenue

Fall Opening

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday September 27, 28, 29

Imported Trimmed Hats

Picture Hats

From our Paris and New York Stores.

sul Harris down on the banks of the Wabash, for they say a man who lets money get away from him so easily should not

It Was the Wrong Hat.

try to play politics in Indiana,

When James Voorhees, prominent in Washington as the actor, author, sculp-ter, statesman, son of the late senator from Indiana, was private secretary to Governor "Blue Jeans" Williams, of La Governor "Biue Jeans" Williams, of lindiana, Gereral Manson once came into the governor's office. General Manson was auditor of the state. He died not long ago in Terre Haute. He was short, but corpulent, baid of head, but long of beard, which latter was white and reached to the middle of his waistcoat. The governor was nearly seven feet tail, as lank as Lincoln, with long, bony s lank as Lincoln, with long, bony hands, odd-sized feet and large ears. He was always clad in blue jeans, grown, spun, woven, dyed and made on his own farm near Vincennes. His chief fame was his economy and the fact that he had defeated General Harrison for the of-fice. The general was a typical Western man of the world, an ex-congressman and he knew life. The governor was a farmer by profession and congressman and governor by accident The day that the general visited the overnor's office he asked a politica favor for a friend. The governor hes the general picked up a hat, pulled it down over his cars and stumped out of the room in rage. When he reached his own office he said: I tell you, boys, the old man says That's what comes of electing man governor who wears a No. 5 hat and No. 9 shoes. Bah!" At this moment young Mr. Voorhee at this moment young Mr. Voornees came in, suave, soft-spoken and smooth, "General Manson," he said, "the gov-ernor desires me to present his compil-ments to you, and he begs me to say that he is always glad to welcome you to his office. You may have your choice of chairs, and put your feet on any desk ou please, but he draws the line on you cearing off his new hat. "What!" exclaimed the general, as he dipped off the soft hat which fitted him so loosely.

It was even so. Open the Door. Open the door, let in the air; The winds are sweet and the flowers are

Joy is abroad in the world today;

If our door is wide open it may come thi way-Open the door. open the door, let in the sun;

He hath a smile for every one He hath made of the raindrops gold and He may change our tears to diadems-

Open the door of the soul, let in Strong, pure thoughts which will banish They will grow and bloom with a grace And their fruit shall be sweeter than that of the vine. Open the door.

pen the door of the heart, let in Sympathy sweet for stranger and kin: It will make the halls of the heart so fair That angels may enter unaware-

CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought

Is all it costs to make your wants known through the columns of THE TRIBUNE: and there is no better advertising medium printed in Scranton.

SITUATIONS WANTED ARE INSERTED FREE.

AMUSEMENTS.

LYCEUM THEATRE BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessers, H. R. LONG, Manager, Monday and Tuesday Nights. September 25 and 26.

A Carload of Special Scenery and Mechani-cal Effects, Direct from Record-Broak-ing Engagemen's in New York and Philadelphia.

THE QUEEN OF CHINATOWN

See The Fatal Plunge and Thrilling Cli-maxes. Sparkling Comedy and Novel Specialties.

One Night On'y. Thursday, Sept. 28. The Particularly Special Engagement of the QUEEN OF MIRTH, Prices-25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

MAY IRWIN

Sister Mary

Prices-25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, One week, commencing Monday, Sept. 5. MISS KATHERINE ROBER in a respectfoir of up to date productions, opening Monday evening with Sardou's mas-

"Madam Sans Gene"

Daily dime matures commencing Tuess ay. Evening prices, 10, 20, 30c.

September 25-26-27. Tom McIntosh,

A Hot Old Time in Dixie September 28-29-30.

20th Century Comedians To PATENT Good Ideas THE PATENT RECORD,

Hoey & Norton's

For sale in Scranton, Pa., by Matthews Bros. and H. C. Sanderson, druggists.

