DISASTROUS FIRE AT KRESGEVILLE

VILLAGERS FIGHT THE FLAMES WITH DESPERATION.

Large Hotel, Store and Dwelling House Destroyed-The Entire Village Saved from Destruction Only by the Efforts of the Bucket Brigade-Origin of Blaze Unknown.

Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Stroudsburg, Sept. 27 .- The beautiful village of Kresgeville, situated in the western part of the county, about twenty miles from this town, early this morning was visited by a disastrous fire. A large hotel, dwelling house and a general store of Silas H. Beers are in ruins. Details of the conflagration are meagre. The flames were confined to the Roth hotel, the store and dwelling house of Silas H. Beers and the residence of Justice Charles A. Kresge. Later reports received by messenger from Kresgeville is to the effect that the fire had broken cut afresh and the whole village is threatened with destruction. No injuries were reported. How the fire originated is not known, but is is claimed that it was first discovered in the Beers store about 1.30 this morning. Amandus West, a hostler in the hotel, saw the fire and immediately aroused the villagers. The whole town turned out to fight the flames. Women and children assisted in the work of putting out the fire. Some of the furmture in the hotel and Kresge hour was saved. The Beer's store and contents were burned up. The store was stocked with a line of general merchandise and the hotel and residence are also in ruins.

About 4 o'clock, after fighting the fire for three hours the villingers were encouraged in the belief that they had the fire under control. The night had calm and no wind was stirring. Suddenly a wind came up, the fire spread and the fight by the villagers was renewed.

The Reers store is next to the Roth hotel and the Kresge house but a few away, Nearby houses were saved by the prompt action of the villagers in forming a bucket brigade. origin of the fire is mysterious. The Roth hotel is one of the best in the county. It was recently remodeled and refitted at a great cost. William Roth, the proprietor, was playing with the Stroudsburg band at the court house on Tuesday evening during the Creasy meeting and knew nothing of the fire when he left for home early The loss is unknown.

Stroudsburg, Sept. 27 .- Judge Cralg this afternoon discharged the grand jury after thanking them for the manner in which they discharged their dutics. Court adjourned this afternoon all the juries having been discharged except jurors in the Glazier case. This morning the jury in the Biggs-Henning case brought in the verdict of guilty in manner and form as indicted. It was rather a surprise: so much so to the defendant that his counsel Representative R. L. Burnett immediately filed reasons for a new trial giving among his reasons that there was no evidence to sustain the verdict which was also against the charge of the court. Nolle prosecui was entered in the cases of Charles S. Miller, Jerry Miller, Sophia Miller, assault and battery. The indictment against George Ransberry a well known Miondiker and George Y. Keller of East Strouds. burg, for larceny as ballee preferred by well known Isaac F. Erewer, was ignored by the grand jury. Brewer is one of the best known men in the ounty and reently figured in a case in court against his wife. Mrs. Brewer sued for a divorce. Brewer testified on the witness stand that his wife made pantaloons for other men which he seriously objected to. The end of the trial resulted in a divorce for Mrs. Brewer. The last case tried today in which a broken washboard and stone figured conspicuously was that of Mrs. Ella Ruckle against Abraham Glazier. Feloniously and assault and were the charges. The partles buttery. are neighbors on Columbia evenue in this town. Mrs. Ruckle's Interest is watched after by Representative E. I., Burnett and Glazier's by Huffman and Effenberger.

There is not an iota of anything narcotic in it. The relief it gives is permanent. In this it differs from many preparations which give temporary relief only by deadening the sense of feeling with narcotics, and the dangerous stimulants they contain create an appetite for strong drink. When a dealer offers a substitute for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, remember these facts.

When their diseases are deep-seated and of long standing, women will find it to their interest to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Prompt, careful and per-sonal attention is paid to each letter, and to write the fullest advice is always given.
