Religious....

Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce announces a series of practical sermons—talks to workmen and their families, at the Penn Avenue Baptist church, beginning Sunday next, October 1. The topics of these sermons are very suggestive and will doubtless prove attractive to many who are not regular attendants at church services. The topics are as follows: "Religion and Labor, or Safeguards of the Nation," second, "The Workman's Paradise, or Making a Home," third, "The Planning Forge of Life, or Making a Name." We bespeak for the preacher large congregations and for the hearers many helpful words of sound instruction and wisdom, given by one who is kind and friendly to all people.

Harvest festival of the Salvation Army Saturday, September 30, to Tuesday, October 2. Meetings will be conducted as follows: Saturday at 8 p. m., bringing in the sheaves; Sunday Home, Monday at 8 p. m., musical festival and Tuesday at 5 p. m., public auction of goods.
