PRIMARIES THIS AFTERNOON. Democrats of County Will Elect Delegates to Tuesday's Convention.

This afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock, the Democrats of the county will hold primaries to elect delegates to a convention to be held Tuesday, at which candidates for county commissioner and county auditor will be named.

Where the convention will be held has not yet been decided upon. The state firemen's convention will be in session in the main court room of the court house and it is probable the convention will have to be held in Music Hall.

While there are a number of candidates for the nominations, it is up to date a free-for-all fight, or nearly so. Yesterday there was talk of a slate and it seemed to be well grounded. The slate is as follows: County commissioners, John J. Durkin, Scranton; J. W. Sando, Scranton; county auditors, P. W. Costello, Scranton; Victor Bur-schell, Dunmore.

Hard Times Are Gone and prosperity is returning, when you see ranges selling at such prices as we are selling this week. People were never so much disposed to buy as they are just now, and we give them the incentive by selling at prices that gives them no reason to deprive themselves of a Range or Heater because of the price. The early purchaser is the one who gets the choice.

NEW ORDERS OF SISTERS.

Three Are to Be Established Here by Bishop Hoban. Three new sisterhoods of the Catholic church are to be established here as soon as Bishop Hoban can arrange for them. They are the Italian Sisters, the Sisters of the Poor and Sisters of Mercy.

The first named will be located in the new Italian parish on the West Side. They will have their convent on the second floor of old No. 16 school, which has been purchased for the congregation and which is to be used jointly as a church convent and school. The church and school will be on the first floor. These Sisters will come here next month.

Nothing definite has been done as yet in the matter of arranging for the Sisters of the Poor, but it is the bishop's intention to have a branch of this order here as soon as he can make the arrangements.

The Sisters of Mercy are to be installed in the new hospital which it is the intention of the bishop to erect in the near future, as previously announced in The Tribune.

Plans for the boarding school which the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart are to establish on their twenty-acre plot on Seminary Heights, Green Ridge, have been completed and the work of construction is likely to begin within the coming year.

It is proposed to make this institution the head of the order in this diocese. The boarding school which is to be connected therewith will be of the first order of excellence. The present school on Wyoming avenue, which is the property of the Scranton diocese, will be utilized as a parochial school.

WILD MAN AT TAYLOR. Searching Party Chases a Strange Being Attired in Underwear. The borough of Taylor was thrown into a state of excitement last evening by the appearance of a wild man on the streets about 8 o'clock.

A searching party was organized and armed with clubs and carrying lanterns a number of citizens scoured the woods until a late hour. The searchers succeeded in getting near enough to the wild man to hear him growl upon several occasions, but he eluded his pursuers in the end.

VERDICT IN THE LOFTUS CASE. Street Railway Employees Held Responsible for the Accident. The jury empaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of Hon. T. W. Loftus met last night in the court house. The members of it were William G. Daniels, Thomas Jones, Wallace Mosier, Robert J. Gould, David J. Ryan and George Wirth, Jr.

They Waived a Hearing. Little and O'Toole Entered Ball Before Alderman Howe. The warrants in the libel case issued at the instance of Justice of the Peace J. B. Gilboy, of Duryea, against Little and O'Toole, editors of the Scrantonian, were served yesterday and they went before Alderman Howe, of this city, and after waiving a hearing entered bail in the sum of $500 each for their appearance at the next term of quarter sessions court in Luzerne county.

BIG CONVENTION OPENS ON TUESDAY

ARRANGEMENTS BEING RAPIDLY BROUGHT TO A FOCUS.

Eighty-two fire companies, thirty-two with apparatus, forty-six bands and seven drum corps is the list of out-of-town participants in the coming firemen's parade up to date. This is, of course, exclusive of the entire Scranton department who will, it is expected, be allowed to parade.

There is hardly any possibility that the companies will not be permitted to take their apparatus out or parade. Efforts are being made to have a special meeting of each branch of councils before Thursday to pass a resolution authorizing the taking out of the apparatus. In anticipation of the failure of these efforts, a petition is being circulated for the signatures of the foremen of the fire companies and members of council, asking the mayor to authorize Chief Walker to order the apparatus to be paraded. The firemen, themselves, will parade, apparatus or no apparatus.

Allowing twenty-five men to make a total of 1,150 musicians in line. Since the last list of visiting companies was printed in these columns a few days ago, the following have signified their intention of participating in the parade: ADDITIONAL COMPROMISERS.

Jersey Hose company, of Phillipsburg, 20 men, band and apparatus. Humane Fire company, of Norristown, 20 men and band. Independent Fire company, of Shamokin, 50 men and band. Columbia Hose company, of Carbonade, 20 men, band and apparatus. Resolute Fire company, of Ashley, 20 men, band and apparatus. Independent Fire company, of Jenkintown, 20 men.

The task of decorating the city was tardily begun yesterday and the Scranton house, St. Charles hotel and a number of other buildings were draped in patriotic attire. The decorators will be obliged to work day and night from now on to complete their work in time. The exterior of the court house will be done today and on tomorrow the interior of court room No. 1, where the sessions of the convention are to be held, will be trimmed. It is promised that this will be the handsomest interior decoration ever attempted in this city.

There will be deep fan arrangements of flags strung around the top edge of the walls. The decorations will be a series of "velvet" panelling, to be arranged extending completely around the room. There will be a large golden eagle and handsome shield placed over the judges' bench. The work of decorating the arches, two of which are already in the hands of the decorators, will be commenced this morning.

The Hook and Ladder company's building on West Lackawanna avenue will have a very elaborate electrical decoration on its front. There will be about 40 lights employed and they will be arranged in various designs, including a large flag, a shield and several others. The engine houses in the central city are also being handsomely decorated.

THE CITY HALL. Detective John Moir, Assessor Gwilym Jones and Controller's Clerk John Ziowski formed a committee to look after the decorating of city hall. They passed the hat among the officials and employees and secured sufficient to provide for a nice display.

The souvenir badges which the committee have secured will arrive in the city today. There are to be two of these, a delegate's badge and an official souvenir badge. The former is especially elaborate and is made of oxidized silver, with an artistic embossed design.

Guernsey, Guernsey Hall, Washington Avenue. Third prize, an elegant runabout wagon, valued at $75, presented by A. R. Gould & Son. Fourth prize, an Olive bicycle, for either lady or gentlemen's use, valued at $25, offered by M. H. Bingham, Washington Avenue.

Fifth prize, an elegant modern style range, valued at $35, given by Wolf & Wentzel, Adams Avenue. Sixth prize, a fine life sized portrait (crayon) of ex-Chief P. J. Hickey, valued at $10, presented by the antique oak, embellished with bronze figures in relief of the various emblems used by the fireman. The frame is the gift of B. Ross Holloway and the crayon by Oscar Grambo, the well known photographic artist, Lackawanna Avenue.

The official programme and souvenir was issued yesterday from The Tribune job office and certainly reflects very much credit on the enterprise and activity of S. J. Ward and company, the compiler. It contains excellent half-tones of the mayor, city officials, ex-Chief Hickey and the members of the general committee and also pictures of the principal buildings in the city.

THE PROGRAMME IN DETAIL. The programme of the convention is given in detail with a list of the state officers and committees. There is an excellent history of the fire department of this city, going way back to the thirties, when the only supply of water was from the Roaring Brook and wooden-handled pumps.

There is also an exhaustive history of the city itself and her industries. The constitution of the State Firemen's association is given with a view of the work done at each convention since 1880, when the association was organized.

The reception and general committees will open up headquarters on Monday morning in the Sewer building on Penn Avenue. The ladies' committee will occupy the second floor and the general and men's reception committee will be on the ground floor.

While a few of the delegates are expected to arrive tomorrow, the major portion will reach this city on Monday. The state officers will arrive Monday morning and open headquarters at the Hotel Jerny. The delegates as they arrive will register immediately with State Secretary Winder.

NEXT YEAR'S CONVENTION. While a number of cities are making a bid for next year's convention, the only one which, so far as known, will send a large delegation here to make a determined fight is Norristown. Reading and Danville are the other contestants.

The fire chiefs of all the cities in the state, including Chief James E. Baxter, of Philadelphia, and Chief Miles Humphrey, of Pittsburg, will attend the convention, as is their usual custom, for the purpose of exchanging ideas concerning the latest and best methods of fighting fires.

The ladies' reception committee comprises the following members: Chairman, Mrs. Joseph Danner; Mrs. T. D. Campbell; Mrs. J. O'Reilly; Miss Albert Lewis; Mrs. William Tanner; Mrs. Simrell; Mrs. James Shea; Mrs. Bailey; Mrs. Birtley; Miss Margaret Conway; Miss Agnes Gerrity; Miss Fannie Phillips; Miss Lena Rosar; Miss Lizzie Rossar; Miss Minnie Zang; Miss Annie Coleman; Miss J. O'Reilly; Miss Albert McCue; Miss Lizzie Henry; Miss Mary Flynn and Miss Lizzie Phillips.

BRILLIANT CONCERT AT THE LYCEUM

GIVEN BY DR. PARRY AND PARTY ACCOMPANYING HIM.

The First Part of the Programme Was of a Varied Nature and Gave the Members of the Party an Opportunity to Display the Exceptional Quality of Their Voices. The Second Part Consisted of Two Acts of Dr. Parry's Opera "Silvia."

Owing to the extremely disagreeable night the audience at the Dr. Parry concert at the Lyceum last night was far too small to properly show Scranton's appreciation for such a truly great musical event. But if the pit was not packed, the enthusiasm of the intelligent and thoroughly musical listeners atoned for the lack of numbers.

The stage was tastefully arranged, the fire in the low grate giving a rich color background. Mr. and Mrs. William Connel, Miss Jessie Dimmock, William Dimmock, Judge H. M. Edwards and family, Mrs. R. G. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Matthews, Mrs. T. R. Brooks, George J. Brooks and others occupied boxes.

At the piano, the stately Isoline head of Dr. Parry rose as he directed the music at the same time accompanying the singers with beauty of touch and a sympathy of interpretation so rarely known.

The first part of the programme was varied in character, each member of the company having a solo, while a trio and quartette made up a pleasing entertainment. The opening number, a trio, "Sleep Well Sweet Angel," sung by Mrs. Hughes, Messrs. Humphreys and James gave a revelation of the ability of the group of singers who were to delight the audience. The selection was Dr. Parry's composition.

MR. JAMES' SONGS. Mr. Meurig James sang "O'ne Aeo Aieala" with such breadth and flexibility of tone that he received an insistent encore and responded with "O'ne Fono Kiss."

Madame Ashworth Hughes has a remarkably pure and well trained soprano voice. The Mozart rellativa and aria which she sang was a finished piece of work which aroused the most enthusiastic applause. As an encore she sang the ever exquisite "Kilbarney."

Miss Hannah Jones, the contralto of the quartette, perhaps, received the greatest share of the honors. Her register is of unusual scope and her middle tones are particularly charming. In Ruth's rellativa and aria, "Ernestine Not to Leave Thee," by Gounod, she fairly enraptured her audience. There is a singularly bell-like quality of tone and a smoothness in the upper register that are most effective.

As an encore she rendered with great feeling "Daisy and Joan," Mr. Humphrey's beautiful solo, "How Vain is Man," was one of the most enjoyable selections. As an encore he sang "Nintra Givon," with pathos and feeling. His voice is one of rare power and sweetness.

last two acts. The music is lovely indeed and filled with an undefinable charm, which deftly carries out the legendary character. There are several dramatic scenes and the ensemble parts of the opera are especially effective. One could not but wish to see the opera with the appropriate chorus. Mr. James did fine work as Severus, while Miss Jones was a winsome Osmond.

Dr. Parry received an ovation at the close of the concert and the singers had a number of curtain calls during its progress. THE ROBINSON PARTY. Had a Day of Rare Enjoyment in New York Bay. Special to The Scranton Tribune.

New York, Sept. 29.—The Scranton party accompanying Sheriff Robinson figure this out as the red-letter day of their lives in the matter of enjoyment. It was one grand conglomeration of excitement and pleasure.

The naval parade was viewed from the Blackbird, a large, elegantly appointed boat, specially chartered by Senator Stadler for his and Sheriff Robinson's guests. The party numbered 200, and was accompanied by a military band.

The boat left the Forty-eighth street pier, East river, at 9:30 a. m. and was out until 10 p. m. It had an excellent position for viewing the parade and witnessing the fireworks. At Tompkinsville the band serenaded Sir Thomas Lipton on the Erin. H. D.

JUMPED FROM A STREET CAR. Green Ridge Woman Injured Yesterday Afternoon. Mary Cawley, a domestic residing in Green Ridge, jumped from a street car at the corner of Adams avenue and Gibson street yesterday afternoon and sustained a severe shock and a few bodily injuries. The woman fell heavily on the pavement, striking her back.

Miss Cawley was on her way to visit friends on Gibson street, and when the car reached that point she failed to signal the conductor to stop. Assistance was quickly rendered and the woman was removed to the house of her friends on Gibson street, where Dr. W. K. Dolan attended her.

CURRAN FILES HIS REPLY. Thinks the Service Obtained on the Lehigh Valley Was Legal. The reply of John J. Curran to the rule to set aside sheriff's return in the trespass case of Curran against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company was filed yesterday with Prothonotary Copeland by Attorney E. C. Newcomb, who represents the plaintiff.

It is set forth in the answer that service was obtained on the secretary of the company in Philadelphia and that the company owns property in Lackawanna county, the road of the Lehigh Valley company touching the lower end of the county.

The Last Grand Excursion to Niagara Falls. The Lehigh Valley railroad announces the last grand excursion of the season to Niagara Falls at $5.00 rate. Tickets will be sold from Scranton on Oct. 7th, good going on all trains on that date except the Black Diamond Express, limited for return to and including Oct. 9th.

TEACHERS WILL BE PAID. Controller Says He Will Not Hold Up Their Warrants. City Controller Howell's contemplated refusal to countersign school district warrants will not result in the teachers and other employees being compelled to wait for their pay until the case has run the gauntlet of the courts, the controller says. Just how he will effect this he does not say, but he gives assurance that these warrants will escape the hold-up.

Scranton Business College Notes. New students are enrolling every day. Total enrollment for first three weeks 237. The night school is composed of an enthusiastic crowd of men and women, and is well worth a visit. Clarence Schnee, bookkeeper, has accepted a position with the Atlantic Reclaiming company. This makes the 24th position filled since the 19th of last month, and a total of 237. Try the "Joy Maker" cigar, 5c.
