CARRIAGE COLLIDES WITH STREET CAR.

One of the Occupants Slightly Injured-Buggy Was Badly Damaged-Funeral of Philip Morgan-Y. W. C. A. Doings-Social in Hall-Social House Parties-Com-Committees for Father Mathew Ball-Other Shorter Paragraphs and Personal Mention.

A serious accident was narrowly averted at 8:10 o'clock last evening on South Main avenue near Oxford street. Nay Aug-Luzerne car, No. 141, in charge of Conductor Toby Gardner and Motorman H, Brown, was running south, when a spirited horse driven by Edward Conway, of Hill and John Lavelle, street, Dunmore, became frightened Reception comr and backed the carriage across the

Before the motorman could stop the car, a collision occurred. Conway, his wife and child, were in the burgy and the man was thrown out, slightly injuring himself. Conductor Gardner caught the horse just as he was about to run away. The woman and child were not injured, but three wheels of the carriage were broken to pieces.

The timely assistance of the street car men undoubtedly saved the woman and child from injury. Conway was assisted to a nearby house, but he was not badly injured. The vehicle The following of was rendered useless by the collision and was abandoned by the owner, who led the horse away. The street car men were entirely blameless in the matter, as the driver was either inexperienced or lost control of the horse. The place where the accident occurred is just at the end of the as thalt pavement, and there is a slight

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL.

Joseph Oliver, ex-common council man of the Fifteenth ward, and candidate for select council, is making an active canvass for the nomination. His claims for recognition are contained in a little leaflet which he is distributing. They are as follows:

The deceased being a resident of this side all her life, it was no more than fitting that at her last sad rites there would be an immense gathering. At 9 o'clock the remains were closed from view and the procession moved to St. John's Catholic church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. M. J. Fleming, assistant rector of that congregation. The celebrant of the mass also gave the funeral eulogy, in which he paid a glowing and merited tribute to the good life spent by the departed young woman

Father Fleming referred to this exceedingly sad occasion, when four little ones and a father were left without a mother. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made pall-bearers were Frank and Michael Wren, Edward Pentle, William Kelly, Brian Byron and John Kane. "Hager and Her Trouble," will be the subject of Nev. J. B. Sweats as
