THE OCTOBER 10 PARADE.

Formation Decided Upon by Grand Marshal Peter F. McCoy. Peter F. McCoy, who is grand marshal of the annual parade of the societies of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of the diocese of Scranton, which will be held in this city on Oct. 16, has decided upon the following formation and line of march for the parade: The carriages for the board of government, clergy and visitors will form on Mulberry street, west of Wyoming avenue.

The first division will form on Wyoming avenue, right resting on Mulberry street, and will be composed of the societies south of Scranton.

The second division will form on Vine street, right resting on Wyoming avenue, and will be composed of societies north of Scranton.

The line of march will be: Down Wyoming to Spruce, to Franklin, to Lackawanna, to Jefferson, to Olive, to Adams, to Washington, to Washington (Gibson); counter-march to Central Park station, where a picnic will be held by St. Peter's society, of Bellevue.

The parade will move promptly at 10 o'clock and the Knights of Father Mathew, of Archbold, will act as a guard of honor to the board of government.

The grand marshal's headquarters will be at College hall, where aides and division commanders will report immediately upon their arrival in the city. The division will be designated by the colors, red, white and blue.

The first division will be commanded by John L. McGroarty, of Kingston; second, Hon. Thomas Mooney, of Carbondale, and the third by Thomas A. Donohue, of South Scranton.

There was a meeting of the members of St. Peter's society yesterday to arrange for the picnic and Tuesday evening there will be a meeting of the general committee in St. Peter's hall, at which final arrangements will be completed.

RUSHING THE DECORATING

Scranton Rapidly Putting on Her Holiday Attire to Do Honor to the Army of Firemen.

Scranton has begun to put on its holiday attire again in honor of the firemen of the state who will meet in convention here this week. Many buildings are already handsomely decorated and the work of beautifying others is being pushed forward with all possible haste.

Yesterday was an busy one for the decorators. They were not allowed to observe the day of rest. From early morning until far into the night they were busy at their work. The city houses were one of their offerings that received a great deal of attention from the decorators yesterday.

The exterior was festooned with flags and bunting but it is in the main court room, where the sessions of the convention will be held, that the decorator employed his best efforts. The room is gorgeous with artistically blended colors and those who were privileged to get a glimpse of the decorations yesterday were loud in their expressions of approval.

The city hall has been very tastefully decorated and in front of the building two hand engines, relics of other days, have been placed on exhibition. By tonight the arches at the city hall will be illuminated and will be completed and it is expected that they will be illuminated tonight.

The advance guard of the army of firemen arrived in the city yesterday. It consisted of Samuel S. Smith, of Norristown, who is a candidate for state president and Lyndon Thomas, Jr., and Charles F. Smith, also of Norristown. Mr. Thomas is a member of the transportation committee and Mr. Smith is chairman of the exhibit committee. They opened Candidate Smith's headquarters at the Jermyn.

This morning the local general committee will open headquarters at the Snover building on Penn avenue and receive the delegates who will be pouring into the city all day. At 1 o'clock this afternoon the Philadelphia delegation of 100 is expected to arrive in the city. The state officers will all be in the city before evening.

SPECIAL EXCURSION RATES.

Given by Delaware and Hudson on Account of Firemen's Parade.

On account of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's convention and parade to be held in Scranton, Thursday, Oct. 5, 1899, the Delaware and Hudson company will sell excursion tickets, and will run special trains as follows:

Table with columns: From, Time, Fare. Rows include Carbondale, Mayfield, Jersey, Archbold, Winton, Peckville, Olyphant, Dickson, etc.

Special train will leave Scranton for Wilkes-Barre at 6:30 p. m. and for Carbondale at 6:45 p. m.

Everybody should take advantage of this liberal offer of the Delaware and Hudson company and witness the largest and grandest firemen's parade ever held in the state of Pennsylvania.

ANOTHER CASE OF NEGLECT.

Child Dies Without the Services of a Physician. Coroner Roberts made an investigation on Saturday in the case of Klammula Kula's child, who died at Olyphant without medical attendance. It is another case of neglect, through the employment of a midwife.

The testimony of the parents was heard but no action will be taken at present, owing to the case of Mrs. Lena Gable, who was indicted by the grand jury for illegally practicing midwifery.

ONE MAN KILLED AND THREE WOUNDED

RESULT OF AN AFTERNOON BRAWL IN SOUTH SCRANTON.

Party of Italians, While Drinking in the Saloon of Joseph Stempelinger at Dutch Hollow, Quarrelled and Used Knives and Razors on One Another with Desperate Results. Aniello Di Santo Was Killed and Terribly Mutilated—The Murderer Is Unknown—One Arrest Made.

A drunken brawl, that ended in a most atrocious murder, took place yesterday afternoon in the Italian colony on the South Side.

Aniello Di Santo, a man 35 years of age, who has a wife and one child in Italy, was killed, Pasqual Vilallo was seriously injured and his brother, Tony Vilallo and Mrs. Joseph Stempelinger slightly wounded. Tony Vilallo is the only person as yet placed under arrest.

Who killed Di Santo, a question that has not yet been answered. The body was frightfully mutilated. The fight occurred about 5 o'clock in the afternoon on the corner of Meadow avenue in the Nineteenth ward, in a locality known as Dutch Hollow. The murderer of Di Santo lived with a number of companions near the Connell company brickyard at No. 5 mountain.

From what could be learned from Pasqual Vilallo, when seen at his boarding house by a Tribune man last night it appears that he and his brother Tony, Frank and Philip Andro, Joseph Cremand, John Smith and a man they only know as "Tom," and the murdered man, met in the saloon of Stempelinger about 4 o'clock. They all went into a back room and commenced drinking.

THE MEN QUARRELLED. An argument arose between Pasqual Vilallo and Frank Andro, which grew quite heated. With the exception of Tony Vilallo the other members of the crowd were of the same opinion as Andro, and made known that fact. Some one drew a razor and almost instantly every man was whipped out a weapon and was slashing right and left. The men fought their way into the barroom where Di Santo was seen to sink into a chair unconscious.

No attention was paid to him and the angry men fought on out into the street. Pasqual Vilallo was the next to fall, and he was carried aside, while the remainder of the gang made for the woods.

Di Santo after the room was cleared was found by the wife of the proprietor of the saloon, with assistance, was carried upstairs and placed in a summer kitchen where he died twenty minutes later.

He received an ugly gash in the groin which tore the muscles and severed the femoral artery, the latter causing him to bleed to death. One of the men who was with the crowd at the time of the murder, Mr. B. Ballentine, near the Country Club, said that he saw the murderer of Di Santo after the room was cleared.

Di Santo was removed to his boarding house a few blocks away and was attended by Dr. A. A. Webb. He received a slash of a razor which laid his face open from his left eye to the bottom of his neck. A little more effort on the part of the man who cut him would have severed the carotid artery which would have made the list of dead one more.

PLACED UNDER ARREST. Tony Vilallo, his brother, who was later arrested at his boarding house by Lieutenant of Police Zang and Patrolmen Boland and Sartor, received an ugly gash on the right hand, while raising his razor to strike the blade fell and almost severed one finger.

Mrs. Stempelinger, who was doing her utmost to get the men out while the melee was in progress, sustained a rash about two inches long on her left arm. This was done by a man by Tony, who also made a slash at her right hip, and cut her clothing into her body, but did not penetrate the flesh.

Two hours after the murder occurred the police were notified. Patrolmen Boland and Sartor hastened to the scene. As above stated they immediately placed Tony Vilallo under arrest. His brother's condition would not permit of his being removed.

Chief of Police Robling and City Detective Moir arrived shortly after the other officers. They went to Pasqual Vilallo's room and took his statements as above given. He told them that he did not know of any one being killed. It was later learned that there is bad feeling existing between the Vilallo and the other members of the gang, and a fight has been in the air for a long time.

AFTER THE MURDER OF ANDRO and their comrades made for the woods, which are close to the scene of the affair.

MURDERER NOT KNOWN.

Not until the whole gang is rounded up if then, will it be known who struck the blow that resulted in Di Santo's death. Mrs. Stempelinger, and her father, who were in the barroom when the fight started, state they did not see Di Santo, slashed, and believe it was done while the fight was in progress in the back room.

Coroner Roberts was notified and arrived at 10 o'clock. He viewed the body and ordered it removed to the morgue of Undertaker G. A. Miller, where he will perform an autopsy today and embalm a body.

Up to midnight Tony Vilallo was the only man arrested. Chief of Police Robling, City Detective Moir and Patrolmen Boland and Sartor in citizen attire were working on the case all night. It is thought that photos of the missing men can be procured, which will aid in their capture.

The boarding house of the Andro's and confidante on the old "Big road" was steered clear of by them last night.

DR. PARRY'S QUARTETTE.

Sang at the Evening Services in the Elm Park Church.

The large congregation at the Elm Park church last night was given an unexpected treat by the Dr. Parry quartette which sang several hymns exquisitely. There were also solos by Miss Hannah Jones, contralto, and Mrs. Ashworth Hughes, soprano, members of the quartette. As Dr. Parry approached the church to attend the service he was most gratified to hear one of his selections, "Aberystwyth" played on the chimes. It was followed by another of his compositions, "Pennsylvania."

Dr. Griffin preached a very eloquent and edifying sermon on the "Admiral Dewey and General Dues." He referred to some length to Dewey's modesty and strength of character, the two predominant traits of the man who has just now been lionized as no other in the history of the world ever was.

DEMOCRATIC FIGHT IS NARROWING DOWN

RESULTS, HOWEVER, CANNOT BE SAFELY ESTIMATED.

Durkin, Sando, Regan and Mannion for Commissioners, and Costello, Kirchoff and Horan for Auditors Are the Only Ones Mentioned as Possibilities—Slate Framed With Durkin as Its Nucleus, and a Combination of Slate Breakers is in Forming With Regan at Its Head.

The result of tomorrow's Democratic convention will be final news. Forecasting is the veriest kind of guess work. All that was known, last night, was that there would be a slate and an anti-slate combination. Even the slate was not a definite thing when the slate-makers adjourned. John J. Durkin, for commissioner, was about the only factor in its make-up. J. W. Sando was the selection for his running mate but it was a conditional selection and the fulfillment of the condition was somewhat speculative.

P. W. Costello, while not a party to the slate-making was made the first choice for auditor, while Fred Kirchoff, clerk in the county commission-ers' office, was named for his companion. Victor Burschel, of Dunmore, had the place if he wanted it, but owing to a serious illness he decided not to undertake a campaign.

ANOTHER COMBINATION. John E. Regan, ex-common councilman from the Sixth ward, is always first mentioned when the slate-makers are under consideration, and the chances are that, before today is many hours old, he and F. C. Turner, of Carbondale, with Costello and John A. Horan, of Dunmore, will be figured out as a likely combination with which to overthrow the Durkin slate.

The fight proper is between Durkin and Regan. They will divide the city delegation between them and each will go into the convention with a following that will be far stronger than that of any of the other candidates. Each is looking for a strong together, which, for some reason not discussed, is never counted among the probabilities, one of them with the third man showing the biggest following.

The matters of locality and nationality are receiving little consideration, it is quite within the range of possibility that four candidates, all Scrantonians, will make up the ticket.

The primaries were exceedingly tame. In the majority of districts there was no contest and in many of them no polls were opened.

LOOKING FOR MEETING PLACE. It was not known last night for a certainty where the convention would be held, but it is likely Music hall will be the place. It was intended to have it in the court house, but the decorators are at work in the main court room embellishing it for the firemen's convention and no other being large enough, the committee was set to the task of finding another meeting place. The selection will be announced this afternoon.

Chairman Fitzsimmons and Secretary Coyne will be at the St. Charles all day and evening to enroll the delegates, as the party rules require. Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons and John J. Coyne, the present respective chairman and secretary of the county committee, are to be continued through the permanent organization, but there is no assurance that they will be invited to remain in those positions when it comes to making up the new county committee. Should the Regan-Mannion-Horan combination be effected and come out successful, there is every likelihood of Colonel Fitzsimmons being invited to take the chairmanship during the campaign. With the regular slate successful, some one not identified with any faction is to be sought out for the position.

A feature of the resolutions will be a clause pledging the county commissioners to transform a court house square into a park for use as a breathing place for the central city. At least Colonel Fitzsimmons has been asked to present such a resolution and he says he will submit it to the committee on Tuesday.

CARRIERS RETURN THANKS. Local Branch of the N. A. L. C. Expresses Deep Gratitude.

Branch No. 17, of the National Association of Letter Carriers, at its regular meeting yesterday morning adopted the following resolutions: Whereas, The tenth annual convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers held in this city under the auspices of this branch was such an unqualified success, and Whereas, The great aid rendered us by all classes of citizens, in caring for and entertaining our guests calls for an expression of our appreciation of the same, therefore, be it Resolved, By Branch 17, National Association of Letter Carriers, in regular meeting assembled, that we extend to the citizens who so generously contributed to our fund, a sincere vote of thanks for their liberality, thereby making it possible for us to entertain our guests in the manner in which we did, and be it further Resolved, That we earnestly thank the ladies' auxiliary, the press of our city, the city officials, the trustees of the armory, and owners of the several buildings where lunch was served, our postmaster and the different individuals too numerous to mention, who aided us in every way to make the event a pleasure to our visitors, and an honor to the branch and our city. We assure them all that we have a warm place in our hearts for each and every one, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and that they be published in all the daily papers of our city.

(Signed) W. D. Morgan, John R. Thomas, Victor H. Lauer, committee. John H. Phillips, President. E. D. Jones, Secretary.

BISHOP TALBOT HERE.

Is Making an Informal Visit to the Scranton Parish—Assisted at the Opening of Christ Church.

Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, Episcopal bishop of this diocese is in the city on an informal visit. He will be in the city on Saturday evening and will remain until Wednesday, and is the guest of Rev. Rogers Israel, at St. Luke's rectory.

Yesterday morning he celebrated Holy Communion and preached at St. Luke's church. He will be in the city on Saturday evening and will remain until Wednesday, and is the guest of Rev. Rogers Israel, at St. Luke's rectory.

He will go to Carbondale this afternoon to officiate at the laying of the corner stone at Trinity church, and will spend Tuesday in Nicholson with Rev. M. B. Nash, looking over the mission territory.

At both the morning service in St. Luke's and the evening exercises at the new church, Bishop Talbot took occasion to make a statement regarding the establishment of Rev. Mr. Ballentine's church.

An impression had gained some ground, the bishop said, that Mr. Ballentine was not in harmony with the authority of the church. This, the bishop said, was erroneous. Mr. Ballentine of the new church, Mr. Talbot said, with the free permission of the bishop and with the sanction of the local Episcopal clergy and the vestry of his former charge, the church of the Good Shepherd.

Conditions were imposed by the bishop in granting permission. One was that the new church should be established in what was or would be a distinctive parish. The other was that Mr. Ballentine should exercise exceptional care to avoid anything that might excite or discredit relations with the church of the Good Shepherd. The first condition has been fulfilled to the satisfaction of the bishop; the second, the bishop is assured will be equally well observed.

The new church opened under most pleasant auspices. There was a large congregation an excellent programme of music and most happy addresses from Rev. Mr. Ford, Rev. Mr. Simpson, Rev. Loomis, Mayor Moir, Rev. Mr. Ballentine was the recipient of general congratulations and well wishes.

NEW INSURANCE COMPANY.

Pennsylvania Casualty Company of This City Patented a Charter.

Governor Stone has granted a charter to the Pennsylvania Casualty company of this city. The officers of the new company are: W. W. Watson, president; John L. Kemmerer, first vice-president; T. R. Brooks, second vice-president; E. P. Kingsbury, treasurer; and P. H. Kingsbury, secretary.

The company, which absorbs the American Mutual Indemnity company, of this city, has a capital stock of $100,000, and a surplus of $50,000. In a few days it will open a suite of rooms at the Connell building and proceed to transact a general casualty business.

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

Occurred on Saturday Afternoon in the Black Residence.

A servant in the household of R. T. Black, corner of Franklin avenue and Spruce street, discovered the first floor of the house to be filled with smoke, Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock. She gave the alarm, and the investigation resulted in finding Mr. Black's favorite arm chair in his library ablaze.

The chair was quickly removed and the flames subdued. The loss will reach about $100, Mr. Black stated. The origin of the fire, it is stated, there being but one fire, that in the kitchen stove, on that floor.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES.

Rev. E. G. Heal preached at the morning service at the St. Martin Methodist Episcopal church yesterday.

The topic of the evening sermon of Rev. Dr. Robinson at the Second Presbyterian church was "Victory Through Surrender."

Rev. John P. Moffat, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, filled the pulpit at both services at his church yesterday.

Rev. H. A. Grant preached on "The Condescension" and "Benovolence of Christ" at the morning service at the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church yesterday.

Services at the Grace Reformed Episcopal church yesterday were largely attended. The morning service, at which Rev. H. A. Grant, preached in the morning, selecting as his theme "Excluded from Eden."

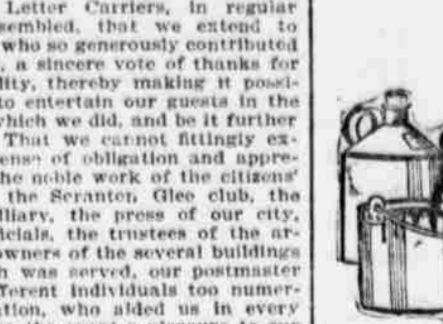

Rev. Luther Hess Waring, pastor of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, on Madison avenue, preached on "The Last Old Testament Prophet" at the morning service yesterday. In the evening he gave an interesting sermon, his subject being "Lessons from the Life of a Queen of the Olden."

Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., pastor of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church, at West Scranton, preached at both the morning and evening services at his church yesterday. "Enriched by the Lord" was the subject of his morning sermon. "What Doth the Lord Thy God Require of Thee?" was the topic of Rev. Mr. Ramer's evening discourse.
