END OF FAMOUS JENNINGS CASE

THE MATTER IS FINALLY SET-TLED OUT OF COURT.

Upon Presentation of a Paper Signed by the Litigants in the Case at Sessions of Monroe County Court the Jury Is Instructed to Render a notice to the public. Verdict in Favor of the Lehigh Monroe County Court News.

Special to the Scranton Tribune

Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 2,-The sensational Jeanings callroad case, a claim against the Lehigh Valley for injuries in the Mud Run disaster, had a perahav erding today in the Monroe coun-When Judge Craig op med court this afternoon, Everett Warren, a well known Scranton lawyer, asked that a jury be summoned for the case of John G. Jennings vs. the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, who after being sworn was asked to reader a verifict in favor of the company, sa Lawye. Warren presented a signed pr per from the parties in the litigation. A jury was called and after being sworn was informed of the facts by Judge Craig and rendered a verdict as desired.

The Jennings case has had a somewhat sensational history in the Lackawanna court at Scranton, from which it was sent down for trial here. John G. Jennings shortly after the Mud Run disaster sued the Lehigh Valley for a large sum for the loss of services of his son, who was injured. The case was tried four times in Lackawanna, thrice the jury disagreed, a fourth time the verdict was for the plaintiff, giving one dollar damages. It was at this time that Cornelius Smith, counsel for Jennings, accused the court and others of conspiracy, causing a sensation. As an outcome the case was certified down to Monroe county for trial. The canditions on which a settlement was effected are not given out. The opinion here is that Jennings received something substantial in the settle-
