BATTLE WITH AN EAGLE.

Exciting Experience of Edward Nixon, of Cascade Valley. Special to The Scranton Tribune

Susquehanna, Oct. 6.-Last Wednesday, while Farmer Edward Nixon, of Cascade Valley, was digging ginsen on the mountain he found an old nest of gray eagle, seeluded in a fallen tree under the cliff of a mountain. While examining the nest suddenly he heard a noise, and, before he could ascertain what it was, the old eagle had struck him in the face with bill and claws, and taking a circuit through the air. alighted on a tree 20 Oyards distant but in plain view of the nest. Again the bird made an attack upon Nixon, aiming at his head, but he avoided her, and she struck him on the arm, making a slight wound. She returned to her post of observation, but as soonasheat tempted to touch the nest. She made a third attack, when Nixon struck her with a stick and brought her to the ground, where, after a severe struggle he succeeded in killing her. She measured seven feet two inches from tip to tip of her wings. The male bird was not seen.

New York, Oct. 6.-With the exception of some profit taking sales in the last hour of today's market the movement of prices was upward almost without interruption. The demand was not large at any time, but the supply of stocks proved small even at the higher prices xcept in a few cases, notably Southern Pacific which met large offerings at 38, the last break was made by Brookiyn Transit which was pressed down under a flood of offerings to 87, an extreme de-cline of 3%. The profit taking which followed this weakness was most con-spleadous in sugar and tobacco which lost hearly two points each of the extreme ad-. The initial impulse to the rise from London where the easier money conditions and a hope that a beareful settlement of the Transvaal dif-diculty is still possible, induced large covering by the bears in all departments. London bought stocks here to the extent of upwards of 15,000 shares and showed a special desire for Louisville, which led the active railroad list with a net advalue of 1% after an extreme rise of 2 points. The maximum rate for call money was eight per cent today against 12 per cent, yesterday and 20 per cent, the day The rate fell to 4 per cent, in the late dealings. This progressive decline in the money rate was an important element in the strength of stocks and has awakened expectations of a good bank state-ment tomorrow. Total sales 411,300.
