ORGANIZATION OF FREIGHT DEPARTMENT OF D. L. & W.

Those Who Are in Charge of the Different Divisions—D. L. & W. to Erect New Buildings at Hoboken and Straighten the Track—Local Yard Crowded with Freight—John M. Carey Promoted to a Responsible Position—Unparalleled Demand for Iron and Steel.

The following circular has been issued from the freight department of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company:

The general work of the freight department for the entire line will be conducted from the general freight office at 26 Exchange place, New York.

Applications for freight rates, percentages, and all information of a general character, should be made to the general freight agent at the above address.

The appointments and reassignments are as follows: W. A. Fleming, general eastern freight agent, 429 Broadway, New York.

His territory will comprise New York city, Brooklyn, and all points north and east thereof, including New England.

His jurisdiction will also include all through west-bound business originating east of Scranton, Pa. All soliciting agents within his territory will report to Mr. Fleming.

C. A. Rapallo, division freight agent, headquarters at Hoboken, N. J. His territory will comprise the lines of this company and of connecting roads east of, but not including Scranton. He will report to the general eastern freight agent on west-bound through business.

C. W. Ten Broeck, division freight agent, headquarters at Scranton, Pa. His territory will comprise the main line, Scranton to Binghamton, inclusive, Lackawanna and Binghamton, Utica, Oswego and Syracuse, Lackawanna and Montrose, and Syracuse, Binghamton and New York divisions, and connecting lines tributary thereto.

W. E. Dowle, division freight agent, headquarters at 141 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y. His territory will comprise the Buffalo division, Buffalo and Black Rock, N. Y., to Leathersville, N. Y., inclusive.

L. E. Snively, traveling freight agent, headquarters at northwest corner of Third and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, Pa. His territory will comprise the following: The states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, south of and including points on a line drawn from Red Bank, N. J., through Trenton, N. J., Bethlehem, Allentown, Slatington and Reading, Pa., to Harrisburg, Pa.; also the District of Columbia and states of Maryland and Delaware.

George Bazzard, traveling freight agent, headquarters at Hamilton, Ontario. His territory will comprise the Grand Trunk, Wabash, Michigan Central and Canadian Pacific roads west of Toronto, Ontario, to and including Detroit, Mich. He will report to the division freight agent at Buffalo, N. Y.

E. S. Auchincloss, general agent, freight department, with headquarters at 26 Exchange place, New York. He will report to, and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by, the general freight agent.

The position of assistant general freight agent is abolished. D. J. Flynn, General Freight Agent. B. D. Caldwell, Traffic Manager.

Increased Freight Traffic. Freight traffic on the Lackawanna has attained such dimensions that the company's haulage facilities are fairly overtaxed.

Repairs at Hyde Park Shaft. The repairs at the Hyde Park shaft, which are about completed, will permit the resumption of work there this week.

John M. Carey Promoted. John M. Carey, of 361 North Quebeca avenue, who for thirteen years has been an operator in the main office of the Lackawanna, has been promoted to the position of night train master of the main line.

Activity is Unparalleled. Edgar C. Felton, president of the Pennsylvania Steel Company says the activity in the iron and steel trade is unparalleled.

CONVENTION OF FATHER MATHEW MEN

THEY MET IN ST. THOMAS COLLEGE HALL. One of the Features of the Gathering Was an Address by Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick on the Life of Father Mathew—Convention Decided to Levy an Assessment of $5 on Each Society, the Fund to Be Used in Missionary Work.

The twenty-third quarterly convention of the Second district, of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the diocese of Scranton, was held yesterday afternoon in St. Thomas' hall under the auspices of St. Peter's society.

The second district comprises the following societies all of which were represented yesterday there being about seventy-five delegates present: Father Mathew and Father Mathew cadets of Pine Brook, St. Paul's Pioneer corps, of West Scranton; St. Paul's and St. Paul's cadets of Green Ridge; St. Aloysius cadets, St. Leo's battalion, St. Patrick's St. Peter's and St. Peter's cadets, Father White's, St. Veronica's and St. Cecilia's.

President Timothy Burke presided at the opening of the meeting but was obliged to leave and former president J. C. Gallagher was elected chairman of the meeting.

The resignation of Catherine J. Maher as organizer of ladies and junior societies was read but no action was taken. The office of treasurer was declared vacant. James Riley, who formerly held that position having moved from the city.

SOME SUGGESTIONS. The principal matters brought up for the consideration of the convention were in the shape of recommendations by the board of governors. One was that each society be levied upon to contribute a certain fixed sum to the district treasury for the purpose of furthering the cause of temperance during the coming winter.

Both questions provoked a deal of discussion, particularly the first. A number of members objected and stated that the societies represented by them gave them no authority to vote on any such question.

A motion was then made to run the excursion to Philadelphia and immediately objections arose on all sides. A motion to table the original motion was lost and after much discussion the latter was finally carried.

The place for holding the next convention in January, 1900, was left to the board of governors and the convention then adjourned.

A short time after the session had begun the Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick was introduced and delivered an excellent and interesting address on the life of Father Mathew, the great apostle of temperance and the lessons to be drawn from his life.

FATHER MATHEW EULOGIZED. "I deem it an especial privilege to be allowed to co-operate with you this afternoon in this great cause and to speak a few words regarding the life of Father Mathew.

PLEA FOR UNITED ACTIVITY. "If only our temperance organizations were united what work could be done for the cause of temperance. Every Catholic should be a member of a temperance organization and then with that organization as one man without any factions, marvellous work could be accomplished."

"The Least Hair Casts a Shadow." A single drop of poison blood will, unless checked in time, make the whole impure.

"This and That." It is reported that the Jersey Central office will be removed from Mauch Chunk, New York.
