

Tuning and Repairing

Of Pianos and Organs and all kinds of musical instruments.

All Work Guaranteed. Knabe, Vose, Ludwig, Briggs Pianos. Pianos from $175 up to $900. Easy terms.

Perry Brothers

205 Wyoming Ave. SCRANTON

Ice Cream. BEST IN TOWN. 25c Per Quart.

LACKAWANNA DAIRY CO. Telephone Orders Promptly Delivered. 27-37 Adams Avenue.

DR. A. A. LINDABURY. Specialties—Surgery, Diseases of Women. Office Hours—11 to 12 a. m. 2 to 4 p. m. 7 to 8 p. m.

Scranton Transfer Co., HUGH J. KEENE, Manager. Checks Baggage direct from residence to any part of the United States.

HUNTINGTON'S BAKERY. CREAM, ICES AND FROZEN FRUITS. 120 Spruce Street. Masonic Temple.

DR. PARKE. Who has been in Europe making a special study of the diseases of women, has reopened his office at No. 308 Washington avenue.

C. S. SNYDER, The Only Dentist. In the City Who is a Graduate in Medicine. 420-422 SPRUCE STREET.

DR. H. B. WARE, SPECIALIST. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. Office Hours—9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 2 to 4. Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice.

UNION LABEL

CITY NOTES

M. L. MISSION.—In the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church last afternoon at 8:30 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the M. L. Auxiliary.

INQUEST THIS EVENING.—The second session of the inquest into the death of James Barry and Patrick Mullen will be held this evening in the court house.

POLITICAL MEETING.—Chairman Joseph Barrett has called a meeting of the voters for this evening, at the Keystone club rooms, 119 Raymond court.

HIS HORSE STOLEN.—The horse of R. W. Conroy was stolen from the rear of Grady and Howie's blacksmith shop on Spruce street on Saturday evening and has not yet been recovered.

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.—The girls' industrial school, which is conducted every year under the auspices of the Women's Guild of St. Luke's parish, on Saturday, for the coming winter.

WEEK'S EXCHANGES.—The exchanges at the Scranton Clearing House during the week were as follows: Monday, $209,391.95; Tuesday, $222,901.00; Wednesday, $122,141.25; Thursday, $262,025.00; Friday, $122,265.26; Saturday, $119,559.14. Total, $1,087,693.53.

WILL OPEN A YARD.—The union stone cutters who have been out on strike since August, will open a stone yard in the near future in Pine Brook, as they have been unable to obtain their demands. They report having obtained several contracts already.

NICHOLSON MAN ARRESTED.—Albert Wolcott, of Nicholson, was arrested on Saturday evening in this city on a charge of the larceny of a gold watch and chain and other jewelry, preferred by a Mrs. Margaret Shaw, of Hazleton. He will be taken to the latter place today.

O'MALLEY INQUEST.—The inquest into the death of Edward O'Malley, who was killed by electricity last Thursday, will be conducted on Wednesday evening in the court house. Coroner Roberts has empaneled the following jury in the case: James W. Reese, David Owens, W. M. Bell, J. S. Clark, David Ouits and J. F. McDonough.

New Barber Shop.—Dominick Gibbons has opened a barber shop in the Traders bank building on the Wyoming avenue side, where he will be pleased to continue work for his many customers whom he has had since a journeyman. Everything in and about the shop is new and only the best help is employed.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM DEFEATED.

Binghamton Proved Too Much for the Local Pig Skin Pushers. The old gold and blue of the Scranton high school met its first reverse Saturday afternoon at the hands of eleven sturdy young athletes from Binghamton. The score was 5-0.

The game started at 3:45 o'clock, Tropp kicking off for Scranton. Binghamton's quarter back, gunning the ball back for about fifteen yards. The fortune of the game swayed from side to side during the first half, first one team and then the other getting possession of the ball. No scoring, however, was done by either side.

The second half opened terribly for Scranton, as after the kick off, repeated punts were made through a line of the boys from the Parlor City, by Weisenfuh, Schultz and Horan. These advantages were followed by a long gain of twenty yards made by the captain and right half back, Clarence DeBow.

Scranton's hopes were doomed to disappointment, however, as Binghamton now took the ball and by steady line-plunging and clever end plays carried the ball down the field, and an Ames crossed the line for a touchdown, the last hope of the high school rooters disappeared.

Binghamton missed the goal and a few minutes after the scoring of the touchdown time was called. All things considered both teams played a fine game, and although the result was galling to the members of the high school, it only proved the advisability of hard practice and study of the game. If they wish to be successful against the School of Lackawanna next Saturday.

There were several bright individual plays, Rogers and Delaney excelling for the victors, while Horan and DeBow played their usual steady game for the high school. The line up follows: Positions. Binghamton. Vaughan.....right end.....Van Ostrand. Schultz.....right tackle.....Rogers. Horan.....right guard.....Maxon. Stone.....center.....Chisman. P. H. Timpey.....left guard.....Stote. Weisenfuh.....left tackle.....Walters. McHugh.....left end.....Franklin (Capt.). Tropp.....quarter back.....Reeder. DeBow.....right half back.....Ames. Williams.....left half back.....Rogers. Harrington.....full back.....Delaney.

The officials were: Referee—Tritt, of Binghamton. Umpire—Young, of Scranton. Timekeeper—Rose, of Scranton, and Dr. Sears, of Binghamton. Lineman—Morse, of Scranton, and Lake, of Binghamton.

W. J. TORREY WON THE CUP. He Had the Best Score in Saturday's Golf Tournament. The highest score of Saturday's golf tournament, at the Country club links, was made by W. J. Torrey, who as a result received the prize of victory, a silver cup presented by E. L. Fuller. It was an ideal day for the sport, and the contest was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The score was as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Holes, Hcp., Net. W. J. Torrey 83 7 76. T. H. Watkins 82 7 75. E. H. Brooks 81 6 81. T. R. Brooks 80 7 81. E. P. Fuller 82 6 82. H. W. Taylor 112 30 82. W. S. Fuller 106 22 84. H. J. Anderson 106 21 87. J. H. Torrey 108 20 88. W. H. Kirkpatrick 104 20 88. W. S. Fuller 106 22 84. Miss A. Archibald 118 25 92. L. B. Fuller 109 19 99. Miss Sprague 139 38 101. Miss Welles 128 27 101. G. H. Hunt 118 16 102. Miss E. Archibald 123 19 104. Miss Jessup 137 28 109. Mrs. A. H. Storrs 156 49 116.

FOR THE AMBULANCE FUND. Public Reception and Tea Are to Be Held. The arrangements for the public reception and tea to be held at the club house of the Electric City Wheelmen Tuesday afternoon for the benefit of the ambulance fund of the West Side hospital are nearing completion. The committee having the honor and charge in sanguine of raising a sufficient sum to purchase the much needed ambulance. The reception will be held during the hours of 3 and 7, during which time Bauer's orchestra will furnish music. An admission of 25 cents will be charged for the reception which will include refreshments.

GENERAL GORDON'S LECTURE. He Will Speak on "The Last Days of the Confederacy." The first entertainment of the course for the benefit of the summer home for poor women and children, will be given in the beautiful auditorium of St. Luke's parish house on Thursday evening, when General John B. Gordon will deliver his celebrated and intensely interesting lecture on "The Last Days of the Confederacy." The chart will be open for holders of course tickets only, at Powell's music store on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

FOURTH SERMON OF THE SERIES

REV. J. B. SWEET SPOKE LAST NIGHT ON RACHAEL.

Lessons to Be Drawn from Her Life. What Joseph was and What He Became Was Largely Due to the Influence and Care of His Mother Who Well Favored in Young Womanhood Was Crowned and Glorified with the Halo of Good Motherhood.

The fourth sermon in the series on the Women of the Old Testament was delivered by Rev. J. B. Sweet in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening. His subject was "Rachael," and the text was taken from Genesis, xxix:17, "Rachael was beautiful and well favored." He spoke, in part, as follows:

There is a proverb to the effect that "beauty is only skin deep." I can conceive of its being both true and false—false if within exterior life noble and gracious, to supplement the beauty of face and form; true if there is neither nobility or gentleness to make life radiant with good. Is it not also possible that beauty of face and form may accompany a life that is but an indifferent thing, viewed from any standpoint, neither of the exterior nor of the just lives, or exists in a photographic old state, pretty, amusing, and—that is all there is of it.

"Rachael was beautiful and well favored." What was her life? What was her beauty? Between the life of Hagar and that of Rachel there is a period of nearly one hundred and forty years. It has been a history-making time. Abraham had died at the age of one hundred and seventy-five years and had been buried by the side of Sarah in the cave of Machpelah. God's blessing was visited then upon Isaac (Gen. xxvii), who with his wife Rebekah, was dwelling by the well Lahai-rod. I need not go back to speak in detail of the beautiful story of Rebekah and Isaac, so well known to all, who under in Mesopotamia, in the City of Nahor, she was brought up and there found by Abraham's messenger, and readily consented to a marriage with Isaac, her cousin, or the prominent part taken by Laban, her brother, in the marriage contract, and how this Laban was to come upon the scene in her life.

THE TWIN BROTHERS. Twin boys were born to them and their names were Esau and Jacob, and now listen: Isaac loved Esau because he did eat of his venison; but Rebekah loved Jacob, and she changed the course of history as Rebekah showed her love for her favorite son, Isaac, believing that he is near his death, had summoned Esau to go forth to the chase. Jacob, for his father, takes all the responsibility upon herself, and sends in Jacob for the blessing, and Isaac, deceived, blesses Jacob. "God give thee of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine; let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee; be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee; and let thy curse be upon those that curse thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee." Rebekah has succeeded, but Esau is justly angry, and he and Jacob are parted, the earth, and plenty of corn and wine; let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee; be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee; and let thy curse be upon those that curse thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

Rebekah has succeeded, but Esau is justly angry, and he and Jacob are parted, the earth, and plenty of corn and wine; let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee; be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee; and let thy curse be upon those that curse thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT. Whether it was an eastern method and manner of asking for more you must decide, but it was certainly a case of love at first sight, a love lasting, tender and deep. Laban receives Jacob into his home and here for a month he tarries as an honored guest. Now Laban had two daughters, the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel, and Leah was tender-eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favored. Laban said to Jacob, "Stay with me, for my wife will pay you wages; what shall your wage be?" "I will work for you seven years for Rachel, give her to me to be my wife and I shall be satisfied, for I love her." So shall it be, seven years and then Rachel. Please to notice: First, the labor of and for love is light, for love lightens the labor. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her. I have no hesitancy in saying that to Jacob at least, there were in the one he loved qualities of mind and heart far superior to any possessed by her sister or any one of his acquaintance; to him love was assertive.

REBECAH'S BLESSING. A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

REBECAH'S BLESSING. A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

Ager's Cherry Pectoral. The best remedy 60 years ago for coughs and colds and all kindred ailments; and The best remedy To-day.

From Mrs. Sutor to Mrs. Pinkham.

(LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 7544) "One year ago last June three doctors gave me up to die, and as I had at different times used your Vegetable Compound with good results, I had too much faith in it to die until I had tried it again. I was apparently an invalid, was confined to my bed for ten weeks. (I believe my trouble was ulceration of womb)."

"After taking four bottles of the Compound and using some of the Liver Pills and Sanative Wash, at the end of two months I had greatly improved and weighed 155 pounds, when I never before weighed over 138. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I ever used, and I recommend it to all my friends."—MRS. ANNA EVA GUSTER, HIGGINSVILLE, MO.

Mrs. Barnhart Enjoys Life Once More. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhoea, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

because not alone was their beauty of face and form, but all the graces going to make a perfect and useful woman; for seven years would have opened his eyes to defects of character; seven years of steady association would be sufficient to reveal the ungenial and the unhelpful.

WILL BE DECEIVED. Secondly, He who deceives will be himself deceived. Jacob deceived his father and robbed Esau of the precious and the craved blessing, and now Leah deceives Jacob and for a time robbed him of that which was as precious to him as the blessing of Isaac.

Jacob showed deception and reaped a harvest of deception. He told for love of Rachel and Leah was the one given him to open the flood-gate of memory and reveal how he had acted treacherously to his father, whose name he bore. We for us we would count it a joy to labor for fourteen years as Jacob labored for Rachel if in the possession we could say, "This is the Lily of the Valley; the fairest of ten thousand to my soul." "My Lord and My God."

Thirdly, Observe that though our sins are forgiven, we never attain to the horizon of our opportunities and privileges and always accomplish good. Rachel is not a very marked character, but after all, working out in her life the history which was to so greatly affect the coming nation. As the mother of Joseph she gave life to one of the grandest and greatest of men. A man next to the Man of Galilee and yet this Man of Galilee came from the line of which despised Leah was the mother.

REBECAH'S BLESSING. A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

REBECAH'S BLESSING. A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

REBECAH'S BLESSING. A pastoral scene—yonder that most precious possession of the soul, the water of life, around it being restful and patiently waiting are flocks of sheep; the shepherds, watchful of their flocks, are in attendance until they are attracted by the coming of a stranger. "Whence comest thou? (Gen. xxix:14) Of Haran are we, know ye Laban, the son of Nahor? We know him, is he well? He is well and he holds Rachel with us, and the sheep, well water your sheep and so and feed them. We must wait until all the flocks be gathered together and then we will water the sheep." Jacob was gallant; as soon as Rachel comes with her father's flock he rolls away the stone from the well, as though he had authority, and kisses the flock; then Jacob, gallant still, kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. If you can tell me why he wept when he kissed her your penetration and discernment is far superior to mine.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Has been used for over FIFTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE GUMS, ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for CHILDREN'S CROUPS in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

CHRIST'S ATTITUDE TO GOVERNMENTS

DISCUSSED BY REV. I. J. LANSING, D. D., IN HIS CHURCH.

The Saviour's Opinions Were Clearly Defined on All Things Save Government—He Regarded All Government from a Moral and Religious Point of View—Proper Government Must Be Founded Upon the Basic Principle of Christ's Teachings—It is the Glory of Ours.

Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., pastor of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church yesterday, in an able and pertinent sermon last evening taking as his subject, "The Attitude of Christ Toward Civil Government." He took for his text Matthew, 22:21, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's," and spoke in part as follows:

To be a true Christian, a man must not only be an imitator of Christ, but he must also understand Christ. If we read Scripture carefully we will observe Christ's opinions regarding all other things but government are clearly defined. His views upon ecclesiastical and civil society, upon the family and upon a hundred other kindred subjects are all plain. You and I then ask what were his views upon civil government, that we may be guided by them.

WERE NOT DENOUNCED. Governments in the time of Christ, though they were oppressive and tyrannical in their general character, are never denounced by him. The rule of the Roman emperors was excessively cruel, but Christ never assumed an attitude of hostility. The taxation of the Jewish people was oppressively severe, yet His relation to the ruling government was never one of antagonism.

Christ was proof against all national prejudice, never affirming one government as being superior or more desirable than another. In no sense was He indifferent to the wrongs and sufferings of mankind. He wept for hours over the fate of Jerusalem, and He was a question asked Him as to whether the unjust tax or tribute should be paid the state, but He evaded a conflict with the state by replying: "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's."

THE FOUNDATION STONE. The conclusions, the broad conclusions, to be drawn from this attitude of Jesus Christ to civil government are obvious. They are that if we are to have a proper government it must be founded upon the basic principles of Christ's teachings, and it is the glory of this government that it is founded thus. Christ gave no sanction to any government, He never appealed to the mob, or never to the ruler. He was in no sense a partisan, as we are so often in almost a violent way.

There is also a second great conclusion to be drawn from this attitude of Jesus Christ to civil government, namely, that all governments must be looked at solely from a religious standpoint and not as nations, but as upon single men. Jesus Christ looks at all governments the way he looks at your life and mine. The attempt is often made to have one standard of morals for the state and one for individuals. There is but one standard of morals for each and every person in this wide world.

MAN'S DUTY TO GOD. Christ's political doctrine was man's duty to God and man. If He had given his word for the perpetuation of the Roman empire he would be discredited now and He would have no influence on citizenship today. All we want in this and every other country is that the word of God may prevail.

SPEAK WELL OF US. Pleasant Notice Culled from a Wilkes-Barre Exchange. Nice, pleasant lot of neighbors we have in the city down the creek. Here is what the Wilkes-Barre Times says editorially about the recent firmen's state convention in this city:

These great big over-grown babies—calves would perhaps be a better term—who ran the Scranton firmen's convention have taken back-water over the prize for the finest engine in the parade. When we secured the convention two years ago Scrantonians refused to attend, and ran an illustrious parade of their own, and now that their ambition had been gratified they have made but a poor showing. If only half of the reports of the visiting firmen are true, never again will Sloum Hollow be the tramping ground of the fire braves of Pennsylvania. They lack preparation and finish in Scranton, and are deficient in the common courtesies. In numbers of instances visiting delegations were not conducted to their hostries.

Isn't that an altogether sweet and lovely thing to see? It is the columns of a newspaper printed in a civilized community in this late end of the nineteenth century. Such dignity, you will observe.

It Is New—Strikingly New. Austrian Velvet Glass, with that soft velvety finish and hand painted, Iris Decoration; has every appearance of high cost goods. In larger cities, it is sold for fancy prices. Vases in a large variety of shapes and sizes; Rose Bowls, Jardinières, Globes, etc. 7-inch Vase..... 70 cents. 8-inch Vase..... 75 cents. 10 1/2-inch Vase..... 95 cents. 13-inch Vase..... $1.45. Our shrewdest buyers are making selections now for the holidays. LAMP HEADQUARTERS. China Hall. Millar & Peck, 134 Wyoming Ave. "Walk in and look around."

THE POPULAR HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE. Dockash Stoves and Ranges. Made in Scranton. High Grade Goods. Will Last a Lifetime. Cheapest to Buy. Best in the World. Always Give Satisfaction. Repairs Always in Stock. FOOTE & FULLER CO., Nears Building, 140-142 Washington Ave.

F. L. Crane, THE Reliable Furrier, Is showing the newest styles in FUR GARMENTS. Of All Kinds. Handsome Tailored Gowns, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Silk Waists, Golf Capes, etc. Largest assortment ever brought to this city. Prices the lowest. RELIABLE FUR REPAIRING DONE. 324 Lackawanna Ave. Raw Furs Bought.

MOUNT PLEASANT COAL At Retail. Elmwood Hall Elmhurst, Pa. (Formerly Hotel Elmhurst.) Open All the Year. This hotel has been remodeled and retitled throughout and will open its doors June 14. For rates, etc., call on or address DR. W. H. H. BULL, ELMHURST, PA.

Special Sale WINTER UNDERWEAR, NIGHT ROBES and PAJAMAS (The Bronson & Tallman Stock.) Flannel Night Robes.....45c, 75c, $1.00. Flannel Pajamas.....75c, $1.50, $2.50. Heavy Ribbed Underwear.....45c. Heavy Ribbed, better grade.....75c and 95c. Heavy Natural Wool and Camel's Hair.....75c. Better grade Natural Wool.....95c. Mercerized Silk and Wool.....95c. A big reduction on all Dr. Jaros and high grades of underwear. We are offering them below the import prices. Union Suits Below the Cost of Manufacture. Wool and Cashmere Hose 23c and 45c. Try our Special Ice Collar, better than any 15c collar in town. SOLE AGENTS YOUNG'S HATS. Successor to Bronson & Tallman. 412 Spruce Street. Gloves of every description at all prices. SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.