HARVEST HOME EXERCISES. They Were Held in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

Very pretty and interesting was the Harvest Home festival as celebrated at the Trinity Lutheran church on Adams avenue, last evening. The little church was prettily decorated with palms and autumnal fruits were very much in evidence. A heap of the latter were in front of the platform, while the altar was also heaped high with apples and fruits likewise symbolic of autumn and the harvest.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was not as large as expected, but nevertheless it was quite a large audience which was

A POOR WOMAN'S LUCK.

Invested in a Copper Mine, and Now Has an Income.

Mrs. F. H. Chase, of Bangor, fourteen years ago invested $100 in copper stock, and now receives dividends on that amounting to $100 monthly-$1,200 every year.

Mrs. Chase has a cousin, Professo Treadwell, who, in 1885, was visiting in Bangor. He was interested, says a writer in the New York Press, in the United Verde mine, in Arizona, and while in Bangor that year tried to obtain money for working it by disposing of a few of his personal shares of the stock of the company, then new. The mine had been bonded by Professor Treadwell and Governor Tuttle, of Arizona, for $25,000. The ore was being hauled forty miles by mules, and this cost so much that dividends were out of the question.

Mrs. Chase was one of those who purchased stock at that time, taking shares enough at 50 cents each to make her total contribution $150. This was done expressly in violation of the advice of Mrs. Chase's friends. She was a woman of slender means.

In 1889, W. A. Clark, of Montana now enator-elect from that state, took an interest in the United Verde, and, seeing its possibilities, began buying in He succeeded in getting hold of 90 per cent. of the shares, in-cluding those held by everybody except Mrs. Chase and her cousin, Professor Treadwell. Mr. Clark paid for these shares anywhere from $5 to $7.50

In 1893 a New York stockholder offered $5, $7 and then $10 a share to Mrs. Chase for her stock, but she refused to sell. The next week after her refusel she received a dividend of $100, the first return on her money for eight years. She was joyful, and her neighbors

The stock advanced like lightning. In 1897 Mrs. Chase received an offer of $3,000 for it, and, within two days, a econd offer of $5,000.

In 1898 offers increased in number and price, until in 1899 she has refused $15,000 for her stock in the United Verde.

Mrs. Chase has for many years supported her husband, whose health was broken by a glorious and nearly fatal service for his country in the Civil war. Thus her new wealth is doubly welome. She is now receiving with regularity $50 twice monthly as the interest on her investment of $100 made foureen years ago.-Baltimore American,

June 25, 1899. There are many instances where like small investments have made enormous fortunes. Today there is no better opportunity than stock of the Copper King of Arizona, which adjoins the United Verde, and Copper Queen of

STATE GRAND LODGE KNIGHTS OF HONOR

BUSINESS SESSION OPENS HERE TOMORROW.

Nearly All the State Officers and Some of the Delegates Already on the Scene-Headquarters Opened at the Jermyn-Sketch of the Order with Its Aims, Objects and Plan of Operation-List of the State Officers and Delegates-Local Committee Will Entertain the Visitors.

Nearly all the grand lodge officers and many of the delegates to the bienniel convention of the Knights of Honor of Pennsylvania, which opens here, tomorrow, are already in city and the preliminary work of the convention is under way.

The state officers have opened headquarters at room 292 Hotel Jermyn and will be there today to receive the delegates yet to come. The finance, law ind credentials committees will also be at headquarters all day to attend to the pre-convention work attaching to their several departments.

There will be 125 delegates in atendance, representing an equal numper of lodges scattered over the entire state. Philadelphia will be represented by a delgation of fifteen, and Pittsburg and vicinity will send twice as many. Scranton has three lodges, one on the West Side, one in Dunmore and one in the central city. This last, Pro-tection lodge, No. 1727, is one of the oldest and most influential in the order having been in existence for over twenty years and numbering on its rolls some of Scranton's most representative citizens. The other two local lodges were organized only this year by Grand Reporter William J. Robinson, of Eric. Pittston has a lodge that was organized in 1875 and other places in this vicinity also have old time lodges, but this is the first state convention of the order to be held in this immediate region.

OPENS TOMORROW.

The convention will open tomorros morning at 10 o'clock in Odd Fellows' hall, Wyoming avenue, and will continue two days. The sessions will be secret and except that tomorrow night a session open to the public will be held. An address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor James Moir, who is a member of the organization. The response will be by Grand Director H.

W. Allison, ex-mayor of Allentown. William H. Wolfe, Alderman John T. Howe, J. D. Sherrer, ex-Alderman O. B. ### A VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

John Pitt Barely Saves Himself from Being Killed by a Train.

John Pitt. of Pittston avenue, aged years, a blacksmith employed by R. Gould & Son., had his right leg tirely satisfactory in every way. so badly crushed by a Lackawanna train at Nicholson yesterday morning that amputation was necessary.

Young Pitt was out on a enestnuting expedition with several companions and had stopped off at Nicholson. At about 10:30 they decided to go on further and boarded a passing freight train. Pitt secured a footing at first but his foot slipped and his leg slid down to the rail, one wheel passing over it just above the ankle.

The young man held onto the hand rall with superhuman effort and saved himself from being ground to pieces under the wheels. The train was stopped and he was released from his peril-ous position. As the regular train for this city would not leave till 3 in the afternoon a caboose and engine was furnished by the company and he was taken to this city and to the Lacka wanna hospital where it was found necessary to amputate above the ankle He was said to be in a very good condition last evening.

BE CALLED TODAY

HE IS CHARGED WITH KILLING HIS WIFE.

Deed Was Done at Simpson's Creek in Fell Township on the Night of July 4-Accused Will Be Defended by Attorney M. A. McGinley-He Has Not Indicated What His Defense Will Be-Circumstances Under Which the Crime Was Committed.

Unless a postponment should inter vene, and such is not unlikely, John F. Kenny will be called to trial today for the killing of his wife at Simpson Creek in Fell township on the night of The defendant's attorney M. A. Mc Ginley has not as yet intimated what the defense will be but judging from the circumstances of the case it is to be presumed that an attempt will be made to show that the killing lacked the essentials of murder and cannot rise higher than manslaughter, which is the taking of human life in a quarrel or sudden passion. The affair occurred on the road leading from Simpson to the tannery across the creek and about half way between the two settlments which are not more than a quarter of a mile apart. HE HAD BEEN DRINKING.

Kenny had been drinking heavily. and was very drunk when he committed the crime. He and his wife were about the village during the afternoon visiting the various neighbors and partaking of the merrymaking that was going on. They were not together particularly but encountered one another at various times.

They were known to have had not infrequent bickerings, although only three months married, but on this occasion they did not show any especial signs of unfriendliness.

In the evening Mrs. Kenny and her mother started from her house to go to offer in the tannery settlement for milk. Kenny was in the house of a relative drinking and when the supply of drink was exhausted started for the tannery settlement to drink some more.

On his way thither he encountered his wife and her mother returning and stopped talking to the former while the mother kept on towards tht village and disappeared over the brow of the hill. Kenny and his wife quarreled and, it is claimed by the defense, scuffled, and in the melee, he drew a revolver and shot her through the heart.

GAVE HIMSELF UP. When he saw what he had done, he hastened down the Eric road to Carbondale and gave himself up to Chief of Police McAndrews. A comparative-ly new revolver and a box of cartridges were found on his person. He says he bought the cartridges to celebrate the Fourth.

The commonwealth will press for a murder verdict. It will be contended that Kenny went out to meet his wife with murder in his heart and that he was prompted to do it through the quarrels they had. A fourteen-yearold girl named Nelile Moran, who says she witnessed the affair from the embankment above the road, will be one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution.

HURT WHILE WRESTLING.

Edward Smith Sprained His Leg in a Friendly Scuffle.

Edward Smith, a young man living at 1228 South Washington avenue, had his right leg badly sprained at the knee in a wrestling bout with a friend on Lackawanna avenue at 11:30 o'clock last night. He and a number of companions were returning home and as they were turning into Washington avenue from Lackawanna got to scuffling. Smith was thrown to the sidewalk and one of the party fell on top of him. He found himself unable to rise and when he was taken to the Lackawanna hospital in the patrol wagon it was discovered that his leg was severely sprained.
