THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1899.

MRS. HOLVEY RESIGNS.

No Longer Publisher of the Pennsylvania W. C. T. U. Bulletin.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Oct. 11 .- After acting in the capacity of publisher of the Pennsylvania W. C. T. U. Bulletin for the past year, Mrs. Annabel Morris Holvey, of West Pittston tendered her resignation at the convention held in Philadelphia this week. In her annual report Mrs. Holvey warmly advocated enlargement of the Bulletin, the finances of the paper being in an excellent condition, with the end in view of furnishing more reading matter to the subscribers. At present the paper contains twelve pages filled with reports from the various counties and different officers and as publisher. Mrs. Holvey desired to increase the size so as to give space to editorial comments and interesting articles which would be an educator and an inspiretion to the In brief, believing that the readers. Bulletin was the only temperance paper received in the homes of a majority of the subscribers, especially those in the coal and coke regions, Mrs. Holvey desired to make it a genuine temperance journal full of good reading on temperance topics, aside from the present contents. During the past year the circulation has been steadily decreasing and judging from the fact. that it was easier to get new subscribthan renewals, Mrs. Holvey thought the paper should be made more attractive and interesting. At Tuesday's session of the convention it was decided to stand by the editor, Mrs. Rebecca Ballard Chambers, who was opposed to any changes from the present style of the paper. Mrs. Hol-vey thought it would be a waste of time to her to retain the position of publisher of a paper which gave het no choice as to its contents, hence the resignation.

CAUGHT IN A FLY WHEEL.

Terrible Experience of George Watkins at Forest City.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Forest City, Oct. 11.-George Watkins of West Dundaff street, met with a very painful accident last night. Mr. Watkins was employed as engineer by Contractor Gary of Richmondale and was in charge of the compressor engine outside. He was in the act of starting the engines and placed his foot on the rim of the fly wheel to move the engine off the center. While doing so the engine started and took the unfortunate man with it. How he escaped being ground to death is mirculous

It was some time before his fellow workmen missed him and when they arrived they found him exhausted. He was taken to the Carbondale hospital where the doctors found it necessary to amputate his right leg.

While they cannot ascertain his exact condition the doctors have hopes of his recovery.

MORTON A SWINDLER.

Heirs of the Knowlton Estate Will Get Nothing.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Oct. 11.-About a year ago "Edward Morton, barrister, London, England." mailed printed circulars to a large number of persons in Susquehanna county, representing that they were heirs to an immense property in London. left to them by the late Sir Edward Knowlton, and that, for a small fee he would search the records, obtain the necessary proofs, etc.

A number of persons sent Morton a cemittance at once, after which other like demands were made, to which some responded. The demands became so frequent that some of the alleged heirs wrote to the American ambassador, who communicated with the police authorities, with the result that 'Morton," the all around swindler, has been arrested, and is now in prison for swindling people both in America and England. It is hardly necessary to write that the "Knowlton estate" is a phantom.

Tunkhannock, Oct. 11 .- Three citizens of Meshoppen, in this county, C. F. Hahn, R. W. Cameron and G. L. Bullard, each own what they regard as the fastest horse in the town and out of this situation of affairs has grown many disputes. To settle these they agreed to bring their horses to the ounty seat and try conclusions on the race track of the Wyoming County Agricultural society. They came here yesterday and in the presence of a good-sized crowd from Meshoppen and Tunkhannock, sent their horses over the course to win. The Bullard horse took three straight heats and the race. Time, 3.1512, 3.22, 3.23. Charles Barlow officiated as starter and Emmons Platt and F. M. Vaughn as judges.

N. L. W. Allen, of the firm of Spruks & Walker, of Keelersburg, lumber dealers, was in town Monday and Tuesday.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. J. L. Parker, which was on trial Tuesday, brought in a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs equally between prosecutor and defendant. In the case of the Commonwealth vs.

Peter Ross, assault and battery, the grand jury returned a true bill. Defendant pleads guilty and, after plea by his counsel, J. Wood Platt, sentence was suspended by the court during good behavior. The case of the Commonwealth vs.

Brungess et al. was called on Wednesday morning and was still on trial at the adjournment of court at noon. In Commonwealth vs. Carrier, charge bigamy, grand jury found a true bill and this case will be called this afternoon. This case is the last on the list, and court will probably adjourn some time on Thursday. I. L. Tiffany, esq., of Nicholson, was in attendance at court on Tuesday.

An important meeting of merchants, land holders and citizens is called to meet Monday evening, October 16 at 7:30 p. m. at office of S. B. Chase, 12 THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 11 .- The stock market fell flat again today. The dullness made it evident that yesterday's spurt was due almost entirely to covering by shorts, who today were inclined to regret their precipitancy. The warlike situation be-tween England and the Transvaal was almost without effect. In fact the London market seemed to feel rather encouraged than otherwise over the termination of the uncertainty and operators there inclined to bid up the prices of some of the American stocks in sympathy with the advance of the Kaffir stocks. The ride was short lived on this side and the dragging tendency of prices was not auch changed at any time until the close of the market at prices below last night's level all around. The money market was distinctly easier. The causes of this were quite apart from the action of the treas-ury department in offering to anticipate the government interest payment for the remainder of the fiscal year. For one thing, the sub-treasury figured at the clearing house again today as a debtor for over a million. Government disbursements are running quite heavy due in large part to pension payments. There was a sum of gold received from Havana today from postal received from Havana additional shipment of French gold was received. The rate for call money ruled for the greater amount of loans at 7 to 8 per cent, and fell to 3 per cent. In the late dealings. Money continues to go out to the interior in large volume. Not so cheerful a view was taken of the effect of the treasury department's action with regard to anticipated interest. Under the terms of the department order the amount of interest to be paid out this week is only about $1,600,000 and that not where is only about show, on and that not until Friday. Of course only part of it is payable in New York, and precedents show that a small part of the holders are likely to present their claims on that day. The next disbursement comes on Oct. 23. The requirement for the presentation of registered bonds for indorse-ment before payment is made is also expected to operate egain a general ac-ceptance of the interest. The action of the treasury department nevertheless has had the effect of allaying apprehension in Wall street, but it is perceived that whatever relief is afforded is not likely to furnish a supply of surplus funds for the benefit of stock speculators. SUSQUEHANNA LOUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Susquehanna, Oct. 11 .-- The Republicans will hold a mass meeting at Jackson today, to be addressed by county orators. In Susquehanna county this fall, there is much more hard, practical work by candidates and politicians than oratory and flamboyant flapdoodle The Philadelphia Inquirer on Monday printed an alleged "snap shot" picture of our state senator, Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh, of Honesdale. 'Tis the unkindest cut of all. The senator can get lamages in any court.
