INSANE MAN ARRESTED.—Edward Mullen, aged about 35 years, and residing in South Scranton, was arrested yesterday by Lieutenant Zang and Patrolman Quinnan, in the woods near the elder dump on the East mountain. He was seen walking about in an aimless manner and talking incoherently. He will be examined as to his sanity and probably committed to the Hillside home.

ST. THOMAS DEBATERS.

They Discussed the Philippine Question Yesterday Afternoon.

The St. Thomas College Debating society held the first debate of the present school year yesterday afternoon in the college hall.

The subject debated was, "Resolved, That the conquering of the Philippines is justifiable." The affirmative side of the question was taken care of by the following: James Cullen, John Ruddy, John McHale and Eugene D. Boyle, while the negative side was looked after by Stephen Gavin, Thomas Jordan, George Stuckart and Joseph Caray. The judges, Thomas Barrett, Joseph Foote and Moses O'Malley, finally decided that the anti-imperialists had the best of the argument and awarded the decision to the negative side.

EVANS WAS DESPERATE.

He Made an Unsuccessful Effort to End His Life by Slashing His Throat with a Razor.

Henry Evans, aged 56 years, residing at the corner of Washburn street and Filmore avenue, made an unsuccessful attempt to end his life Thursday evening by slashing his throat with a razor. He was prevented by his 15-year-old grandson in the nick of time.

For several years Evans' mind has been unbalanced. He has made several attempts to end his life, and only a few days ago tried to do his brains out by bumping his head against a bed post. He regrets his latest deed, and may recover, but his chances are doubtful.

The razor with which Evans cut his throat had been hidden from him for several months, but on Thursday he found it on a shelf in the pantry, and as soon as he grasped it, drew it across his throat, inflicting an ugly wound. His grandson discovered him, and threw him to the floor, holding his arms to prevent him from further injuring himself until assistance came.

The man was cared for by several persons who had gathered in the house, and medical aid summoned, and the injuries dressed. The rash in his throat was about four inches long and required several stitches. Evans was removed to the Hillside Home yesterday afternoon.

Carbondale Firemen Accused by Decorator Fuhrman.

During the firemen's convention, some one climbed up the side of the court house and took therefrom a large oil painting of Thomas E. Campbell, of Carbondale, state vice-president of the firemen's association. The next day the picture adorned the front of Carbondale city hall. News Decorator Fuhrman is after the Carbondale firemen with a demand for the return of the picture. The Carbondale News has this to say on the matter:

"Who stole Thomas E. Campbell's picture? Any information as to the whereabouts of the picture or information in regard to who took the picture will be gladly received. The picture was a large one, unframed, and was put up with some decorations on the court house in Scranton. The picture was owned by Decorator Fuhrman.

"The Mitchell Hose company met last night and received a communication from Fuhrman, in which he stated that the picture was stolen by some one and unless the Mitchell Hose company paid twenty dollars, which he values the picture at, he will take legal proceedings against the hose company. The members of the Mitchell company could do nothing in regard to the communication, and ordered the secretary to write to Fuhrman and inform him that they would do nothing in regard to the matter. Several of the firemen, when seen by a News reporter, were much put out over the communication and state that they know nothing of the picture. One member thought that the picture was stolen by some ladies who were struck on the handsome original."

OBITUARY

Word was received in this city yesterday from Seattle, Wash., announcing the death of David P. Reese, formerly of this city, but for the last twelve years a resident of Seattle. The deceased was born in Rhymney, South Wales, sixty-one years ago, and came to this country thirty-one years ago, locating first in St. Clair, Schuylkill county, and later in Olyphant and North Scranton. He was always very prominent in Republican politics in this country and in 1888 ran for the Washington territory on the Republican ticket. He was a contributor to several of the Welsh papers and also wrote several poems under the pen name of "Castell Mestyn." He is survived by a widow and the following children, all of whom live on the corner of School street and Edna avenue, this city: David P. Caradog, Geo. Edith, Mary Elizabeth. Another daughter, Mrs. Arabella Thomas, of Philadelphia, also survives him. David P. is well known letter carrier of this city. The letter received stated that the funeral would be held yesterday.

Mrs. Jane Merton, wife of William Merton passed away at her home on Hudson street, Olyphant, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. She had been in poor health for some time, but was not confined to her home until two weeks ago. The cause of death was bronchitis. Deceased was born in Merthyr Tydvil, South Wales, forty-three years ago, and came to this country in 1886, and has always resided in Olyphant. Mrs. Merton was a devoted and consistent member of the Congregational church. She was a loving mother, a good neighbor and esteemed by a large circle of friends. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Union cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Burlingame, wife of William Burlingame, aged 66 years, died at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning at her residence, 130 South Hyde Park avenue. Deceased was a life-long member of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, and on Thursday observed the forty-ninth anniversary of her marriage. She is survived by her husband and daughter Mary. The funeral services will be conducted at the house Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery.

LARGE NUMBER OF CASES WERE HEARD

EIGHTY-EIGHT DISPOSED OF DURING WEEK.

Cases Against the Men Who Committed the Robbery at Mayfield Which is on the List for Next Week Continued—Anthony Gillespie, of Olyphant, charged with Perjury—Oscar D. Ehrgood tried for Striking Joseph Mitchell with a Club—Many Petty Cases.

This week was almost a record breaker in criminal court. On the trial list 115 cases were set down for trial this week up to Saturday. Of that number 88 have been disposed of.

At the head of the list for next week is the case against Thomas Gallagher, Joseph Gallagher, Mrs. Annie Gallagher and Mrs. Bridget Dempsey, who are charged with killing James Quinn, sr., at Carbondale. This case will probably be continued. Court yesterday allowed a continuance of the case against the men who robbed the office of the Carbondale Traction company at Mayfield. It was the second case on the list. On Tuesday court ordered that the libel case against Little and O'Toole be placed at the head of the list for next week.

Anthony Gillespie, of Olyphant, was tried before Judge R. W. Archbald in the main court room yesterday on a charge of perjury. M. D. Brown, of the Brown Lumber company, was the prosecutor, and it was charged that Gillespie committed perjury in swearing to a certain affidavit of defense. Gillespie is a prominent citizen of Olyphant and is a member of council from the Third ward of that borough. His seat is contested by John Lennon. The accused was charged yesterday by Attorneys Taylor & Lewis and District Attorney John R. Jones conducted the prosecution.

From the evidence of the commonwealth it appears that in 1896 Gillespie, John J. McAndrew, W. J. Evans and R. J. Griffiths organized the Olyphant Base Ball association and purchased from the Brown Lumber company a quantity of lumber to erect a fence around a base ball park which had been laid out on the Olyphant flats.

BOUGHT LUMBER.
Lumber for a grand stand was also secured from the same company. Altogether the bill of the Brown company amounted to $265. It was not paid and suit was brought against the members of the association and a verdict obtained for the full amount of the bill.

Affidavits of defense were filed by the defendants, and that which it is alleged that Gillespie swore to set forth that Gillespie did not request the company to deliver the lumber and that he was never at any time a member of the base ball association. It was contended that this affidavit was false and that Gillespie committed wilful perjury when he swore to the affidavit. This is denied by Gillespie, who said the affidavit was drawn up by Attorney C. P. O'Malley, who, Gillespie said, told him he could not be held liable under the law, as he was not a partner in the association.

He accepted this advice and signed the paper. He denied very stoutly that he had any intention to commit perjury. He maintained that he did not swear to the affidavit. He merely signed his name to it. A verdict was not returned yesterday.

Ellen Moon was tried before Judge Archbald on charges of malicious mischief and larceny and receiving. The prosecutor was Joseph Mitchell, who alleges that the defendant came to his house on Clark street, Providence, on April 28 last and after breaking the door with an axe carried away a large quantity of his household goods.

WHO BROKE THE DOOR.
Mrs. Moon said that the door was broken in by Mitchell's wife, but that she, the defendant, kept the household goods because Mitchell owed her rent.

A verdict of not guilty was brought in by the jury. Mitchell was brought in by the jury. Mitchell was brought in by the jury. Mitchell was brought in by the jury.

While Williams, the 17-year-old West Side boy who was tried Thursday on a charge of stealing tomatoes from the truck farm of O. M. Kestetter in Lackawanna township, was yesterday found guilty. He will be sent to the House of Refuge.

The appointed committee have been busy at work during the past few weeks securing talent for the entertainment of the members and visitors and providing for the banquet which will follow the programme of exercises. Several candidates are expected to be present and will be initiated during the course of the evening. The banquet has been very tastefully decorated for the concluding feature of the evening and the guests will sit down to the following menu: Consomme, banquet wafers, salmon, mayonnaise, chicken croquette, olives, sandwiches, assorted cakes, macaroons, ice cream, lemonade, coffee.

The Dunmore council was organized four years ago last Thursday, with a charter membership of seventy. The order has met with success at every step and at the present time is composed of over three hundred and fifty members. During the time elapsing between the third anniversary and tonight's anniversary nearly one hundred names have been added to the roll.

A PRETTY CEREMONY.

St. Mary's Catholic church on Chestnut street, was the scene of a pleasant matrimonial event Thursday afternoon. At 2 o'clock Miss Josephine Moon and Edward Connolly, both of this borough, took their places before Rev. M. D. Donlan and were joined in marriage. Miss Anna Boland was bridesmaid and Mr. Thomas Doud best man. After congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Connolly enjoyed a drive.

GRAND CHURCH RALLY.

At the Methodist Episcopal church, beginning Monday evening, October 16, a grand church rally will be instituted, to be continued all of the week. The following ministers will have charge of the different evenings: Monday evening, Rev. G. C. Lyman; Tuesday afternoon, Rev. F. P. Doty; evening, Rev. James P. Dunne; Wednesday afternoon, Rev. W. G. Simpson; evening, Rev. A. W. Cooper; Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. B. Cook; Friday afternoon, Rev. G. Printz; evening, Rev. J. L. Rausch.

The meetings will be full of interest and have been carefully planned to awaken a general rally among the members and friends of the church.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cronk, of Brook street, announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Emma, and Herbert E. Haney, to take place at their residence, Wednesday evening, October 13, at eight o'clock.

The new school desks, which the school board had been patiently waiting for, for the past two weeks, arrived yesterday, and will now be placed in position as fast as possible. The desks are for the pupils who propose taking the commercial course, recently introduced.

Tomorrow at the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. A. Van Cleft will preach in the morning on "The Israelites at Bochim." In the evening the discourse will follow the thought, "A Marriage Scene." The other services will follow as usual.

The Industrial school, connected with St. Mark's Episcopal church, will open this afternoon at half past two. The school will be in charge of a new and capable staff of teachers. It is hoped to extend the work of the school so as to teach housekeeping as well as needlework.

Tonight is the last night of the Neptune Fire company's fair, which has been running the past two weeks in the Odd Fellows' hall, on Chestnut street. The fair, thus far, has assured the firemen of the entire cancellation of their debt and perhaps a neat sum to be left in the treasury.

Good News for Our Readers

Who have scrofula taints in their blood, and who have not? Scrofula in all its forms is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly purifies the blood. This disease, which frequently appears in children, is greatly to be dreaded. It is most likely to affect the glands of neck, which become enlarged, eruptions appear on the head and face, and the eyes are frequently affected. Upon its first appearance, perhaps in slight eruptions or pimples, scrofula should be entirely eradicated from the system by a thorough course of Hood's Sarsaparilla to prevent all the painful and sickening consequences of running scrofula sores which drain the system, sap the strength and make existence utterly wretched.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

DUNMORE COUNCIL, JR. O. U. A. M., TO CELEBRATE.

The Occasion is the Fourth Anniversary of the Council Which Has Over 350 Members—Marriage of Miss Josephine Moon and Edward Connolly—Grand Church Rally Planned for Next Week—A Coming Wedding—A Number of Other Newsy Notes.

The members of Dunmore council, No. 1022, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will celebrate the fourth anniversary of their organization this evening, following the regular meeting of the lodge in the Odd Fellows' building on Chestnut street.

The appointed committee have been busy at work during the past few weeks securing talent for the entertainment of the members and visitors and providing for the banquet which will follow the programme of exercises.
