DECISION FAVORS THE MINISTER

FAMOUS CHURCH CASE AT WILKES-BARRE.

Judge Woodward's Opinion in Full. Question of Preaching in Two Languages.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 16.—Judge Woodward today decided the Welsh Methodist Episcopal church case in favor of the pastor, Rev. P. Morgans. It enjoins the warring trustees to open the church to him for service and refrain from interfering with him in his conduct of the services.

Judge D. L. Iphigene represented the plaintiffs, the bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Mr. Morgans, and the presiding elder, Mr. Griffith. The plaintiffs say the sole purpose of preaching in English in the evening is to build up the church and attract the young people.

In his opinion Judge Woodward said: Where a religious association is entered into and becomes a part of a general sect or ecclesiastical body professing a certain doctrine and faith, it must submit itself to the rules and discipline of that organization.
