How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this country and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other medicines combined.-J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickieville, Pa. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

A Well Known Miner Injured Yesterday-Birthday Party-One of the Horse Thieves Captured at Hazleton-Fierce Mountain Fires Raging-Personals.

Tom N. Jones, a well known miner in the Eric colliery was painfully injured yesterday morning. Mr. Jones with a fellow workman were in the act of raising a cross timber when one end of it fell from the support, striking Mr. Jones upon the chest, He was assisted to his home at Mayfield and was attended by Dr. P. C. Manley While the injuries are of a painful nature it is not thought that he is in any danger and his friends hope he will be around again in a few days.

A large number of little folks were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Irivng of Third street in honor of their daughter Marcella's fifth birthday. The little ones had an exceedingly merry time and were bountifuly served with refreshments. Liverman Bray yesterday received a telegram from his brother at Hazleton stating the stolen horse and buggy had been seen passing through that town yesterday morning and that one of three boys who are supposed to be the thieves had been captured. The telegram further stated another brother of Mr. Bray's was in hot pursuit of the buggy and the other occupants and it is expected that before this the whole lot will have been captured. It is believed a youth whom Mr. Bray lately discharged is the leader of the boys who committed the theft.

The stenography and typewriting class under the tuition of Miss Ada Lutey was opened last evening in the borough school building.

The underbrush and leaves on the mountains east and west of the borough have been burning fiercely for several days past and at night illuminate the whole sky. The long looked for rain is badly needed to quench the fires which it is feared will do considerable damage.

THEATRICAL.

The Wonderful Kellar.

Kellar, the wonderful, was at the Lyceum last night and entertained and mystified a large audience with his marvelous illusions and feats of magic. As usual, his sleight-of-hand work was a most interesting feature of the performance and this was followed by an expose of spiritualism and a number of cabinet illusions that were so eleverly arranged and executed that the audience was filled with wonder and amazement.

"Darkest Russia."

The Bennet and Moulton company egan a week's engagement at the Academy of Music last night by presenting H. Grattan Donnelly's "Darkest Russia" to an audience that packed the house. The excellent manner in which the play was presented gives assurance of crowded houses at every performance. No stronger popular price company has been at the Academy this season. Among its more lever members are Lawrence Stratton, John Gernon, Harold Kennedy, Lawrence O'Brien, Miss Alina Aiken, Miss Isabel Pitt Lewis, Miss Emma Ilatia and Miss Margaret Willard. The company gratifies the popular demand for continuous performance by introducing specialties between the acts. These entertainers include Danny Sammons in a funny tramp act and Partellos, acrobats and pantomine artists. The company carries its own prehestra and a wealth of scenery and settings. Last night's piece was put on quite as elaborately as are the highest-priced attractions.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stoges and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure - the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure Sond for list of testimonials.
