Brown: vice president, D. J. Campbell; secretary, J. C. Vaughan; treasurer, O. B. Partridge; directors for three years, George W. Finn and P. F. Gibbons.

TO GO TO BALD MOUNTAIN .- The classes in physical geography, taught by Professors Fuller, Beaumont and Lloyd, the High school, intend to visit Bald Mountain Saturday for the purpose of examining the physical phenomena and structure of the site. Bald mountain affords one of the best places in the state for this purpose. The classes will meet at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot.

FOGARD-CROWELL NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed Last Evening in Penn Avenue Baptist Church. A particularly attractive wedding occurred last evening, when Miss Maud Abbie Crowell was united in marriage to Prof. Severin Fagard at 8.30 o'clock Solomon in the Penn Avenue Baptist church. The latter was literally packed with the friends of both parties when the ceremony began. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was met at the pulpit by the rest of the bridal party. Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, the pastor of the church, was the officiating A Friend clergyman. The bride looked especially attractive in a bridal costume of white Duchess satin, with a bridal veil. She was attended by the Misses Anna Spencer and Helen McKee, who were also becomingly attired. Miss Sarah Thayer, of Brooklyn, acted as maid of honor and little Raymond Thayer was the page. The groom's attendant was Charles F. Pierce, son of Rev. Mr. Pierce, and the ushers at the church were as follows: A. F. Kizer, G. H. Fisher, T. W. Emblen and E. M. S. Gould

Prof. Fagard is a Belgian by birth and has been a resident of this country but two years. He is an excellent musician, having received a musical education abroad and has made himself very popular in musical circles in this city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Crowell, of Wyoming avenue, and is a highly esteemed young woman, who has been a particularly active member of the Penn avenue church.

GIFTS AND GIVERS MADE WEL-COME AT THE HOME.

More Than $400 Received in Cash. Annual Dinner of the Managers. Remembrances from Kind Friends. The Remainder of the Week to Be Devoted to Receiving Donations. Coal, Provisions, Clothing and Cash Will Be Greatly Appreciated. Names of the Donors.

Matthews, one barrel flour; Mrs. Sickles One of the most delightful donation pickles and can fruit. days in the history of the Home for the Friendless was enjoyed yesterday by the inmates, the managers, the visitors, and everybody who had anything to do with the affair. Many gifts were received and the promise of more to be sent during the week was cheering, in the extreme. The cash donations amounted to about $434 and there were quantities of provisions and clothing. As many friends have expressed a desire to send articles later the "Donation day" will be continued all this week, when the gifts will be acknowledged as additional to the list below.

The managers reverted to the pleasant custom of other years and had their annual dinner yesterday at the Home. They carired provisions plentiful enough for their own party and all the inmates.

Mrs. John Jermyn was the guest of honor. Others seated at the tables were: Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, Mrs. D. E. Taylor, Mrs. Cora Merrifield, Mrs. C. B. Penman, Mrs. T. H. Dale, Mrs. R. J. Foster, Mrs. B.
