CONDUCTOR INJURED.

Charles Evans Caught Between Two Cars and Badly Hurt.

Charles Evans, a conductor in charge f a Moosic car was seriously injured early last evening and is extremely fortunate in not being fatally so. He had charge of an inbound Moosic ar, John Kowalchik, motorman, which was waiting on the switch at the corner of Pittston avenue and Birch street, for an outward bound car to pass, Evans was standing on side step of his car when the latter passed.

He was struck by it and fell between the two cars, barely escaping eing caught under the wheels. His left foot was run over, badly smashing the great toe. He also sustained two gashes on his head and one of his shoulders was badly wrenched.

He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

SYRIAN NAMED IDMAR GEORGE CLAIMED TO BE A PRIEST.

Was Collecting Funds Ostensibly for Church Purposes from Priests of the Diocese and Using Bishop Hoban's Name Without Authority. Arrested in Carbondale by Chief McAndrews and Brought to This City, Where He Refunded the Money and Was Allowed to Go.

A Syrian, representing himself to be a Catholic priest, was arrested yesterday afternoon in Carbondale by Chief of Police McAndrews, of Carbondale in the latter city, on a charge of collecting money under false pretenses.

The man came to Bishop Hoban on Tuesday and represented himself as a priest. He said his mission in this country was the collection of funds for an orphans' home and church in Mosul, Syria. The bishop had read in a Philadelphia paper that a Syrian had been collecting money in that city for the same purpose, but had been found to be a swindler. The bishop accordingly forbade him to collect any money.

It was learned yesterday, however, that he had been visiting the various priests in this city and collecting. It was also learned that he was using a book with the name of Bishop Hoban in it and crediting the latter with having contributed $10, which, of course, he bishop had not done.

Word was sent to the police to arest the man, and as many of the priests in the diocese as could be reached were warned. He was arrested in Carbondale just after speaking to Father Nealon, of that city, and was brought to the episcopal residence in this city by Chief McAndrews. He admitted his guilt there and turned over the book and what money he had collected, which amounted to $16. He gave the name of Idwar George and pleaded poverty as an excuse. He said that he had been in the country but two weeks, but the good English he spoke did not bear him out in this statement. Upon leaving he promised to leave the city at once and it was decided not to prosecute him,

AN INJUSTICE TO ROSS.

He Did Not Assault His Wife as Was Stated.

In The Tribune of yesterday was an tem referring to an assault committed by Herman Ross, of Schultzville, upon his wife. The weapon he was said to have used was a knife. It seems there was no truth in the statement. Mr. Ross and his wife have had no differences and he in no way misused her. They are both highly respected reldents of Schultzville.

COUNTERFEITING CASE.

The Fate of Ingham and Newitt in Hands of the Jury.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18 .- United States District Attorney Beck today made the closing arguments in the government's case against Ellery P. Engham and Harvey K. Newitt, the lawyers charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with the Lancaster revenue stamp counterfeiting plot. At the beggining of his address evidence of the secret service opera tives was concerned. He said detectives were an absolute necessity and to reject their testimony because their profession required subterfuge, would b wholly unwarranted. The testimony of criminals is also worthy of belief, he said, where there is sufficient corroboration. Of the two stories presented, his honor said obviously but one could be true and the jury must decide by th corroboration which to believe. That money had been passed from Kendig to Ingham and Newitt and from them to McManus was conceded. The question was as to what use this money was to be applied. The case was given to the jury a few minutes past 3 oclock. After waiting an hour for the verdict, Judge Mc-The quality of the olls used in mixing Pherson adjourned court until 10 o'clock colors determines the durability of the omorrow morning. paints.
