New York, Oct. 20 .- Through wild and hoary sens, in a breeze that approached the dignity of a gale, the gallant sloop was not misplaced, Columbia today vanquished the British challenger Shamrock by six minutes and cighteen seconds actual time and ton bore his defeat like the gentleman six minutes and thirty-four seconds and sportsman that he is. "The best corrected time, thus completing the series for the America's cup with a for the America's cup." magnificent rough weather duel and a enth time the attempt of a foreigner rophy won by the America forty-eight years ago is still ours, a monument to the superiority of American seamanship and American navai architecture, and a standing challenge to the yachtsmen of all nations. Unbeaten America again tastes the glory of victory.

Except for the repeated flukes and the unfortunate accident to the challenger on Tuesday, this series of races has been unmarred by a single meldent. The boats have had two fair and square races, one in light airs, and the other in a heavy blow, and Sir Thomas is perfectly satisfied that he was beaten

Today's race was a glorious test of the rough weather qualities of the two yachts. The prayer of Sir Thomas for wind was answered. It was blowing twenty-five miles an hour at the lightship, enough wind and enough see to make any racing machine stagger. The course, fifteen miles before the wind, south by west, carried the yachts straight down the Jersey coast to 2 point off Long Branch, so that the race was salled in plain view of the thongards perched upon the heights of Naveslak and stretched glong the shore from Sea Bright to Asbury Park. Both yachts fled across the starting Har before the twenty-five knot breeze. wing and wing, The Shamrock was over a minute and one second before the defender. The Yankee slowly but surely, inch by inch, overhauled her adversary. When the Columbia had crept up to within striking distance the Shamrock crowded on a little more canvass and for ten minutes she seemed to hold the American even. Both were going like scared deers.

Columbia Gains.

As the yachts approached the outer, mark the patriots with high bounding pulses saw the Columbia was again picking up the enemy. At 12.10 o'clock, half a mile from the mark, she got alongside the challenger. Three minutes later the Columbia was a length in the lead and footing like mad. The yachts swept around the mark, the Columbia 17 seconds ahead. The Columbia had gained a minute and eighteen seconds in the fifteen mile run. As they leaned away on the starboard tack for the beat home the white flyer was to windward and about a length With their sheets trimmed flat after they surged into the high seas. sending the brine smoking as high as the spreaders. They careened until their lee rails were awash in the swiriing, driving waves. Seldom has there been such a smushing sea under the bows of cup contestants. The water spurted twenty feet into the air. The green boat labored more than the Yankee. Once or twice she buried her bowsprit in the seas, wetting her head-On every tack of the thresh to windward the Yankee increased her lead and at 1.45 she was leading by a quarter of a mile. The rush of the yachts through the whistles, so absorbed were they in the stirring spectacle. But they made up for it later. The defeated challenger raced across five minutes and fifteen weather boat had been beaten over a thirty mile course six minutes and eighteen seconds actual time, or with the allowance she was to concede Columbia, on account of her longer water line, six minutes and thirty-four seconds. The Shamrock also got a noisy reception as she finished.

Grand Spectacle.

A grand spectacle followed. The victor after lowering her sails set the stars and stripes at her topmost truck at both ends of her spreader and at the taffrail. Soon the whole fleet blossomed out in American flags and all the ships in the excursion fleet turned loose their whistles in a madlening chorus. Later the Erin,, which had remained behind for a few minutes with the Shamrock, steamed up to the Columbia, the stars and stripes flattering from main and mizzen By ney, and Harvey K. Newitt, his law Sir Thomas's orders the crow of the partner and former assistant district Erin lined the rail and gave three good Anglo-Saxon cheers for the victors. They were returned with interest by the proud crew of the Columbia. Later Sir Thomas went aboard the yacht Corsair and there soon afterward Mr. Iselin, managing owner of the Columbia joined him. There were toasts to victor and vanquished, to America. and Great Pritain, to gentlemen and ladies and all sorts of things, and so, with felicitations all around, the cup series for 1899 ended with the best of

New York, Oct. 20 .- C. Oliver Iselin, managing owner of the Columbia, was highly pleased at the result of today's race and the series. He said to an Associated Press reporter: "Of course I am delighted at the outcome of today's races, for it demonstrated thoroughly that in a strong breeze the Columbia is more than a match for the Shamrock. I am glad that we had so much wind, for it gave us an opportunity to dispel the Illusion that the Columbia was not a heavy weather boat. Having sailed on the Columbia all season, I have been able to test her in every kind of weather and her work today shows that my confidence in her ability to successfully defend the America's cup

At luncheon with friends on his yacht glorious Yankee victory. For the elev. Erin, Sir Thomas said: "My friends, I came over here to lift the America's to wrest from America the yachting I have failed to do it. I never said that I would do it, nor will ever I say more than I thought I had an equal chance for it." My rival has never said more than that, so there has been no boasting on either side. Watever I may have thought in the past does not matlumbia is the better boat and she rightly deserves her victory.

I am glad of one thing, and that is that while I have failed to lift the cup, have succeeded in proving to the said that an English gentleman could come over here with the absolute certainty of getting fair play. If he behaves like a gentleman he will be treated like a gentleman, and in any event he will be accorded perfectly fair and sportsmanlike treatment. This has ilways been my belief, in spite of all I have convinced the world that I am right in this belief.

"My opporents have treated me not only fairly, but generously."
"I desire to add," continued Sir

Thomas, "that I mean to challenge again if I can arrange matters so as to make it possible. At this time I cannot go into details, but I'll try it Mr. Herreshoff as the greatest designer of yachis in the world, and the future possession of the America's cup depends solely upon the ability of Engish designers to excel him. I'll get it if I can find the man to build the boat."

Trouble Brewing All Around-Representatives of the Powers Regard Each Other with Suspicion.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.-The steamer Moana arrived today from Australian ports via Apia, Samon, and Honolulu. The correspondent of the Associated Press at Samoa sends news of a startling character. He says, under date of Oct. 6:

"The aspect of affairs in Samoa is indeed far from reassuring. There is trouble brewing and it will come soon if the three powers do not come to mid the government and the distracted officials. The three consuls who were left here as a provisional government by the commissioners are finding their position by no means a bed of roses. It is a matter of report that the feeling between the members of the provisional government is strained."

CASE RESULTING FROM LANCAS. TER COUNTERFEITING PLOT.

Jury Returns Verdict After Two Days of Deliberation-The Bail of Defendants Is Increased from $20,000 to $40,00-Counsel Shields, for Defendants, Makes an Appeal for a Philadelphia, Oct. 20.-Eilery P. Ingham, ex-United States district attorpartner and former assistant district attorney, were today found guilty of conspiracy and bribery in connection with the revenue stamp counterfeiting plot headed by William M. Jacobs and William L. Kendig, the Lancaster cimanufacturers. The case was given to the jury at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the verdict was returned at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

When the jury retired after Judge McPherson's charge they stood eight to four for conviction, but after the third ballot one of the four who stood out for acquittal joined the majority and from that time until an agreement was reached three of the jury insisted that a verdict of not guilty be rendered. These three finally reversed their opinion this afternoon after the jury came into court and asked for instructions regarding certain mooted questions. On two previous occasions the jury nnounced that they were unable to agree, but each time they were sent back by Judge McPherson, who insisted that they endeavor to reach a verdict. This afternoon the jurymen sent message to the judge asking these questions: "Is a secret service operative an officer of the government?" Would the payment of money to Operative McManus by Mr. Newitt constitute a bribe?" "Was the employment of McManus in the capacity of a private detective in the nature of a bribery?" "Is it probable that men of Ingham and Newitt'standing would attempt to bribe?"

After receiving the message Judge McPherson sent for the jury and answered the question. He said that the ounts in the indictment which charged bribery of a government officer had been withdrawn. McManus, he said, is an employe of the government in the meaning of that section of the revised statutes under which the indictment was drawn. If the money was paid to McManus for information concerning the government, his honor announced, it constituted a bribe. McManus was employed to good faith as a private detective there was no bribery. In answer to the last question Judge McPherson said the matter of probability should be discussed by the jury, as it had no part in the evi- tv. dence. The jury then retired and a few minutes later rendered their verdict with a recommendation of mercy. ter now. I am convinced that the Co- days and owing to the prominence of the defendants attracted widespread attention. Mr. Ingham is at present special resented the United States in famous British public that I was right when I hat trimming cases tried in the United States court here.

The bail of the defendants was increased from $20,000 to $40,000 and was furnished by Alexander Balfour, a paper manufacturer of this city, and H. W. Clark, cashier of the Quaker City National bank.

A. S. L. Shields, counsel for the deassertions to the contrary, and I think | fendants, made an appeal for a new trial. No time was set for the argument.

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.-It was learned from trustworthy sources that ex-United States Senator John L. Mitchell, of Tioga county, will be named as a andidate of the Superior court by the Republican state committee at its meeting tomorrow to fill the vacancy created by the withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams, of this city. Whether ex-enator Mitchell, who is now serving his second term as common pleas judge of the Tioga county court, will accept the place on the ticket could not be learned onight, as he could not be reached by wire. I learn among Republican leaders that he will not decline the honor if the committee puts his name on the ticket It is understood that Judge Mitchell was decided upon early this morning, but the fact was kept closely guarded until certain of the leaders had been heard from. Senator Quay, who is in Florida, was communicated with and he quickly wired his acquiescence in whatever the leaders, on the ground, might decide upon. Senator Penrose who has been on a stumping tour in Ohio, arrived here today and also looked with favor on Judge Mitchell's nomination. It is said that Judge Mitchell's name was advanced by Governor Stone, who is a Tioga countian and a warm friend of Judge Mitchell.

Other names mentioned today for the vacancy were those of Judge Dimner Beeber, of this city; ex-Attorney General Palmer, of Luzerne county; V. Gilpin Robinson, of Delaware county; Judge Archbald, of Lackawanna, and Judge John M. Greer, of Butler. The state committee will meet at the state headquarters in this city tomorpected that there will be a full attendance, but enough members will be present to make the nomination valid.
