

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SERMON BY REV. JAMES W. PUTNAM, D. D., OF NEW YORK.

Delivered Before a Large Audience in the Jackson Street Baptist Church—Dr. Morgan, of Carlisle, Spoke in Two Churches on the Liquor Traffic—Musical Notes About Well-Known Singers—Entertainment in Sumner Avenue Church—Other Matters of General Interest.

Rev. James W. Putnam, D. D., of New York, spoke at the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening before a very large audience. He prefaced his remarks by saying that few congregations in any city compared with the attendance there last night, and to set a hold on the people, a preacher must give them something to think about.

He spoke of the different degrees in the psalms and thought the one referred to was meant about the people going down to Jerusalem. The character referred to was one who was evidently picking flaws in his maker, and there are many people who are doing that today among their neighbors.

Speaking along the lines of attending church, he said that some people have little excuses to keep them away from church, but their excuses are not valid, for any man who makes an effort to go to church is doing something for the Lord.

In referring to the singing in churches, he said: "Where would the churches be if the song service was taken out. There is nothing can stand in the face of song. It has a large place in the influence of man, and is a power over beasts. Song touches a man's soul when words are inadequate." The reading of God's word is also an important part of the service, and morning prayer is also an important factor in the church work.

Rev. Putnam also said that any idiot can burn down a church, but it takes men to build it up, and directing his remarks to the grumbler in the church, he added that he would like to have the complainers write a sermon—"they wouldn't preach it to a yellow dog in the cellar," he said. The speaker advised people not to go to church to find fault, the fault is in themselves, and pleaded with them to go to church and learn something to do the work God has appointed them to do. Learn to do something in home and society and to do right, for the noblest work man ever did was Christian labor. Dr. Putnam referred briefly to life in the tenement districts of New York, where many young girls from 5 to 10 years of age are known as care-takers, their duties being in looking after younger children and spoke of some of the hardships endured by the poor wealthy men are giving money yearly for the support of mission work abroad, while it is greatly needed in New York. His talk was interesting and instructive and was listened to intently by his hearers.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC. Rev. Dr. Morgan, of Dickinson college, Carlisle, who is a lieutenant of Rev. Edward Dinwiddie, D. D., of Harrisburg, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania, spoke in the Washburn street Free Baptist church yesterday morning and at the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church in the evening. The object is to enlist the sympathy, cooperation and financial assistance of all the churches in the city against the liquor traffic.

Dr. Morgan spoke about what the league is, what it is doing and what it proposes to do. It is inter-denominational and is a federation of all the churches, enlisting the sympathy of all good people on the subject of intemperance. The league believes that the temperance people of this state do not pay proper attention to pending legislation and do not seem to realize that it requires constant and careful watching during the session of the legislature to hold present conditions and secure proper advancement in temperance legislation.

MUSICAL NOTES. Philip Warren, who is now substituting as bass at the Elm Park church, is engaged for the winter season as soloist at the 6 o'clock service at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church. The choir of the Plymouth church at last evening's service rendered a very excellent anthem entitled "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." It contained several solos, which were sung by Mrs. A. B. Eynon, Lillian Reynolds, David Owens and D. E. Hughes. The choir conductor, William Phillips, deserves to be congratulated on the high standard of singing at the church.

Many of the churches and Sunday schools have already begun their rehearsals on Christmas music. Tomorrow evening at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church there will be a very excellent program of music rendered. Besides several selections by a sextette there will be soloists of high repute. Richard Thomas (Llew Herberd), who has been soloist at the Elm Park church for more than ten years and who has been ill for the past six months, is slowly regaining health. The members of the newly organized male chorus which was organized last Wednesday evening at Powell's music store, will compete on "The Pilgrims" at the Cincinnati established on New Year's Day. Prof. J. T. Watkins is the conductor.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SUPPER. An entertainment and oyster supper will be held at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The following programme will be rendered: Solo, "Thinking," Arthur Morgan; recitation, "Benedict Arnold," Bennie Phillips; duet, Alice Phillips, Morgan

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 21,641. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—For some time I have thought of writing to you to let you know of the great benefit I have received from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon after the birth of my first child, I commenced to have spells with my spine. Every month I grew worse and at last became so bad that I found I was gradually losing my mind. "The doctors treated me for female troubles, but I got no better. One doctor told me that I would be insane. I was advised by a friend to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and before I had taken all of the first bottle my neighbors noticed the change in me. "I have now taken five bottles and cannot find words sufficient to praise it. I advise every woman who is suffering from any female weakness to give it a fair trial. I thank you for your good medicine."—MRS. GERTRUDE M. JOHNSON, JONESBORO, TEXAS.

Mrs. Perkins' Letter. "I had female trouble of all kinds, had three doctors, but only grew worse. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and used the Sassafras Wash, and cannot praise your remedies enough."—MRS. ERIN PERKINS, PEARL LA.

Morgan; recitation, "Out of the Fire," Edith Richards; recitation, Mattie Hughes; instrumental solo, "The King's Family," duet, "Hail to the Prince of Night," Laura Thomas, Myrtle Bates; solo, Tallie M. Evans; photograph selections, J. L. Travis; recitation and solo, "Our Flag," Ann Davis; violin duet, Misses Rook and Beck; the choir rendered a recitation, "The Crystal Wedding," Etta Williams; recitation, Maud Morgan; photograph selections, J. L. L. Graves; solo, David Davis; instrumental selection, Watkins family; instrumental selection, Roy Morzga.

FATHER MATHIAS SOCIETY. The Hyde Park Father Mathias society met yesterday afternoon and decided to conduct a debate at their next meeting on Sunday, November 5. The subject is: "Resolved, That Territorial Expansion is a Benefit to the United States." The affirmative side will be upheld by J. C. Gallagher, M. S. Lavelle and Edward Kinney, and J. H. Brown, M. J. Jennings and M. T. Walsh will speak on the negative side of the question. The society will conduct a ball at the Grand hall on Monday evening, November 7, when national and local election returns will be received in the hall by special wire.

CHURCH AMALGAMATION. Another effort is being made to amalgamate the membership of the Jackson Street and First Baptist churches, but nothing definite has been done towards accomplishing that end. It is said that a prominent worker in church matters has offered a contribution of $1,000 if the congregations will unite. It is well known that the First church people have several thousand dollars in the bank ready to apply to their proposed new church, and they are now waiting for the modified plans of the structure before advertising for proposals to build the edifice.

On the other hand, if the interest on the Jackson street church debt is not paid by November 7, the creditors will foreclose the mortgage, and the building will go under the hammer. Pastor de Gruy is making a strenuous effort to raise the money and is being ably assisted by his co-laborers. The choir and orchestra of the church at Williamsport last week passed resolutions favorable to the church, which may realize some financial assistance, but that is yet to be secured.

The membership of both churches would make a good-sized congregation, and if they were united would be an important factor in the religious work of West Scranton.

PRICE STREET PAVEMENT. Contractor Burke, who has the contract for paving Price street, between Hyde Park and Bromley avenue, has had a force of men at work for several days engaged in the work, and expects to complete the job in a few days. Cobblestones are being used in the work, and thus far the chuzgo indicates a very satisfactory improvement. Heretofore the street has been in a deplorable condition owing to the heavy rains of recent date.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The gospel meeting at the Young Women's Christian Association yesterday morning was attended by Mrs. Henry Nemesy. The subject was "Lost Opportunities." Many young people were present. Thomas J. Walsh, a miner in the Continental, had his right leg fractured by a fall of roof on Friday. The choir and orchestra of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church visited Moses Taylor hospital yesterday afternoon and conducted services there. One of their members, Mrs. L. M. Evans, is a patient there. The ladies of St. Patrick's congregation met in the church last evening and talked over the arrangements for the fair to be held during the holidays. Rev. J. B. Whelan presided at the meeting and divided the parish into districts for the collection of contributions to the enterprise. Another meeting will be held later. St. Paul's Pioneer Corps held a meeting in Masonic hall yesterday afternoon and made arrangements for the country dance to be given at the Armory next month. The Fidelity society of the Jackson Street Baptist church, will meet this evening and the members of the Sunday school will rehearse for the Harvest festival at the Armory. The Bachelors' club met yesterday afternoon and completed arrangements for their social in Meane's hall on Wednesday evening, November 1. Bauer's orchestra has been engaged. St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, will hold a regular meeting this evening. The members of the Plymouth church and congregation will tender a reception to their pastor, Rev. E. A. Boyd, and his family, at the church on Wednesday evening. Prof. R. J. Bauer rendered a violin solo at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening, which was a masterly effort. Announcement is made of the marriage of Floyd Heberling and Miss Winnie Stevens, of South Lincoln avenue, at Plymouth Congregational church, on Nov. 21.

HAPPENINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

OVER TWENTY PRISONERS BEFORE ALDERMAN MYERS.

Participants in an Early Morning Brawl on Bloom Avenue All Fined. The Rest Were Assorted and Miscellaneous Drunk and Disorderly. Insufficient Mail Service in Second and Third Wards—Missionary Society Elected Officers—Other News Gossipings and Personal Notes.

Alderman Myers had a busy police court session yesterday, nearly a score of prisoners taken by the police during the Fourth precinct being before him for hearings. The most serious of the cases heard by him was that in which Anthony Polinsky, Mathias Kolykosky, John Powell, John Cheese and Mike Cheese were arrested at 1811 Bloom avenue, early yesterday morning, for drunkenness and fighting. They were mixed up in a lively fight, using chairs, clubs and knives, and were in a splanman scrimmage when Lieutenant Powell, Officers May, Dugan and Ross hurried to the place. John Powell and John Cheese at the time were laid out flat on the floor with their heads badly cut, and the others still scrapping over the police. The police quickly subdued the fighters and removed them to the station house.

Dr. Rodham was called to dress the wounds of Powell and Cheese. Polinsky was fined $5, and each of the others $5. In addition, Powell paid $1 and John Cheese $2.50 to Dr. Rodham for surgical services. Besides this, the two Cheeses were confronted with the charge of breaking into the house of Patrick Collins, of Jernyn, and in default of $500 bail each, were committed for trial. Another bunch of arrests was made in the early morning on Lloyd street by the same officers. This time they gathered in Frank Grolsky, Frank Fromm, Matt Rensch, Joe Norrich and Peter Morvovitch, who were charged with drunkenness, fighting and disorderly conduct. Norrich and Morvovitch were discharged on showing that they were not the aggressors in the fight, while each of the other three paid fines of $5.

The next batch of prisoners, Charles Kominsky, Frank Sedol, Joe Snyder and Joe Smith, were arrested by Officers Spellman, Ross and May, on Third street, and they were drunk and fighting. Kominsky was fined $2 and the others $3 each. Patrick Burns, who said his home was in Pittston, was drunk and abusive on a street car. When the car reached the square, Officers Spellman, May and Ross called and they were dragged him off to the police station. The fact of Burns claiming Pittston as his home and being without funds, earned him discharge at the hands of the kind-hearted alderman.

John "Boss" Willie, who got a night's lodging in the very undesirable quarters of the Providence police station, was given a further period of rest in the county jail. He will be cast out upon the world again a couple of days prior to the next Thanksgiving day.

BITS OF NEWS IN NOTES. One of George Atherton's lively horses died yesterday from injuries received in falling into the North Main avenue sewer trench a few nights ago. The funeral of Michael Ream, who died from his late home on West Market street yesterday afternoon, was held at 1 o'clock, where the services were conducted by the Rev. J. J. O'Toole. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery. The funeral of Mrs. Charlotte White was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from her late home on North Main street. Rev. George E. Guild, pastor of the Providence Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member, had the services in charge. Interment was made in Dalton cemetery.

The marriage of Pansy Ebyl, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Washburn, of Court street, to Mr. Charles Eloy Lyman will take place tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon, at the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church. Foreman Robinson, of William street, had his right hand badly injured while engaged in laying a section of track in the Loggetts Creek mines.

Meadow Brook Washer. Pea coal sold to teams 75 cents a ton. Corner of Cedar avenue and Gibbons street.

SOUTH SCRANTON. A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stone, 72 Stone avenue, Wednesday evening in honor of their accomplished daughter, Miss Carol. A large number of Miss Stone's friends were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Those present were Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Emma Rose, Lena Schuler, Lizzie Asperglacher, Laura Pilger, Eva Eber, Emelia Blatter, Emma Lengler, Lizzie Renchler, Lizzie Nape, Messrs. Gust. Fruhan, Edward Lewert, Walter Lewert, Charles Miller, Charles Berghausen, Henry Mottchen, Charles Scheuch. Several vocal selections were given by the quartette composed of G. Fruhan, C. Berghausen, C. Schmelder and Henry Lewert. At midnight refreshments were served.

Mrs. William Lutz, of Carbondale, who resided on this side for a number of years, is calling on old friends and is the guest of Mrs. Edward Gardner, of Pittston avenue. The Junger Maennerchor comes, and will be held this evening at Germania hall. Any one wishing to spend a pleasant evening should attend. The Tourist club of the William Conwell Home company will meet late evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Germania hall. Mr. Felix Wenzner, formerly with the Sonnabend Journal of this side, has accepted the position of business manager of the Luzerne County express, at Wilkes-Barre.

Wright's Genuine Health Underwear for Men is not an experiment. Its merits are well known and have been thoroughly tested for years. We invite gentlemen to inspect these garments, and for the benefit of those who may be skeptical as to the true value of Wright's Health Underwear, we reproduce a circular sent by the manufacturers to the trade, i. e., to men who are supposed to thoroughly understand what proper Underwear ought to be:

TO THE TRADE. In submitting to you the "Wright's Health Underwear," we desire calling special attention to their sanitary qualities. These garments absorb the perspiration as rapidly as emitted through the pores of the skin and carry it to the surface of the fabric, where it is evaporated, thereby preventing the body from being suddenly chilled by atmospheric changes and guarding the wearer against colds, la grippe, pneumonia, rheumatism, etc. The finest material is used in their manufacture, and for warmth, comfort and durability are unsurpassed. The fleecing is woven in the fabric and is guaranteed not to wear off until the garment is thoroughly worn out. Use only ordinary care in washing fine woollens. Upon their merits alone we commend to you Wright's Health Underwear.
