TRUTH ABOUT FOOT BALL.

Carbondale Indians Defeat St Thomas College 5 to 0.

The Carbondale Indians defeated the St. Thomas College foot ball team, of Scranton, by a score of 5 to 0 at Alumni park Saturday afternoon. Inasmuch as the visitors were at no time nearer than ten yards to the Indians' goal line the locals fail to understand how three Scranton Sunday papers happened to give the score as Il to 5 in favor of the college boys, There was not even a flake of any kind that could be construed as a score for the visitors. The Indians had the ball at least two-thirds of the time and nearly all the time it was in the territory of their opponents.

Twenty minute halves were played and in the first one the Indians had forced their way steadily till within three yards when Cosgrove snatched the ball from McLain and fell on it. This was before the ball had put in play and while a mild kick was made the Indians finally acquiesced in Umpire Cuff's decision. though it unquestionally prevented them from scoring a touchdown at that time. Full Back Hadgins made a clever play early in the game when instead of making a kick which the enemy had prepared to block by bunching he made a twenty yard run.

Six minutes before the end of the second half Hope forced through the St. Thomas center. He fell, but Hercules Hadgins seized him by the seat of the padded "pants" and literally dragged him over the line for a fair and square touchdown.

It was getting dark and the goal was missed. A little scrap occurred a few minutes later, which, owing to the darkness, ended the game forty seconds before the time was up with the ball seven yards! from St. Thomas' goal. The Scrantonians who distinguished themselves on the field are Kelleher, O'Horo, Kirkwood and Langan and of the Indians, Neary, Mason, Rutherford, Crane and Hadgins did most conspicuous work. The teams lined up as follows:

St. Thomas. Indians. Rutherford.... right end .... Gallagher Murphy..... right tackle ......Frantz J. Gilhool....right guard .... Kelleher McLain..... center ...... Cosgrove Neary, McAndrew left guard .. Langan McHale ...... left end ..... O'Malley Hansen .... left half back ... Kirkwood D. Hadgins .... full back ..... As a preliminary event the Honesdale High school team defeated the Indian scrubs 5 to 0. The attendance was large and the enthusiasm unbounded.

FOUND THE SEA SERPENT.

Battle Between Forty Pounds of Boy and Forty Pounds of Fish.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean. David Cherry was nine years old in May and he lives in Bristol, Pa. His flesh, bone and sinew only weigh fortyone pounds, all told, but his pluck is equal to a ton. One day lately he and two equally youthful, but much more ponderous comrades, went out on the Neshaminy meadows to fish for suckers. The swollen waters of the creek had pushed their way back into the lateral ditches and lay there to the depth of a foot or more. As the featherweight Dave and his companions were following the bank of one of these attracted by the unwonted troubling of the muddy water at the bottom of the a couple of inches or more out of water was moving along through the field by means of the temporary water in the comrades. "It's a allygator got lost! That's what it is!" "Huh!" ejaculated another contemptuously. "Allygator nothin'. It's a blg snappin 'torkle lookin' for mushrats.' Meantime the big object in the ditch was plowing its way along, with evident dislike of the Job.

"Maybe it's the sea serpent," suggested Dave. "Let's ketch it." But the other two boys took an entirely opposite view of what was best to do, and began to move away, with the unmistakable intention of putting distance between them and the formidable-looking thing struggling in the insufficient water of the ditch. Little Dave Cherry's forty-one pounds of body and wagon load of grit weren' to be scared, and shouting to his retreating comrades to wait for him, he tumbled headlong into the ditch, threw himself upon the big living mystery. and clasped his arms about it. On that instant mud and water began to fly about with such violence that jets and lumps of it shot above the banks of the ditch as if the bottom had been disseminated by a dynamite cartridge A rod or two above where Davy had pluckily attacked the creature in its own element the water became still shallower and gradually reached its limit, land or mud only being beyond. Little David hung on and wrestled until he had worked his prize ali that distance, and by one grand effort tumbled it clear of what little water there was and on to dry land, and the battle was over. When Pavid'scaptive had gasped a few times and then lay quiet, Dave's companions approached and got down into the ditch. Dave dug the mud out of his mouth and eyes, and, sitting on his captive, said:

"You fellers is chumps!" The evidence was so strong in favor of Dave's charge that the boys entered no defense to it. It was all that the three of them could do to get Dave's trophy to the top of the ditch and carry it home. Then they learned that the prize was a German carp, and when H was weighed it was found that Dave Cherry was only one pound heavier than the carp. But Dave was disappointed
