MASON & HAMLIN CO.

Gentlemen—It is a great pleasure to me to say that I am fully satisfied, indeed delighted, with your pianofortes.

The tone of these instruments is intrinsically musical and sympathetic, and at the same time full, resonant and penetrating, while without suggestion of harshness. Their sustaining power and singing quality is remarkable. The action is firm, but light and delicate, and instantly responsive in the expression of subtle degrees of light and shade.

In my opinion they rank as the best pianos made.

We are now confronted by rebellion in territory that is now our own, and the president would be a traitor to his country and false to his oath if he did not do just what he is doing in suppressing it. War with Spain was not of our getting up; it was brought about by the cruelty of Spain and the blowing up of the Maine. It has passed, and we have taken those islands, and we are going to suppress rebellion and set up just such a government as the people there need. Charles E. Littlefield, congressmanelect, of the Second district, said that there was no such thing in the campaign as imperialism or expansion; that the question of the hour is whether President McKinley shall be true or false to his oath.
