

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

NORTHEASTERN CENTRAL LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION.

Will Be Held in St. Mark's Lutheran Church Tomorrow Morning, Afternoon and Evening—Concert in Washburn Street Presbyterian Church—Rev. James Hughes' Lecture—Entertainment and Supper—Boy Struck by Street Car—Other News Notes.

The fall convention of the North Eastern Central Lutheran league will be held in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Rev. A. L. Hamer, pastor, tomorrow. There will be three sessions, at 10 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. This central league is composed of eight locals with an active membership of over three hundred. Scranton has four local leagues, Wilkes-Barre two, Gouldsboro one, and Hobbie one. At the evening session Rev. Dr. Peschau, of Greensburg, Pa., will deliver an address on "Protestantism's Power." Dr. Peschau is an able lecturer and will present this subject with marked ability.

The following programme has been prepared for the convention:

- OPENING SESSION, 10 a. m.—12 m. Invitational service. Rev. W. C. L. Lauer, St. Paul's Scranton Address of Welcome. Geo. Allen, president of St. Mark's League Response. Rev. C. G. SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT.

An opulent supper and entertainment was given last evening in the summer Avenue Presbyterian church and was attended by a large number. The supper was served after the entertainment, which commenced at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. L. R. Foster, presided.

Arthur Morgan sang "Thinking" with excellent effect and Tallie Evans sang "Son of the Desert am I," in a splendid manner. David Davis also sang a solo. The Watkins family, of Taylor, gave several selections, which were well received, and Mrs. Book and Mrs. Rooker played a violin duet in their usual excellent style.

The Misses Alice Phillips and Margaret Morgan sang a duet, and recitations were delivered by Bonnie Phillips, Edith Richards, Mattie Hughes and Maude Morgan. J. L. Travis also contributed several phonograph selections. Altogether the programme was excellent and was thoroughly appreciated by those present.

REV. HUGHES' LECTURE.

Rev. James Hughes delivered an especially interesting and timely lecture last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church on "The British-Boer War."

The pastor, Rev. D. Hopkins, acted as chairman of the evening, and the lecture was listened to by a fair-sized audience. The speaker's residence in the Transvaal makes him particularly competent to speak on this subject. He opened his remarks with a description of the country and the existing conditions there today.

He said that there are 250,000 English-speaking people in the country and that these are controlled by 60,000 Dutch Boers. There is a parliament composed of 5,000 and an executive committee over this again. Oom Paul Kruger acts as president of this committee.

Mr. Hughes said that the war was not for annexation or for humanity, but that it was for the sole purpose of securing better representation in the government for the English-speaking population.

FIDELIAN SOCIETY.

A souvenir entertainment will be given at the Jackson Street Baptist church this evening under the auspices of the Fidelity society. Each person holding a ticket will be presented with a china cup and saucer. The following programme will be rendered:

- Selection.....Glee Club Recitation.....Bertha Williams Hymn Solo.....Audron Hutchison Recitation.....Annie Thomas Recitation.....Mildred Green Recitation.....Edith and Jessie Beddoe Recitation.....Mable Spencer Selection.....Glee Club

A social session will be held after the entertainment.

STRUCK BY A STREET CAR.

A six-year-old boy named Joseph Jordan, residing with his parents on Luzerne street, was knocked down by a Luzerne car at 5:30 o'clock last evening, and slightly injured. The car was in charge of Conductor Gardner, and was running at the usual rate of speed when the accident occurred.

Young Jordan, with several other children, was playing in the street, and ran directly in front of the car, before he noticed it coming. He was bruised about the legs, and was carried to his home, where medical assistance was rendered. The men in charge of the car were in no way responsible for the accident.

EXCELLENT CONCERT.

The concert at the Washburn street Presbyterian church last evening was undoubtedly one of the best ever given in the city. It is to be regretted that a larger audience was not present to enjoy the treat. The enlarged choir, augmented by Bauer's orchestra, rendered several excellent numbers under the direction of Prof. C. B. Dorman.

Misses Margaret Jones and Lydia Suller sang sweetly together, and Miss Beatrice Morris recited several appropriate selections. She was commended to respond to encores after each of her numbers on the programme.

Miss Suller's two solos, the violin playing of Miss Julia Allen and Miss Cordelia Freeman's singing were particularly pleasing. The efforts of the accompanists, Miss Blackman and Mr. Naylor, added much to the success of the concert. The rendition of "Carita" by the ladies semi-chorus was also well received.

In addition to those mentioned, who contributed to the success of the undertaking, were the following: Misses Anna Waters, Margaret Jones, Mary Davis, alto; Mrs. Dr. Brewster, Miss Flynn, Miss Suller, soprano; Harold Battin, J. A. Stone, basses; George Waters, Messrs. Gutcinz, Kreig and Peck, tenors.

FUNERALS YESTERDAY.

Many friends and relatives attended the funeral services over the remains of the late Edward Shiffer yesterday afternoon at the house on Chestnut street. Rev. Dr. Giffin, of Elm Park church, officiated. The pall-bearers were Harry May, John Mofr, Steven McKenna, Eugene May, Philip Rosar and Joseph Emery. Burial was made in the Dunmore cemetery.

The funeral of Ellen, the young child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coleman, of Third street, occurred yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

Rev. P. E. Laville conducted the services over the remains of the late Henry Evans at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning. The body was afterwards borne to the Catholic cemetery, where interment was made.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS.

Complaints have been made by residents of Tenth street, between Oxford and Luzerne streets, about boys throwing stones against the doors and windows of the buildings, and Patrolman Kiah Peters made a visit in the locality last evening and captured a boy named Frank Murray, of 228 Edwards court, who admitted throwing stones.

When questioned by Lieutenant Williams at the station house, Murray gave the names of Harry Burke, 205 Tenth street; Edgar Davis, Evan Williams and John Davis, of Aswell court, who were also implicated in the trouble. An investigation will be made by the police and several arrests will be made in order to break up such disturbances.

DIED IN SEATTLE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, wife of Thomas Jones, and sister of Mrs. John Neat, of this city, died last Sunday in Seattle, Washington, where she resided during the past ten years. Deceased is survived by her husband and three children.

The family formerly resided here, having moved to Seattle ten years ago. Mrs. Jones was well-known here, and EVERY woman suffering from any female trouble can be helped by Mrs. Pinkham. This statement is based on sound reasoning and an unrivaled record. Multitudes of America's women to-day bless Mrs. Pinkham for competent and common-sense advice. Write to her if you are ill. Her address is Lynn, Mass. Absolutely no charge is made for advice. "I suffered seven years and would surely have died but for your help," writes Mrs. GEO. BAINBRIDGE, Morea, Pa., to Mrs. Pinkham. "It is with pleasure I now write to inform you that I am now a healthy woman, thanks to your kind advice and wonderful medicine. I can never praise it enough. I was a constant sufferer from womb trouble, and leucorrhoea, had a continual pain in abdomen. Sometimes I could not walk across the floor for three or four weeks at a time. Since using your medicine, I now have no more bearing-down pains, or tired feelings, and am well and hearty. I shall recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all my suffering friends as the greatest remedy for all female weakness."

Mrs. STURJ. J. WEAVER, 1521 Callowhill St., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had inflammation of the womb and painful menstruation, and by your advice I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Have taken four bottles and used one package of Sanative Wash and feel like a new woman. I thank you so much for what your medicine has done for me."

Mrs. M. BAUMANN, 771 W. 21st St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "After two months' trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I can not say enough in praise for it. I was a very sick woman with womb trouble when I began its use, but now I am well."

her death will be mourned by many friends.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. An unknown man was sandbagged and robbed on Meridian street Monday evening, but the assailant escaped before he was recognized.

A large party of West Scranton people attended the celebration of W. G. Thomas' fiftieth birthday anniversary at Pittston Monday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent.

Moses Taylor lodge, No. 21, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gahagan, 523 Pleasant street, for the purpose of packing a box of fruit and provisions for the aged railroaders' Home. All members are requested to take along any kind of dried fruit or provisions.

A new weighing scales is being erected at the Bellevue breaker, where the teamsters weigh the coal before delivering it to their customers.

The executive committee of the First Baptist church met at the home of Charles Corless, on South Main avenue, last evening and examined the modified plans of their proposed new church building.

Miss Kathryn May Smithing, of Meridian street, and Edgar Maitland Barnes, of Peckville, will be married at 8 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride.

The committee in charge of the complimentary concert for Richard Thomas will meet this evening in the First Welsh Baptist church.

Miss Jennie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, of 1223 Washburn street, and Sylvanus F. Scott, will be married this evening at 8 o'clock.

The members of the Plymouth Congregational church will tender a reception this evening to their pastor, Rev. E. A. Boyd, and his family. Addresses will be delivered by several members of the church, and the choir will render several selections.

St. Leo's battalion held a special meeting last evening and made arrangements to attend the funeral of the late Martin Cawley this afternoon. Services will be held at St. Patrick's church at 2:30 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

M. T. Glynn, of Dunmore, and Miss Kate B. Walsh, of the West Side, will be married at St. Patrick's church this morning.

The sudden illness of the woman was reported as caused from too much work and strain on the nervous system. Mrs. Rhule buried a child a few weeks ago and her father, who has been ill for some time, is said to be in a precarious condition. Mrs. Rhule has been in constant attendance and the strain has been too much for her.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church contemplate holding a fair and bazaar during the early part of December.

Last evening the Providence convalescence, No. 95, Improved Order of Heptasophs, observed their tenth anniversary at the auditorium, at which the members and their wives and ladies participated. Addresses were given by A. A. Vohaus and M. E. Sanders.

The school deposits for this month at No. 25 school by rooms were as follows: Professor J. J. Costello's room, $1.25; Miss Teresa C. Battle's room, 5 cents; Miss Kate D. Jordan's room, $1.31; Miss Kate Boyle's room, 25 cents; Miss Ella O'Boyle's room, $1.29; Miss E. Norton's room, 14 cents; total, $4.43.

The members of Company H received their caps Monday evening. Their uniforms are now complete.

James Neary, of Brick avenue, is visiting friends in New York city.

Miss Annie Golden, of Oak street, is seriously ill.

Peter J. Hoban and John J. Murphy, both of Providence, have left for Butte City, Mont., where they will permanently locate. Evan Williams, of Nuttman street, is visiting relatives in Nanticoke. George Lyman and family, of Nanticoke, are visiting the Rev. and Mrs. S. G. Lyman, of Court street. Mr. and Mrs. John Fidler are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home on West Market street. William Powell, of Chappel street, is visiting Miss Ida Starr, of Benton.

THOSE DESIRING HOMES will find it to their advantage to get prices and terms on Farr's home sites, North Main avenue. Many lots have already been sold on this desirable plot. Values will surely increase.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Special Meeting of School Board. Death of Little Ellen McDermott.

An Afternoon Wedding. A special meeting of the school board was held in the central building last evening.

President Webber called the meeting to order and announced its object as an opportunity to meet the tax collector, William Carrall, and pass on the exonerations which he would lay before the board.

The evening was taken up with discussions of the names to be exonerated of which there were several hundred, after which the board adjourned to meet Tuesday, November 7th.

DEATH OF A CHILD. The little thirteen-months' old daughter, Ellen, of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McDermott, of Potter street, died yesterday afternoon at half-past three.

The death of the little one came as a heart rending shock to the parents, who were wrapped up in their little daughter so interestingly developing. The funeral will take place at 3:30 this afternoon.

CHARMING WEDDING. St. Mary's church, on Chestnut street, was the scene of a charming wedding yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, when Miss Katherine Sweeney and Mr. M. A. Cullen were united in wedlock.

Father Donlan performed the ceremony, after which the happy young couple took the evening train for an extended wedding tour.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. The various articles remaining from the fair held by the Neptune Fire company during the first of the month will be changed off Saturday night. The contest for the scholarship offered by the Colliery Engineer of Scranton will be decided also.

Card are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Rose Farrell, the daughter of John Farrell, of Apple street, and Mr. George Long, of Scranton.

The social held by the L. C. B. A., last evening in Manley's hall was well attended and proved a successful pleasure evening.

This afternoon Rev. A. W. Cooper will address the audience in the Methodist Episcopal church in the interests of the revival services. Rev. J. F. Warner will preach tonight.

PERSONAL ITEMS. Miss A. Bertha Dony, of Williamsport, who has been spending the past six weeks visiting Dunmore friends, returned home yesterday.

Important to Teachers

Next week is Institute. We are already making preparations to entertain you. We expect to serve some unusually good dinners in our Restaurant—though it would seem that every day the dinner is as good as it can be. If there be parties of you who wish special tables reserved for the week, let us know a little ahead. Our mission here is to serve you best. Twenty-five cents pays for your dinner.

Concerning Wrappers

It is important that you should know more of this Wrapper stock. It is the consensus of opinion that none other hereabouts is equal to it. Ten different styles are shown at 98 cents. Of flannellets and percales with choice of ruffled or plain full skirts. Some are in striped effects with ruffles over shoulders; others are small pretty designs, braid trimmed. Another style at $1.19 is of heavy flannel with ruffles over shoulders trimmed with braid. These come in all shades as well as plain indigo blue. Still better ones of flannellette at $1.49. These come in blue and red only with braid trimmed yoke; also in blue striped effects with fancy trimmed sleeves and very full skirts. A very handsome wrapper is lowly priced at $2.98. Trimmed with velvet, the front being finished with yoke of white silk. Others in price up to five dollars. Department on second floor, Wyoming avenue.

Baby Carriage Robes

To put the baby wagon or go-cart in full dress, you'll require one of these robes. They provide both comfort and style and at little cost. Some are white satin quilted; others quilted of pale pink or blue flannel. Prices begin at $2.25—from that by easy stages up to ten dollars. All are very little priced.

New Books and Games

Appropos of Friday night's event, we are showing some very pretty souvenirs of Miss Maud Adams in "The Little Minister." Highly engraved pictures of many scenic effects in the play. Twenty-five cents buys one of them. Guessing the titles of books from puzzle cards is the latest fad. An ingenious Scranton woman is the inventor. The cards are handsomely engraved and are packed in a box with key, etc. One dollar pays for a set—just the thing for a gift. Ask to see them.

New Seal Collarettes

The height of style at little cost. That's the mission of the Collarette. These of electric seal are unusually good in quality; full ten inches wide with astrakhan yoke; large sweep and trimmed with cluster of sable furs. Five dollars would be cheap for them—suppose we sell you one at $3.98.

Curtains and Upholstery

Before Saturday night we expect to sell three hundred pairs of Irish Point Lace Curtains. The reason is they are specially priced a third less than they've ever been. Patterns are rich and choice. A very pretty pair at $2.70—the very finest at $10.75. Tapestry Portieres, too, come under the ban of heavy selling this week. A hundred pairs full three yards long, with handsome fringe top and bottom, are selling rapidly at $1.89 the pair. They're worth a third more. Our finest Portieres in Empire and Front-Porter designs at $10.75 the pair. Fairly priced they'd be fifteen dollars.
