GOLF TOURNAMENT AT COUNTRY CLUB

SCRANTON PLAYERS MAKE A FINE SHOWING.

Eight Local Men Among the Sixteen Who Qualified for the Cup Contest. Captain Brooks Was Close Upon Travis, the New York Crack, Who Has the Record of Winning More Cups Than Any Other Player in the United States—The Scores in Detail and Pairs for Today.

The second annual tournament of the Country club, of Scranton, opened yesterday afternoon with the usual indication of the remainder of the week, all of the ray anticipations of this much talked of event will be more than realized.

FOITY NEW ENGINES.

Lackawanna Company to Place an Order for This Number Today. The Lackawanna Railroad company will today place an order for forty new mammoth locomotives of the "hog" pattern similar to those just received.

CAPTAIN BROOKS' PLAYING.

Captain Brooks probably never played a better game than yesterday. He made magnificent drives, far outplaying Mr. Travis in long shots, although the latter excelled in his approaches which are always sure and true.

THE WATER FAMINE.

Oil Cars Are Being Used to Supply the Boilers and Breakers Up the Valley. The urgent need of rain in the smaller towns up the valley is evidenced by the manner in which the supply of water is obtained for family use and the running of machinery at the various breakers and timber camps.

SOME CLOSE SCORES.

The summary of the score for the Country club is as follows: Out. In. Total. 1. W. J. Travis, Oakland, Pa., 101 101 202.

SHE HAD A SUSPICION.

Took forcible Means of Confirming It and Was Arrested. Before Alderman Miller yesterday afternoon the case of Mrs. Winlock was heard, in which she charged that on the particular night her husband was with the woman who broke into the house, with the assistance of Cassie Roth.

MOSCOW WILL BE AFFECTED.

Lackawanna Employees Must Move to This City. The first step made by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company to concentrate their working forces at convenient points along the line, came in the nature of an order to the effect that all engineers, firemen or trainmen residing at Moscow must move to Scranton at their earliest convenience.

OCTOBER WEDDINGS WERE NUMEROUS

TEN COUPLES UNITED YESTERDAY IN THIS CITY.

Glynn-Walsh Nuptials at St. Patrick's Church—Barnes-Smithing Event at Bride's Home—Burkett-Reese Wedding on Monroe Avenue.

Lehman-Gramp Ceremony in Green Ridge—Savitts-Thomas and Redmond-Joseph Affairs—South Scranton Weddings.

A pretty wedding ceremony uniting Miss Kathryn B. Walsh of Scranton street, and M. T. Glynn, of Dunmore, was performed in St. Patrick's church, West Scranton at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, by Rev. J. J. Ruddy.

The couple were attended by Miss Helen Walsh, sister of the bride, and Edward J. Duffy, cousin of the groom. Both ladies were becomingly attired. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives and a few friends of the contracting parties.

BARNES-SMITHING.

Miss Kathryn May Smithing and Edgar Maitland Barnes were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Meridian street. Rev. S. C. Loomis, D. D. performed the ceremony. Miss Lena Barnes, sister of the groom, and Louis Smithing, brother of the bride, were maid of honor and best man respectively.

SAVITTS-THOMAS.

Sylvanus Savitts, of 128 South Fillmore avenue, and Miss Jennie Thomas, of 1223 Washburn street, were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, by Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church.

The bridesmaid was Miss Myrtle Savitts, sister of the groom, and the groomsmen were John Thomas, brother of the bride. Both ladies were attired in white, and carried white and pink roses. After the ceremony a reception and supper were held.

GRAVER-MELVIS.

Miss Mary Melvis, of Cedar avenue, and George Graver, of Throop, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at St. John's church, on Pig street. Rev. M. J. Fleming officiated. Mendelsohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Kate T. Reardon as the bridal party proceeded to the altar. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the young couple.

REDMOND-JOSEPH.

At the parsonage of the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday evening, the pastor, Rev. Thomas de Vries, officiated in marriage Miss Cassie Joseph, of North Bromley avenue, and John Redmond, of Thirteenth street. The couple were unattended.

BURKETT-REESE.

Dr. Flavius O. Burkett, of Topeka, Kansas, and Miss Minnie Reese, of 241 Monroe avenue, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. F. E. Doty, pastor of the Cedar avenue Methodist Episcopal church.

LEHMAN-GRAMP.

A pretty home wedding occurred Tuesday noon, when Miss Katherine Gramp and Mr. John Lehman were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother on Green Ridge street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James McLeod of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Lehman left on the 2:29 train for New York.

GROWS MORE PROMISING.

Prospect of Securing Tin Plate Industry Brightens Every Day. The prospects for the establishment of the tin plate industry in this city are becoming more promising every day.

The board of trade has now secured options on a number of sites for the proposed plant all of which will be given careful consideration. The following are the sites offered to the Western company's land known as the Dickson City annex, at Dickson City, six acres of land offered by the Duane Improvement company and located on the Diamond Flats; Reynolds' Bros', tract near N. Y. Aug tunnel, and a tract in Keyser valley. Secretary Atherton expressed a letter yesterday from Mr. T. J. T. in which the latter said he believed the services of Mr. Paton, who was in this city on Saturday last, could be secured as general manager. If Mr. Paton is secured the board will be prepared to give the project its unequalled indorsement and to render any material assistance necessary as when the latter was here last week he made an excellent impression on the members of the manufacturing committee.
