

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF MARTIN CAWLEY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. Services Conducted in St. Patrick's Church by Rev. J. J. Ruddy—Cases Before Alderman John—Reception to Rev. E. A. Boyd in Plymouth Church—Entertainment Given by Fidelity Society—Death of Mrs. William Lee—Personals and Other Interesting News Notes.

The funeral of the late Martin Cawley, who died from injuries received while at work in the Capouse colliery, occurred yesterday afternoon from the parental residence on Price street. The cortege moved to St. Patrick's church, where short services were held at 2:30 o'clock.

St. Leo's battalion, of which the deceased was a member, attended the services. The members of the Capouse Mine Accidental fund were also present. Rev. J. J. Ruddy officiated.

The pall-bearers were: John Gibbons, James Gurrell, Thomas Reap, Joseph Flynn, Daniel Moran, James Deegan, Patrick McHale, John McHugh and Thomas Campbell. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

BEFORE ALDERMAN JOHN. William John Roderick, of Jackson street, must be a real bad man, judging from the charges preferred against him by his wife and the latter's two sisters. Three separate and distinct charges of assault and battery were preferred yesterday against him before Alderman John by the three women. He was held in $500 bail for his appearance at court.

Peter Regalia, of Hennessy court, caused the arrest of his step-brother, Michael Pennell, yesterday for assaulting other members of the family. After the hearing the case was settled by the costs being paid.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL. The Fidelity society, of the Jackson street Baptist church, gave a pleasing entertainment last evening in the church, and the patrons were presented with china cups and saucers as souvenirs. Rev. Thomas de Gruchy was chairman, and a glee club composed of young men, members of the church, sang several selections.

Recitations were given by Bertha Williams, Ethel Jenkins and Mabel Spencer. Edith and Bessie Redden sang a duet and Judson Hutchinson gave a banjo solo. The entertainment was followed by a social.

PASTOR'S RECEPTION. Rev. E. A. Boyd, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, was ANNABEL LEE. It was many and many a year ago. In a kingdom by the sea. That a maiden there lived whom you may know. By the name of Annabel Lee. And her name she lived with no other thought. Than to love and be loved by me.

ANNABEL LEE. I was a child and she was a child. In this kingdom by the sea. But we loved with a love that was more than love— I and my Annabel Lee; With a garden that winged seraphs of heaven Coveted her and me.

ANNABEL LEE. And this was the reason that, long ago, In this kingdom by the sea, A wind blew out of a cloud, chilling My beautiful Annabel Lee. So that her high-born kinsman came And bore her away from me, To shut her up in a sepulcher In this kingdom by the sea.

ANNABEL LEE. The angels not half so happy in heaven, Went envying her and me— Yes!—that was the reason (as all men think) That the wind came out of the cloud by night, Chilling and killing my Annabel Lee.

ANNABEL LEE. For our love it was stronger by far than the love Of those who were older than we— Of neither the angels in heaven above, Nor the demons down under the sea. Can ever discover my soul from the soul Of the beautiful Annabel Lee.

ANNABEL LEE. For the moon never beams without bringing me dreams Of the beautiful Annabel Lee. And the stars never rise but I feel the bright eyes Of the beautiful Annabel Lee. And so, the night-time, I lie down by the side Of my darling—my darling—my life and my bride, In her tomb by the sounding sea, In her tomb by the sounding sea. —Edgar Allan Poe.
