PREPARING FOR GAMES.

Pennsylvania Football Club Will Practice at Water-Gap.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Stroudsburg, Oct. 30 .- The University of Pennsylvania foot ball team are expected to come to the Water Gap on Wednesday of this week for private practice. It has been the custom of the team to come to the Gap for a short season before the big game with Harvard. After the game with the Chicago people last Saturday it was announced that the U. P. team would come to the mountains for rest.

The thirty-five minute halves which the Quakers were compelled to play against the protest of Captain Hare in the Chicago game has somewhat used the team up and it is expected that the burglars visited two North Franklin pure mountain air at the Gap will put new life into the team. Little or no hard practice will be given the players about $500. by Coach Woodruff while at the Gap. The players will take life easy. In former years they climbed the mountains and engaged in light sport and had been forced open. All of the octhey are expected to follow the work cupants of the house were at the theaof former years. The team will be quartered at the Kittatiny House.

KILLED ON THE RAIL

Mangled Remains of an Hungarian Found Near Stockton Sunday.

Hazleton, Oct. 30 .- Steve Stracka, an Hungarian resident of No. 4 Stockton. was found dead on the rail near Stockton at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. It is supposed he was killed by the passenger train leaving here at 9:05 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Stracka's body was picked up by the erew of engine 427 and conveyed to Philip Boyle's morgue. His two legs were severed, his brains and intestines were visible and he was otherwise crushed. There was a heavy fog prevailing and it is thought that a dozen trains must have passed over him When found his body was wedged between a switch, the form lying across the track. For almost two hundred yards there was blood spots, showing that he must have been sleeping on the track when struck. The blood indicates that he was dragged the dis-

NICHOLS RAILWAY SURVEY.

Completed by A. B. Dunning, of Scranton, and Mr. Moore of Orwell. Special to The Scranton Tribune

Towarda, Oct. 30 .- The preliminary survey of the now talked-of railroad between LeRaysville and Nichols, N. Y., has been accomplished by Messrs, Dunning of Scranton and Moore of North Orwell. The work was done to get the exact elevation between Gillett's bridge and LeRaysville, the bed until April, of the Wysox creek at Gillett's bridge being taken as the base line.

The survey brought out many surprising results, the grade from Gillett's bridge to Conklin's corners being a trifle less than eighty teet to the mile, while the grade from there to LeRays. viile averaged about ninety feet. The location of the terminus at LeRayaville is at the back of a town hill. The eastern Bradford people are greatly interested and are now awaiting a visit from President Truesdale in the near

ANOTHER MONROE FIRE.

Stauffer's Saw Mill and Clothespin

Factory Burned.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Oct. 30 .- The saw mill and clothespin factory belonging to Mr. Isaac Stauffer, at Stauffer's, this county, was completely destroyer by fire. The loss is nearly $10,000. The flames were discovered by an employe who detected the smell of burning rubber. Dwing to the inflammable nature of the contents of the building it was impossible to save anything. In a few minutes after the fire was detected the saw mill was a mass of fire which quickly spread towards the clothes pin short time. Two houses close by were badly scorched but fire was kept from them by a bucket brigade.

Before an hour had clapsed from the time the fire was first discovered the places and their contents were gutted. 5,000 feet of sawed lumber was also destroyed. The machinery in both mills was ruined. There was no insurance on either of the two burned buildings,
