EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

AECEPTNON BY CHI UPSILON SO-CIETY LAST EVENING.

Very Enjoyable Affair Held in the Washburn Street Presbyterian Church-Prize Contest in Home Magazine Closed-Older Members of Simpson Church Entertained-Cases Before the Aldermen-Funeral of Mrs. Williams-MacLaren-Slack Nuptials-St. Cecelia's Concert-Other Smeller Paragraphs.

The Chi Upsilon society, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, gave a public reception, entertainment and supper last evening to the male members of the church and congregation and other friends in their rooms in the church. The literary programme was presided over by George Schoen, and consisted of an address of welcome by George Waters, reading and talk on "The Man With the Hoe," William Bunnell; talk on "The Influence of Editorials," D. A. Stone; "The Army," Turvey Breeze; "The Muse of Brotherhood," C. H. Hall; "The Clerk Who Saves," David L. Morgan; "How I Read a Newspaper," A. E. Morse.

The subjects were treated by the different speakers in a very interesting manner and were thoroughly enjoyed by the assemblage. At the conclusion of the programme, the guests were invited to the dining room, where tables were spread for a large number and provision made for the entertainment of many guests. Through some misunderstanding, however, there was not as many present as expected, owing to the invitation being misinterpreted, The affair was for the young men of the church and their male friends. That fact, did not interfere with the pleasure of the occasion, and those who were present enjoyed a feast of good

Around the different tables were seated the following gentlemen: Turvey Preese, Horace Keene, M. G. Dimmick, Edward A. Walker, Arthur Elias, Harry F. Stevens, Walter D. Evans, R. D. Pettit, W. H. Williams, J. F. Cool, F. H. Eaton, George D. Martin. Will Elias, Robert J. Williams, E. A. Cruttenden, D. L. Morgan, D. A. Stone, L. A. Stevens, George J. Barrowman, Robert J. Lewis, Con. Keen. Fred L. Beers, Charles H. Hall, Herbert Waters, Frank H. Thornton, George H. Keen, George Schoen, J. H. Battenberg, A. E. Morse and William T. Burrell,

After the luncheon was served President Schoen called upon Professor Cruttenden, who made brief remarks The other speakers were W. H. Wil-Hams, Robert J. Williams, R. D. Pettit, L. A. Stevens, Robert J. Lewis and William T. Burrell. All referred to the pleasure of attending such an event

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS.

Charles Durso, who conducts a shoe repairing shop on Jackson street, was annoyed by a number of boys yesterday, who were throwing stones at his door. Complaint was entered before Alderman John and a warrant was issued for the arrest of several young-

At the hearing last evening the fact was developed that Patrick McGinty was the most offensive of the crowd, and the alderman held him under $200 ball for malicious mischief.

Another crowd of meddlesome youths were disturbing the services at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church last evening and the pastor, Rev. L. R. Foster, swore out a warrant before Atderman John for the ringleader's arrest. He will be given a hearing to-

Several patrolnien were busily engaged last evening in disbursing crowds of boys, in different sections of West Scranton who were engaged in displacing gates and throwing missiles at doors. If the practice is followed tonight several arrests will be made of boys whose names are known to the

REBUS CONTEST CLOSED.

An interesting rebus contest, which was commenced in the Home Magazine, published by Clarke Bros., the well known merchants, closed recently, and the winners of the several prizes have just been announced. Over two hundred answers were received, many of which were partially correct, while others were absolutely correct. The winners of the prizes were as follows: First prize, $10-Miss Minnie Howe.

1725 Capouse avenue. Second prize, 11-Miss Mary Beck, 123 South Sumner avenu-Third prize, H-Henry P. Wetmore, 34

Sunset avenue Fourth prize, $1-Mrs. G. M. Oram, Fifth prize, $1-Miss Hattie Price, 115

The prizes were awarded by three disinterested and competent judges, and the solution will be published in the November issue of the magazine. Another contest will also be conducted, which is fully explained in the paper and will close November 25. Clarke Bros., deserve credit for the original methods adopted a advertising, and in addition to giving away a half dozen pianos, they have also made many liberal donations to worthy charities.
