THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1899.

CARBONDALE.

DEATH OF GEROGE SCHAFER.

George E, Schafer died at his home 27 South Main street, yesterday morning at six o'clock. Mr. Schafer was born in this city July 19, 1857, and always liveo here. He learned the cigarmaker's trade, and at the time of his demise, conducted a shop on Seventh avenue. He was never married and is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Schafer, and two sisters, Emma and Frances, Deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythins, the Cigarmakers' Union and the First Presbyterian church. The funeral services will be held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles Lee will officiate. It is said that the immediate cause of his death was dropsy of the liver. He was of a most genial nature, and the news of his demise will be heard with sincere regret by a wide circle of friends. Mr. Schafer was a talented musician and for years was known as one of the leading members of both the Mozart band and orchestra.

UNDER $500 BAIL.

John Fazzio, an Italian youth, and his companion were placed under $500 ball at Alderman Jones' office last evening. They are charged with shooting nine year old John McGowan in the leg. The shooting was the result of a Sunday scrap between the Italians of Electric alley and some lads of Dundaff street. The bullet has been removed and the injured boy's condition is not considered sectors.

TRACTION CO'S. ORDINANCE PASSED.

Select council met last evening in special session and passed finally the ordinance providing for the narrowing of the guage of the Traction company. There was a remonstrance against it and a petition for it but as the documents were of about equal weight the solons exercised their discretion. Messrs, Sweiger, Nealon, Battle, Eaton and Thompson voted for the ordinance, and Mr. Mannion refrained from voting. When the proposed change is made through cars will be run between this city and Scranton.

KILLED IN THE MINES.

Patrick Walsh sustained fatal injuries in the Coalbrook mine yesterday morning. He was engaged about a mile from the opening when a fall of rock pinned him to the earth. His brother, William, who was near him, summoned help. Ten men worked with all their might until the unfortunate miner was extricated. He was unconscious and died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital, Rev. W. A. Nealon was with him during the last moments, Deceased was born in Ireland in 1861, He is survived by a mother and two brothers, William and Michael, phases of life that it portroys are not of a healthy kind. There is no moral lesson, not even an excuse for one, to be drawn from this story of the illicit love of a variety actress Every one knows the story. Zaza, the vaudeville singer, the gay, butterfly creature, falls in love with a married man; falls desperately, passionately in love for the first time in her wild career. They live together for six months in a chateau in the forest she not knowing he is married and thinking him-well, thinking him the grandest creature in the world. Then the busy tongues at work tell her he is married, with a wife in Paris. A great overpowering, sudden, furious, terrible jealousy takes hold of her She rushes to Paris determined to denounce him as a villain to his wife. She does go to his house and meets his little daughter, who tells her of her papa and her love for him. At sight of her Zaza repents and though she meets the wife face to face, she does not tell her anything. We next see her in her home again

His replies anger her and she tells him a lie to test his friendship. Sha tells him that she has seen his wife and told her all. Then the true spirit of the man shows itself and he turns on her with an angry ery and makes to leave the house. She tells him it is false and then tells him what she thinks of him, to use a vulgar expres-sion, "she gives him fits." In this scene Miss Howard rose to a splendid height and launched out that torrent of invective with a wonderful power. In the earlier scenes she was not as effective, the scene with the little child being entirely too suggestive of the polar regions.

MRS. ANDERSON'S BABY.

You couldn't convince Mrs. Andersou that Cupid ever was as pretty as her little girl

Mrs. H. C. Anderson is well known in South Britain, Conn., where she lives, She is very enthusiastic about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription although no more so than thousands of other women who have been similarly benefited. She writes : 3 "During the rst month of the

During the gents of the period of of the period

Mothers who suffer undue pain prior to or succeeding the baby's birth are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter, absolutely without charge. The great success which has attended the careful methods pursued by Dr. Pierce, has caused imitators to spring up, who make offers of free advice, which they are not competent to advice, which they are not competent to give, not being physicians. When you are invited to "write to a woman," ask the simple question, "Is this woman a physician?" You will find that she is not, and does not, and dares not claim to be, a physician. To offer such advice is deceitful. To receive it is dangerous. Prospective mothers should send for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1,000 page book the "Common Sense Medical Adviser." A copy in paper-covers will be sent to any address on receipt of 21
